vinia, are loaning theirs, and the Rothschild stables at the request of Mr. E. M. Laing, are sending two of theirs, while one or two others are promised.

There are to be fish ponds, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Raff; one for boys and one for girls, so that when the bent-pin fisherman pulls up a prize from the barrel, he does not find a small doll, or something equally ladylike.

A sugar plum tree, being conducted by Mrs. M. J. Hardacre's committee, is going to blossom forth, so that all the children who have always wondered what a sugar plum tree really is, will now know. For the hungry and thirsty ice cream and pop will be available.

Furniture Display

The furniture committee, Mrs. H. H. Bede, chairman, will have hickory furniture from Duffy's of Highland Park, bird baths and trellises from Meierhoff, besides iron furniture lawn and beach umbrellas, reclining chairs and other attractive articles from the F. P. Smith Iron and Wire Works, and the Geo. B. Carpenter Co.

The bulb and seed committee, Mrs. Atwill, chairman, have secured a large assortment from Vaughan's. There will be cinnamon and madeira vine bulbs, ovalis in various colors, rubrum and umbrellatum lilies, choice gladiolus in named varieties, and orders can be placed now for other lilies and for all the spring bulbs, which will be delivered early in the fall. Tulips, it is said, will be cheaper than they have been in years. All sorts of seeds will be on sale, and the committee emphasizes that May is the best time to plant any of them either in the open or in cold frames. Rock garden seeds and other perennials, as well as annuals, come along best if planted at this time.

Textiles, baskets and novelties, under Mrs. M. J. Hardacre's committee, have been secured from the Berea Fireside Industries of Kentucky, Brown Co., Indians, the Tryon Shop, and the Duncan studios of Winnetka.

Mrs. Brackett Speaks At Community Garden Class Session Here

Mrs. C. C. Brackett gave a most enlightening talk on "Delphiniums" before the Community Garden class at the Highland Park Woman's club on Wednesday, April 15.

Members of the class were very pleased to congratulate Mrs. Brackett on her recent election as director of the Illinois Garden clubs.

The program chairman of the Garden class is planning a picnic at the Waukegan flats to replace the regular meeting on May 20, so please keep that date open.

The usual May plant sale will not be held at the Woman's club this year as members are planning to patronize the Ravinia Garden club's flower market.

Home Products

The home products committee, Mrs. B. J. Buckingham, chairman, has lovely washable garden baskets, cushions, aprons, and other attractive articles in the making.

The Competition committee, Mrs. J. C. Ewell, chairman, announces that all the garden clubs of the North Shore have been invited to enter a flower arrangement contest, and that Mrs. Frederick Fisher, honorary president of the Garden Club of Illinois, has consented to be chairman of the Judging committee.

The Pottery and Glassware committee, Mrs. Danielson and Mrs. R. L. Thorsch, chairman, are planning to set several outdoor tables, to display the lovely articles they will have for sale. Mrs. J. M. H. Lebolt and Mrs. Thorsch will set a picnic table, Mrs. H. G. Kornblith a bridge table, and one umbrella table will be set appropriately.

The committee membership is as follows:

ARMY AIRPLANES TO STAGE BIG SPECTACLE

670 Pursuit and Bombing Planes To Give Demonstration in Chicago May 20

Complete arrangements for the demonstration to be staged by 670 Army airplanes over Chicago on May 20 were announced today by the War Department, according to information received by Major General Frank Parker, commanding the Sixth Corps area, with headquarters in Chicago.

On May 19 the entire First Air Division, commanded by Brigadier General Benjamin D. Foulois, will leave Dayton, Ohio, for Chicago where the plans will be distributed as follows: Ford-Lansing Airport, bombardment, observation and press transports; Curtiss-Reynolds—Pursuit and Attack; Pal-Waukee — Observation National Guard; Municipal Airport — Division headquarters and special purpose planes.

Starts at 10:00 A. M.

The hour set for the Chicago demonstration is 10:00 o'clock, but the preliminary activities at the various airdromes will begin bright and early. Chicago will be the first city in the country to be visited by a military armada of 670 planes, while on the other hand the Chicago demonstration will be a dress rehearsal of Division attack — a scale of operation as novel to the Air Corps as it is to the spectator on the ground.

Through advance arrangements, the main theatre of war will be over the lake, immediately in front of Chicago's municipal pier, where thousands of spectators can conveniently see the demonstration.

Composite Demonstration

Immediately following the aerial review, a composite demonstration unit of nine bombardment, nine pursuit and 9 attack planes will give a realistic demonstration of what warfare in the sky is like. In order to give the audience a super-close-up of combats, which generally would take place at high altitudes, the mock assaults will be staged at heights varying from 50 to 2,000 feet.

The demonstration will have five distinct phases.

First: Heavy bombardment planes able to carry loads of from 2000 to 4000 pounds, will show a typical formation of bombers making a raid.

Second: Bombardment planes carrying six machine guns each firing at a rate of 1000 shots per minute and having accommodations for 250 pounds of bombs per plane, will give a ground-straffing demonstration.

Fourth: Pursuit will make a diving assault on the attack formation.

Fifth: Pursuit will give an exhibition of how battles are fought when swift pursuit planes are pitted against each other. This will include "dog-fighting" as well as combat acrobatics.

This miniature air war is scheduled to last about 50 minutes. At the termination of the aerial spectacle in Chicago, the planes will return to Dayton, except 90 observation planes composed of National Guard air units. These will proceed to Cleveland. On May 21, the entire division will fly to New York.
