

Deerfield Locals

Mrs. Ernest John Ginter of Sunset lane, Bannockburn, has issued invitations for a luncheon and bridge on Thursday afternoon, April 23, at her home.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke was hostess to the Tuesday Evening club this week at her home on Center avenue. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Glenn Bowman of Harlingen, Tex., who is a guest at the Muhlke home.

Miss Emma May Titus was married to Cecil Charles Grant on Saturday, February 28, at Long Beach, Calif. Miss Titus is a former Deerfield teacher and is a sister of Miss Ethel Titus, who is the seventh grade teacher in the Deerfield school.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes of Saunders road are moving this week to their new home on Fair Oaks avenue. With them will be Mrs. Holmes' father, Valentina Hess, who has resided on that farm for the past seventy-five years. Their farm, which is near the Walker estate, has been sold to Chicago people. Mr. Hess is the only surviving Civil War veteran in this vicinity and he will celebrate his ninety-second birthday anniversary in three months.

Mrs. Wade McNutt of Highland Park visited Mrs. C. T. Anderson on Thursday.

Ewald Winters has been home this past week, because of illness.

Roy Clavey is recovering from chicken pox.

A food sale was held Friday afternoon at the Deerfield grammar school under the supervision of Mrs. A. J. Johnson, who has charge of the school lunch room. Baked beans, spaghetti and potato salad were offered for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brand entertained at dinner Sunday evening at their home on Deerfield avenue.

Miss Hortense Borneman who attends Maine township high school in Des Plaines spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Gayle Borneman. They were dinner guests at the J. D. Myers home on Rosemary terrace.

Mrs. Alex Willman entertained at a family dinner on Wednesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. B. H. Kress. The event was in honor of her birthday anniversary. Out of town guests were Mrs. George Hessler, Mrs. Robert Greenslade and Mrs. Fred Greenslade of Highland Park.

Mrs. Elmer Clavey and her sister, Mrs. Alex Willman attended a recital on Tuesday evening at Marywood, Evanston. Miss Betty Clavey participated in the program.

The Holy Cross Sewing guild will meet Thursday afternoon (today) at the parish hall.

On Friday evening, May 1, in connection with the regular movie at the Deerfield grammar school, special films pertaining to health will be shown.

When the school census is taken this summer, Principal C. E. Bates will also take a census of children of pre-school age, so that a pre-school examination may be given next spring.

Miss Ida Knaak will present her pupils in a piano recital on Tuesday evening, April 28.

Jean Pettis and Shirey Clark were the luncheon guests of Retta Ree Hipsley of Northbrook on Wednesday.

A worker's conference of the Presbyterian church school will be held Thursday evening (tonight) at the Edwin Easton home on Waukegan road. Eunice Varner has the mumps.

The Roy Vinyard family of Des Plaines visited at the E. L. Vinyard home on Sunday.

Principal C. E. Bates attended the annual meeting of the North Shore division of the Illinois State Teachers association at Evanston on Monday. Both Deerfield schools remained in session, making up a day which was lost last month due to the severe snow storm.

Mrs. B. J. Dickens was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. on Sunday.

Monday, May 4, Deerfield is to have the annual tag day for the Chicago Federation of Aged and Adult charities.

Mrs. Stadler, who has spent the winter with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stadler, of Orchard lane, returned to her home in Bement, Ill., on Friday. She was accompanied by her son, who spent the week-end in Bement.

Mesdames C. C. Kapschull, Walter Metcalf, D. E. Wageck, C. W. Getty, and Miss Irene Rockenbach attended a meeting of the Tenth District Federation of Women's clubs on last Wednesday.

It is reported that there will be bus service from Deerfield to Highland Park this summer by Kilroy brothers who operate the Deerfield-Shields high school buses. This is most welcome news to many people in Deerfield.

The Royal Neighbors are giving a card party on Thursday evening (tonight) in the Deerfield Masonic temple.

Mrs. J. Hamilton is expected to return this week to her home on Central avenue, from California, where she spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Plagge, Miss Margareth Plagge and their little grandson, Jack Gagne, with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jacobson and daughter Dorothy, attended the tenth birthday anniversary party of the Plagge's little granddaughter, Marilyn Gagne, on Sunday, who lives at the home of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Froman, of Chicago.

On Friday morning, May 1, at 11 o'clock, a special assembly will be held at the Deerfield grammar school in observance of Child Health day, to which the parents are invited. Interesting motion pictures pertaining to health will be shown, and a program is to be given by the children of the two first grades and the kindergarten.

Miss Irene Rockenbach will be an instructor at the Standard training school for vacation church school teachers of DeKalb. It will be in session one evening each week for five consecutive weeks, beginning Tuesday, April 21.

There were about twenty-eight boys and girls from Deerfield who participated in the annual spring concert at the Deerfield-Shields high school auditorium on Friday evening. Deerfield is well represented in the musical organizations of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Becker, Miss Miriam Stryker and Donald Easton enjoyed a Sunday morning breakfast over the campfire in the river woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer entertained at a family dinner on Sunday in honor of Mr. Raymond Meyer's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meyer had as their guests on Sunday evening Mrs. Meyer's brother and sister, Robert and Ruth Anderson of Glenview.

Guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson last week were Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hummel of Freeport, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maybanks, also of Freeport, and Rev. Johnson's father and sister, Rev. Johnson and Miss Inez Johnson of Ashton, Ill.

Charles Kersten of Evanston visited at the homes of his aunts and uncles in Deerfield on Monday.

Miss Florence Lundin of Chicago spent last week at the A. J. Johnson home on Osterman avenue.

Lincoln Market

519 Central Avenue

Phone Highland Park 3140

Swift's Premium Sliced Bacon	35c
pound
The Best Native Pickled Beef Tongue	32c
pound
Hormel's Braunschweiger Liver Sausage	35c
pound
Leg of Genuine Spring Lamb	35c
pound
Choice Native Pot Roast	25c
pound
Swift's Premium Red Hots	25c
pound
Fresh Meaty Spare Ribs	12c
pound
Short Leg of Milk Fed Veal	25c
pound
Lean Native Boiling Beef	12c
pound

All our meat is inspected by the United States Government

Announcing the Opening of

The Lace Shop

OF EVANSTON

BOUDOIR ACCESSORIES - NECK WEAR

LACES AND EMBROIDERIES

HANDKERCHIEFS - LINENS

INFANTS' WEAR

22 North Sheridan Road - Highland Park

Phone Highland Park 79