LAKE FOREST POST HOST TO COUNCIL

town to exceed the 700-mark. Present membership in the county is now only 250 below the quota.

The Navy Relief Society of Great Lakes Naval Training Station is giving a series of roller skating parties, ball games and boxing bouts at the drill hall at Great Lakes, from now until June. Proceeds are used to further the philanthropic work of the society, Lt. Elmer Johanson, new commander of the Navy-Marine Post, stated. He invited Legionnaires and others to attend these and other interesting events open to the public at the station.

Annual Dinner

The annual commander and adjutants' dinner-dance will be held in North Chicago on May 20. Legionnaires and their wives are expected to attend in large numbers. There will be dancing, cards and entertainment after the dinner.

Mancel Talcott invited Legionnaires to attend the biggest event on the 40-and-8 calendar this year, namely, the dedication of "Voiture Lake" at the North Chicago Hospital on June 20 and 21. National and state officials of the Legion and 40-&-8 have promised to attend and take a part in the ceremonies.

Henry Foval of Lake Bluff Post reported that he had noted the need, in his work as county child welfare officer, of a plan to aid youths of the ages 16 to 20. "Monty" Rasmussen of Lake Forest suggested that the Sea Scout idea be used for this work. District Commander Charles C. Kapschull pointed out that while Lake county was divided into different Scout "areas," posts throughout the county could sponsor the Sea Scout "Ships" and thus aid the youth of the restless ages.

The "Trained Seals," famous degree team of Waukegan, initiated a group of candidates. Music was furnished by the noted Waukegan quartet.

Prof. R. C. Tomlinson of Lake Forest college had charge of the entertainment, presenting Dan Hart, Ted Sickels, Ed Henning and Jack Miller from the college, and Ahoie Brothers, xylophonists, of Waukegan.

The program closed with serving of refreshments by the host, G. A. Alexander Post, of Lake Forest, of which Walter Smith is commander.
