

FOR APRIL ONLY!

A GREAT SALE OF

$1
BOX

INCLUDING YOUR OWN NAME-O-GRAM

$1
BOX

INCLUDING YOUR OWN NAME-O-GRAM

The year's most important sale of fine personal stationery

60 Sheets and 50 Envelopes—WHITE or
IVORY Vellum—With your own NAME-
O-GRAM on Sheets

(No expensive dies to purchase)

$1

From Hollywood to Miami—wherever smart society assembles
—social leaders, screen stars and college women favor stationery with their own distinctive NAME-O-GRAMS.

Heretofore expensive, this Nationwide April Sale brings NAME-O-GRAM
Stationery within the reach of thousands of letter-writers. Here is the stationery you have always admired—and how many times have you said, "Some day I'm going to buy a box of that smart writing paper with my own NAME-O-GRAM on it."

Now you can gratify your desire to your heart's content. It is unnecessary to pay $2.50 to $5.00 for a die or plate. In this April Sale you can purchase a box of Rytex NAME-O-GRAM Stationery—complete—with your own NAME-O-GRAM on sixty sheets of vellum paper and fifty envelopes to match—at a total cost of $1.00.

CHOICE OF WHITE OR IVORY VELLUM

The WHITE Vellum comes with the NAME-O-GRAM in raised BLUE ink—60 Sheets and 50 Envelopes, $1.

The IVORY Vellum comes with the NAME-O-GRAM in raised BROWN ink—60 Sheets and 50 Envelopes, $1.

GOLD OR SILVER NAME-O-GRAMS

$1.50 Box

For those who desire metallics, either the White or Ivory Vellum will be made with raised gold or silver NAME-O-GRAM during this sale at 50c additional—or a total cost of $1.50 per box.

UDELL PRINTING CO.

536 Central Avenue

Tel. Highland Park 557

MODERN ETIQUETTE

1. Does one congratulate the bride at a wedding reception?
2. When is it permissible to lay bits of food on the tablecloth?
3. Should a man remove his hat in the elevator of an office building?
4. What are the proper refreshments for a shower held in the afternoon?
5. When are vouchers, or tickets of admission, sent to prospective guests at a masquerade ball?
6. What are the two forms of social letters?
7. What are the requirements of a good conversationalist?
8. How are the invitations to a theater party sent?
9. Who cuts the wedding cake?
10. If a girl does not dance, and for the sake of hospitality has accepted a dance invitation, what should she do to avoid feeling out of place and awkward?
11. What should one do with his hands when not occupied with eating?
12. Is it permissible for a maid to suggest to her mistress a way in which a task may be simplified?
13. After an engagement takes place, who should make the first advances, the family of the man or the woman?
14. Is it good taste to fold napkins in all kinds of intricate forms?
15. Do women wear hats in opera boxes, in the evening?
16. At what time of the day is it correct for one to make the call of condolence or inquiry?
17. Should a woman remove her hat at the theater?
18. What does a hostess rightfully expect of a guest?

Answers

1. No; only the groom is to be congratulated, best wishes extended to the bride.
2. When individual dishes for celery or hard breads are not furnished.
3. No, it is not necessary.
4. Sandwiches, tea, and cake are very appropriate.
5. They should be enclosed with the invitation.
6. Formal and informal.
7. He should be spontaneous, natural, sympathetic, and have a spirit of good will.
8. They are given by telephone.
9. The bride cuts her cake and divides the first piece with the groom.
10. She, and other women who do not dance, should get together in informal groups and chat with one another. If she remains alone in the manner of the wall-flower, she makes herself conspicuous.
11. Keep them in the lap.
12. Yes, and a well-bred mistress will accept the suggestion graciously.
13. The family of the man.
14. No; they should be folded square.
15. No.
16. At any time of the day; the caller rarely advances beyond the front door.
17. Yes; some states have laws to this effect.
18. Punctuality.

Recent Proceedings in the Probate Court

George A. Wilkman, Highland Park—Appraisers appointed.

M. H. Hussey, Waukegan—Petition of Margaret Earle Hussey for widow's award set for hearing April 13.

Kate Westervelt Middleton, Highland Park—Final report approved, estate closed.