

GOVERNOR EXPRESSES THANKS TO RED CROSS

Voices State's Appreciation of Efforts of Organization in Stress

Governor Louis L. Emmerson has offered a state championship trophy to be awarded to the public or parochial high school that scores highest in shorthand, typing and bookkeeping. A state-wide contest to be conducted by the high school commercial teachers will decide which school will receive the Governor Emmerson sup.

Preliminaries will be held April 25, in 46 districts, 41 downstate and 5 in Chicago. Semi-finals in 13 sectional centers, will be held May 9. The state finals will be conducted two weeks later at the Illinois State Normal, at Normal.

District contest centers and managers of the preliminary trials, selected by the commercial teachers' association, are as follows:

Chicago district centers—Englewood Senior high school, Mrs. Iva C. Sequist; Tuley Senior, high school Mrs. Katherine Dillion; Sabin Junior high school, Margaret M. Sinnott and Mary L. Weir; St. Catherine high school, Sister Mary Hilary; Harper Junior high school, Anastasia Woods and Mrs. C. L. Shortall.
