

Mother's Day Surprise Party

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts of the North Shore are looking forward with keen anticipation to the Boy Scout service on May 10 in Ravinia park. They are all so glad and thrilled to be included in this wonderful service and to hear and see the many noted speakers.

All girls are to meet in the gravel space on the east side of the pavilion in which the grand opera is held each summer. Girl Scouts please be on hand at three o'clock sharp so as to form in line ready for the march. Each troop will carry their troop and American flag.

Girl Scouts of Highland Park have been asked to march in the Ravinia Garden Festival parade on May 9. Girl Scouts will meet on the grounds of the Woman's club at 9:30 Saturday morning and march from there to the Ravinia Station park on Rogers Williams avenue.

CHICAGO GIRL SCOUTS "SCOUTS OWN"
The Northeast District Scouts' Own will be held on Sunday, May 17 at 3 o'clock at Temple Shalom, Stratford and Sheridan road. All scouts and their parents and friends are cordially invited to attend. Some of our leaders and scouts attended this service last year and found it most inspiring.

GIRL SCOUTS PREPARE MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM
Mothers, how would you like to be the guests of your Girl Scout daughters at dinner in your own homes on Sunday, May 10?

The national organization of Girl Scouts has suggested to the quarter of a million girls within its ranks, that they make of Mother's Day this year a day of rest and recreation for mothers.

Mrs. Ida Bailey Allen, president of the National Radio Home-Makers club of the Columbia Broadcasting company, will give Girl Scouts a menu for Mother's Day dinner during her chat program on Thursday morning, May 7, at ten o'clock. This program will be broadcast from Station WABC in New York over a national hook-up.

It has been suggested that Girl Scouts present some little gift to their mothers on May 10; that they gather flowers from their own gardens wherever this is possible, and make their homes attractive when they act as hostesses to their elders.

INDIAN MAIDS TO GET GIRL SCOUT TRAINING

Co-operating with the Bureau of Indian Affairs at the suggestion of the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts this year for the first time will give training courses in two Indian schools. The courses will be given at Pawnee, Oklahoma, August 17 to 21, and at Fort Wingate, New Mexico, August 24 to 29, under the direction of Miss Marguerite Twohy, Girl Scout director of the Cactus Region, which includes Oklahoma, New Mexico, Texas and Arizona, and Miss Anne Roos national leader's training instructor. The courses offered will be on troop management.

PORTO RICAN GIRL SCOUTS GAVE PRESIDENT NATIVE BREAKFAST FRUIT FOR MRS. HOOVER

A prize papaya which, as some people may not know, is a Porto Rico breakfast fruit, was one of the gifts which President Hoover brought to Mrs. Hoover from his recent trip south. It was presented to him by the local Girl Scouts for their honorary president.

The keen interest which President Hoover takes in Girl Scouting was very evident during his visit to Porto Rico. Though only twenty-four hours on the island, he found time to grant a personal interview to Miss Dorothea Sullivan, local director.

"The President inquired thoughtfully about the Girl Scout work down here," Miss Sullivan reported. "We managed to have some of the San Juan Girl Scouts talk with him for a few minutes."

They used the minutes to present him with the papaya, which is described as a tropical melon resembling a squash used raw as a breakfast fruit or cooked as a jam. That little ceremony over, the girls asked the President to pose for his photograph, but when he obligingly stepped out on a balcony to get better light, so excited was the Girl Scout photographer that she could not keep her hand still. It shook so that the picture was ruined.

"President Hoover, seemed very pleased with his visit," Miss Sullivan declared, "and promised to take the papaya to Mrs. Hoover."

Girl Scouting is making great strides in Porto Rico where it is now under the direction of one insular council, of which Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of the Governor, is honorary commissioner. Girl Scouts in their cool white tropical uniforms are frequent visitors now to the governor's palace of Fortaleza. The American games, songs and dances which are foreign to the local girls, are rapidly being adapted to their purposes, while they in turn enrich the American program through the leaders who visit Camp Edith Macy each summer.

TROOP IV

Thursday afternoon we played a game out of doors and then went in. We went to our patrol corners and each scout made a list of the birds she had seen the previous week. After all were finished different ones read their list. If you had one they read you crossed yours out. Then each patrol leader counted the total number of birds seen in her patrol lists. Joan Wichmans won with 65. We then played some games and went home. —Mary Heed.

The Girl Scouts met last Tuesday at the Oak Terrace school. They discussed various money-making plans such as candy sales, circuses, etc. The captain gave them a report on the splendid work and co-operation shown at the bakery sale held Saturday, April 18. The girls decided that their next money-making project would be a circus. The mothers of the scouts have promised to help. They try to help in presenting features such as the "crazy band," animal menagerie, etc. They also decided to have a gigantic fish pond full of novelties as marbles, pencils, rings, bracelets, etc. These were the only plans made.

Sixteen of the girls plan to go to camp. It's a wonderful record for a troop of our size. The troop is earning all the money to send these girls there and folks we want your co-operation and help. We know we will get it too!

Saturday, April 25, the Girl Scouts welcomed the Covenant Chorus, directed by Mr. Hvassman, to Highwood. They sang several songs which delighted the chorus. This is the second time they have done that. Mr. Hvassman says greeting the chorus in that manner is a friendly custom in Europe and being greeted that way in America is still nicer. —Troop 1, Highwood, Scribe.

TROOP III

Last Thursday evening's meeting was a short one in the way of business. After colors we practiced marching in review. Then we went to patrol corners, took the attendance, came back into a circle to hear some announcements, and rushed out-door for a game of baseball between the seventh and eighth grades. We played until dark, and then went home without having a good-night circle.—Jean Sincere, scribe.

H. P. Girl Is Honored at Wellesley College

A Highland Park girl, Miss Elsie Watkins, was one of the four girls chosen recently for their beauty, to attend the Tree Day Mistress, Miss Marjorie Reed, of Albion, N. Y., who was chosen in the yearly event as the most beautiful student at Wellesley college.

Others who will attend the beauty queen are: Elizabeth Lineberger, Long Beach, Cal., Mary Griffin, Hudson Falls, N. Y., and Katharine Brown of Oak Park.

Broth

In the Official Gazette of 1870, a young girl was specially commended for giving some of her flesh to be boiled as a broth for her afflicted mother. Civilized countries look with commendation at the practice of their physicians.
