

SAVE MONEY NOW ON A NEW VICTOR OR PHILCO RADIO OR COMBINATION

This 5 circuit, (R-34) Screen Grid, Micro Synchronous VICTOR RADIO. Formerly sold for $173.80.

Now $89.50 Complete

VICTOR RE-17 combination, formerly sold at $189.50.

Now $99.50 Complete

VICTOR RE-57. The finest model ever built. Includes home recording. Formerly sold at $306.30.

Now $149.50 Complete

MODEL NO. 220
The famous PHILCO Screen Grid Combination. Formerly sold for $118.00. Trade in allowance $40.00

NOW COMPLETE for only

$78.00

Convenient Terms KIMBALL PIANOS Open Evenings
North Shore Talking Machine Co.

712 Church St.
University 3474
Evanston

742 Elm St.
Winnetka
Phone Winnetka 3474

380 Central Ave.
Highland Park 3474
Highland Park

Deerfield Locals

Mrs. George Vetter of Chicago is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. A. H. Muhlke.

The Independent Social club will meet on Wednesday afternoon, May 13, at the home of Mrs. Mary Trute of Forest avenue.

Charles Mele of Central avenue entertained in honor of his twelfth birthday anniversary on Sunday.

Wesley Scheckley of Detroit, Mich., is visiting at the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Carr. Mr. Carr, who has been very ill, is much improved.

At the April Children's day service of St. Paul's church, Kenneth Lyle Jacobs and Rosemary Pauline Holm were baptized. Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs (Florence Johnson) and Rosemary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo W. Holm (Emily Steiner) of Highland Park.

Miss Irene Evenson spent last week-end at the Schroeder home in Half Day.

The Tireless Toiler circle of the Bethlehem Evangelical church met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Stryker of Orchard street.

Sunday, May 10, will be observed as Mother's day in the local churches.

The Happy Nine circle of the Bethlehem Evangelical church will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Isaac Rapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Cox and family who have been residing in Mrs. Margaret Freese's apartment, are moving to Arlington Heights. Mrs. Cox will go to Minnesota this week, where her father is seriously ill.

Miss Laura Snyder and Mrs. West of Chicago were the guests of Mrs. A. H. Muhlke on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Meyer and Dr. and Mrs. C. Johnston Davis returned last Tuesday from a five days trip to Missouri. They visited Alvin Meyer on the Meyer-Davis farm at New Florence. Dr. and Mrs. Davis also visited their smaller farm at Iberia, Mo. The Meyers visited with cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wahls of Jefferson City, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Macadie of Chicago were the guests of their daughter Mrs. Ralph Peterson of Knollwood avenue on Thursday.

The Deerfield Mutual club met at the home of Misses Irene and Viola Rockenbach on last Thursday evening. The members made May baskets which they filled with fruit and flowers and on Friday evening, May 1, they hung them at the doors of eight shut-ins in Deerfield.

Mrs. Raymond Dobbins and Mrs. Raymond Meyer attended a party at the home of Mrs. R. Sheahan of Highland Park on Thursday given in compliment to Mrs. Gregory Sheahan (Florence McLaughlin.)

Reinhold Koebelin, a son of Mrs. Fredericka Koebelin, who has been very ill in the Highland Park hospital, is now at his home in Highland Park. Mr. Koebelin is convalescing very slowly.

Reverend E. J. Bruso preached his initial sermon in the Deerfield Bethlehem Evangelical church on Sunday. Rev. Bruso who has been pastor of the South Shore Church of Chicago for the past six years, will not move to Deerfield for several months. He is attending the University of Chicago.

Thurs
C IN OW
G
Par
In Loca
Par
Shore urged
of M
290 m in the great consin
within campsi
woodla
making
well
friends
spect
program
fine ca
attend.
LOC
cated
County
southea
miles n
road is mile so
Route
AUTO
good hi leading
you up
Wiscons
to Clin
best ro
Shawan
it thro
Reserv
beyond mile to Clinton
26 five
A, follow miles to trance.
The Old
Route 2
north of
night acc
Camp
while thi
how to p
fire and that inte
printing,
ties that
phy, tree
lore.
Camp M
29th. Rep