SEE BANNER YEAR IN ROAD BUILDING

Contracts Awarded Throughout U. S. Exceed Previous Mark Already, Report

With long term state and municipal bond issues and concrete surface pavement awards setting new high records during March, fulfillment of their earliest prediction that highway and public works construction are in for a banner year is foreseen by the Associated General Contractors of America.

An analysis of construction trends just completed by the association shows that state and municipal bond issues for March were larger than for any other month on record, with the exception of the peak month of December, 1929. The March issues totaled $275,000,000, according to preliminary figures compiled by The Bond Buyer, and averaged $148,000,000 per month for the first quarter of the year.

Break Records

Concrete surface pavement awards during March broke all previous records for the month and have been exceeded only twice before during any month on record, the analysis reveals. Although the awards for streets and alleys have been below average, the total for road work during the first three months of 1931 has been unprecedented, never before having been equalled in comparable periods.

The total awards for March according to figures compiled by the Portland Cement association, were 19,466,568 square yards, or an increase of 45 per cent over those of March a year ago, while the total for the first three months was 38,976,870 square yards, or an increase of 43 per cent. The March awards, which practically equalled the combined total of the first two months, have been exceeded only by those for the months of May 1928, and 1929 and in neither of those months were the road totals so large.

Petitioners Must Talk to Committees of Board

Petitioners, objectors and others desiring to appear before the board of supervisors must have their proposals before committees of the board to which their subjects relate at least a day before they will be given a hearing by the board, according to the rules of procedure adopted by the board last week.

The report of the special committee on rules appointed by Chairman William J. Obee and composed of Supervisors Emil A. Ficke, Bert C. Thompson, W. E. Bletsch and James O'Connor, included the duties of each of the 44 committees on the board and the manner of procedure at board meetings.
