North Shore Art League Exhibition Held; Several Local Artists Take Part

The North Shore Art League held its annual dinner and exhibition on Monday, April 27, at 8 p. m., in Matz hall, Community House, Winnetka. Miss Elizabeth Wilder of Ravinia spoke on the subject, "Studios of the Painters and Sculptors of the Renaissance." This was an illustrated talk and was much enjoyed. Miss Wilder has recently returned from Italy, having done research work on art for Smith college, there. The other speaker was Miss Margaret Dullea, reader.

The exhibition which consists of the work of the members of the Art League, will hang on the walls of Matz hall until May 18 and is open to the public.

Among the exhibitors from this city are Tom Wilder, Hazel Crow Ellwell, Elizabeth Peyraud, F. C. Peyraud, Leonore Smith Jerrems, Rudolph Ingerle.

The North Shore Art league has given practically all the money in its treasury, $2,700, toward a studio in the new addition of the Winnetka Community house, and individuals interested in the league have increased this amount to $5,400 for the purpose of creating an art center on the North Shore.

Highland Park Locals

Mrs. Albert Weissenberger is improving after a very serious operation undergone at the Highland Park hospital on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Chas. Robertson of Wauwatosa, Wis., sent a few days this week at the home of her uncle Mr. Andrew W. Yowell.

St. James to Open Baseball Season

The opening game of St. James team will be held next Sunday when they meet Waukegan on the Highwood field. The game is called for three o'clock.

St. James is looking forward to a very successful season for they have secured some of the very best players in this vicinity. They have been doing some strenuous practicing and should be in fine trim for Sunday's game. All that they need now is a good showing of fans to cheer the boys to victory.

Last Sunday in a practice game, the St. James team defeated the strong Highland Park Crescents team.

Kenosha Moose Entertain Tonight

The Kenosha lodge of the Order of Moose is entertaining the Highland Park members and their wives tonight, Thursday, at the temple in Kenosha. All wishing to go will please meet at the North Shore depot at 7:30 o'clock. Transportation will be furnished. This invitation includes all members, their wives and sweethearts.

Food Sale Saturday

A food sale will be conducted Saturday by the Philathea class of the Bethany Evangelical church, in the A & P self-service store. There will be an attractive line of home-baked foods, as well as flowers and candy appropriate for Mother's Day. Plan to get your Sunday supplies and make work lighter for mother on "Mother's Day."

WHEREAS, the week of May 20th. to May 24th, inclusive, has been designated the National Better Homes in American Week, an educational project sponsored by President Hoover and Secretary Wilbur, and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the City of Highland Park and its officials to endorse said project and to co-operate with the national authorities, therein,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EMIL B. METZEL, Mayor of the City of Highland Park, by authority of the Council of the City of Highland Park hereby proclaim the week of May 20th. to May 24th, inclusive, as National Better Homes in America Week in the City of Highland Park.

EMIL B. METZEL,
Mayor.

Mr. and Mrs. James Collins have moved from the Witten house on Central avenue to 336 Lincoln place.

DR. BARKER TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY, MONDAY

delivering in all parts of the United States. He is specially popular with the young people and gains their admiration through his series of health and habit talks.

Dr. Barker's subject on Sunday evening will be of a religious nature, he will use "The Road to Happiness" as his topic. A very hearty welcome is extended to all to hear this outstanding man.

Monday Program

On Monday, May 11 he will give four addresses, beginning at the high school at 10:30 a. m., where he will speak to the students on the subject, "How to Make the Most Out of Life."

At 12:15 p. m. Dr. Barker will address the Highland Park Rotary club at its regular noon luncheon at the Moraine hotel.

At 12:15 p. m. Dr. Barker will address the Highland Park Rotary club at its regular non luncheon at the Moraine hotel.

At 3:30 p. m. he will address women and older girls at the Elm Place school on the subject, "A Mother's Responsibility to Her Daughter."

In the evening, in the Elm Place auditorium, Dr. Barker will speak to men and older boys on the subject, "A Father's Responsibility to His Son."

Dr. Barker is a forceful speaker deeply interested in his work and his talks to mothers and fathers on their responsibilities to their sons and daughters are intensely practical and afford food for serious thought to all who hear him.

Elks Meet Friday

The regular meeting of Highland Park Lodge, No. 1362, B. P. O. E., will be held tomorrow evening. The question of securing new quarters will be discussed.

Mr. John L. Udell attended the reception and banquet given to the governor and members of the assembly by the Elks club of Springfield, Tuesday evening.
