Due to the rainy evening on Friday, the very pretty operetta, "New Adventures in Flowerland," was presented in the Wilmot school, instead of on the school lawn, as has been previously planned. The Wilmot has no assembly hall or stage, so both

Recreation Activities to Have Headquarters at Sunset Park June 1

Beginning June 1, the administration offices of all public recreation activities in Highland Park will be moved from their present situation in the Chamber of Commerce building to Sunset park.

The shelter house near the wading pool in the park is now being fitted up to house the new offices of the playground and recreation division of the East Park District. Mr. Allen, the director of recreation, may be reached there by telephoning H. P. 3830.

Very elaborate plans are being made for summer playground work in an increased number of community centers. All the popular activities of last year will be carried on this season in addition to a new program. A complete program for the summer's work will be published at an early date.

The recreation service will continue in the new offices until late in August.

the teachers and pupils were handicapped by the crowded conditions. However it was very well presented under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Fleming of the Bush Conservatory of Music, and the Wilmot principal, Mrs. D. W. Meyer.

An exhibit of school work was also on display in the class rooms.

Here is an ad you are apt to see in official Democratic newspapers next year: Wanted, a candidate who is wet in the north and dry in the south.
