

Vacation Church School Opens June 22

The annual Vacation Church school sessions of the Presbyterian church will begin on June 22 in the parish house at 9. The school will be held for five weeks and five days a week from 9 until 11:30 each morning.

The program will consist of handcraft, Bible work, organized play, music, and missionary instruction. In short, the school will be a community of practical Christian living in which the boys and girls will have an opportunity to put into practice those things which they learn.

While the faculty is not yet complete, each one will be trained. Miss Annie Cobb will have charge of the kindergarten work, Miss Ruth Hardiman will direct the work in the Primary department, and Miss Greenlaw will direct the work in the junior department and supervise the entire school. Mrs. Charles Brooks will be in charge of the music.

Children from three to 13 are eligible to the school and parents are requested to call the church office, H. P. 683, for further information. There will be a small enrollment fee and a handcraft fee. The school is open to children of all faiths and other churches are invited to co-operate in the school.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us, during our recent bereavement in the passing on of our beloved husband and father; also for the many lovely floral offerings.

We especially wish to thank the Masonic lodge and quartet and the Rev. Karl Roth, for the beautiful music and services.

Mrs. S. T. Rebling and Family.

Says the Washington Post: "There's one thing to be said for America's insurgents. They haven't ever boasted that heads will roll when they come into power." Maybe not, but the voices will continue to roll in the same old way.
