

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her make your local newspaper interesting.

MRS. ROBERT PETTIS, Local Editor

761 Chestnut Street, Deerfield, Illinois. Telephone Deerfield 485

Deerfield Locals

Mr. William J. Fisher, Mr. Harold Fisher and their brother of Park Ridge went to Racine, Wis. Thursday morning because of the serious illness of their father, Mr. Eugene Fisher, who passed away that day at the age of 79 years. On Saturday they returned to Racine to attend the funeral. The burial took place in Wau-paca, Wis. The elder Mr. Fisher was a drummer boy in the Civil war.

Mrs. Paul Hatfield entertained the Monday afternoon sewing club last week. Mrs. Charles Holden of Osterman avenue was hostess to the club this week.

Hubert Lidiker broke his leg just above the ankle on Friday and was taken to the Highland Park hospital. Hubert is a student at Deerfield-Shields high school.

In the "Wake of the News," in Friday's Chicago Tribune, Harvey F. Woodruff writes the following: "It is with regret we learn of the passing of one who for many years has contributed to this column under the nom de plume of 'Califf of Carthage.' Mr. Califf was 79 years old and had taken a keen interest in the Way Back When incidents of this column." Mr. Califf is the father of Gladstone Califf, a former principal of the Deerfield Grammar school during 1926 and 1927. Both the younger Mr. Califf and his wife are also contributors to the "Wake of the News" under the names "Mr. and Mrs. Glad of Quincy." The Califfs now reside in Quincy.

William Croker enrolled in the first grade on Monday. He came from Waukegan.

John Willen has recovered from the mumps.

The Boy Scouts and Girl Reserves of Deerfield joined with the North Shore organizations on Sunday afternoon, May 10, in the very impressive ceremony at Ravinia park, at which was a large delegation of Deerfield parents. Deerfield drum and bugle corps led the girls division of the entire group. The drummers were Edmund Koebelin, Lloyd Sanders, Harold Ray, Joseph Andrews and Donald Clark. The buglers were Rev. Mark Andrews, Edward Cazal, Fred Simons, John Derby, Mark Andrews Jr., Robert Ginter and Richard Merner.

Miss Edna Fritsch will graduate from Northwestern university in June. Miss Fritsch has been elected to two honorary societies this year, receiving keys from Phi Beta Kappa and the Classical society of Greek and Latin. Miss Fritsch expects to return to Northwestern next year for her Master's degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Oellig of Wilmette on Wednesday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Fleming of Chicago, who is a cadet teacher of the Bush Conservatory of Music was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Meyer on Friday evening, preceding the Wil-mot School Spring festival.

Another robbery reported to have happened the same week that the hardware and restaurant were broken into, is the Coleman Grocery store on Deerfield road just west of the Skokie Line in Highland Park.

Miss Elizabeth Schilstra was the week-end guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sinclair of Chicago. Miss Schilstra's brother, Mr. George Schilstra of Sheboygan, Wis. was also a guest at the Sinclair home.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. has been appointed as representative for Deerfield on the Highland Park Mosquito Abatement district, by Judge Persons.

Miss Alice Bentley of Chicago was the week-end guest of Miss Bernice Rybolt at the D. W. Meyer home. On Sunday afternoon Miss Rybolt and her guest attended the Mother's Day observance by North Shore organizations at Ravinia.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Glos of Freeport, Ill., were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz on Saturday evening. Other guests the latter part of the week were Mrs. Anna Notz and Mr. George Notz of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Meyer and three little sons Frederick, John and Donald spent Sunday with Mrs. Meyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Glenview.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Meyer were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Protine (Sue Easton) of Elmhurst on Tuesday.

Rev. E. J. Brusio, the new pastor of the Bethlehem Evangelical church, accompanied by Mr. John Vetter, visited members of the congregation on Friday and Tuesday, making get-acquainted calls. With Rev. Brusio was his fiancée, Miss Obee of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell La Velle and children of Chicago were dinner guests at the Harry Muhlke home on Sunday.

Frank O'Connor, who underwent an appendicitis operation in the Columbian hospital, Chicago, last month, has returned to his work at the Mercer Lumber Co.

Le Roy Sherman of Northbrook now has the Deerfield route of the Reliable Laundry. Mr. Swanson has been transferred to Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sheldon and Miss Laura Muhlke of River Forest called at the R. M. Vant and Kreh homes on Thursday.

Mrs. Sugden of Evanston spent the fore part of the week with her daughter Mrs. C. J. Davis of Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. Charles T. Wing Passes on May 7

Mrs. Charles T. Wing (Carrie E. Grinner) passed away Thursday noon, May 7, at her home, 826 Pine street, Deerfield, after a short illness. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Wing residence with Rev. Holt of the Austin avenue Methodist church, officiating. Interment was in the Forest Home cemetery.

The Wing family moved to Deerfield about six years ago, purchasing property in Clavey's Evergreen subdivision. Their former home was in Chicago.

Mrs. Wing leaves to mourn her loss her husband, Charles T. Wing, three sons, William C., Fred T., and Harry E. Wing, one daughter, Mrs. A. E. Putnam; four brothers, Charles, John, William and George Grinner, and three sister, Minnie, Louise and Nellie Grinner.

Teachers Sign Up For Coming Year

All the Deerfield Grammar school teachers have signed up for the coming year. There will be two vacancies. Miss Ethel Titus has asked for a year's leave of absence to attend a university and Miss Elizabeth Schilstra will be married, leaving vacancies in the fourth and seventh grades.

The following teachers will remain: Marian Mereness, kindergarten; Mrs. Alvin Knaak, first grade; Miss Genevieve Card, second grade; Miss Dorothy Lidgerwood, second grade; Miss Mildred Newton, third grade; Miss Mabel Ablard, third grade; Miss Jean Nygard, fourth grade; Miss Margaret Hunt, fifth grade; Miss Irene Evenson, fifth grade; Mrs. Nina Anderson, sixth grade; Miss Frances Brown, sixth grade; Miss Hazel Miller, eighth grade; Carl E. Bates, principal.

People's Cash Market Opens on Saturday

The People's Cash Market opened on Saturday in the White building, one door north from the corner of Waukegan and Deerfield roads. There are now six meat markets in Deerfield.

Lease Karch Store for New Restaurant

C. C. Benns of Wheaton has leased the Karch store just south of the F. H. Meyer residence on Waukegan road, for a restaurant. Mr. Benns has been in the restaurant business in Deerfield, selling to Mr. Fehr, when the first went into business in the Knaak store. There are now six restaurants in Deerfield.

Teachers Give Party
On Friday evening, May 29, the teachers of the Deerfield Grammar school are giving a card party for the Parent-Teacher association. There will be a door prize and a prize for every table. An entertainment by the teachers will also be given.

Mrs. C. E. Piper Elected President of P. T. A.

The Deerfield P. T. A. held the last meeting for the year on Friday, May 8 in the school auditorium. The following officers were unanimously elected: President, Mrs. C. E. Piper; vice-president, Mrs. F. W. Russo; secretary, Mrs. B. H. Platt; treasurer, Mrs. Lewis Ashman.

Annual reports were read by the officers and committee chairmen.

A representative of the Y. W. C. A. gave a talk on the Girl Reserves.

The P. T. A. will send a representative to the health talk of the Dorcas society at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening.

Principal C. E. Bates outlined school life and told of some of the problems with which the teachers have been confronted and how they were handled to keep the children and parents happy.

Miss Genevieve Card, the second grade teachers, announced the card party to be given by the teachers for the P. T. A. on Friday evening, May 29. Mrs. R. L. Johnson, the finance committee chairman, told of the use of the Tom Thumb Golf course for the P. T. A. on May 16.

Mrs. C. W. Boyle announced that she had given a bridge party in her home for the P. T. A. and had cleared $8.75.

A financial report of the school lunchroom was also given.

The mothers of the eighth grade students were hostesses for the afternoon.

Thieves Rob Stores Early Last Thursday

Two robberies occurred in Deerfield early Thursday morning between the hours of four and five.

The J. R. Notz Hardware store was entered by a rear window. They took an expensive gun, a radio, an electric clock, hunting knives, various other kinds of knives, watches, etc. They also took all the change in the cash register. The loss was over $200.

The other robbery was Miss Heman's Home Cafe, where they took her entire stock of cigars, cigarettes and candy.

On departing from the Notz Hardware store the thieves left the back door wide open. They also left numerous finger prints. An expert from Evanston was called in and discovered two sets of finger prints.

Most of the boys involved in the recent Briergate robbery were sent for and their finger prints were taken, to see if they corresponded with those found in the store.

Card Party May 31
The Eastern Star will give a card party on Thursday evening, May 21 at the Deerfield Masonic temple. Two door prizes will be given and there will be prizes for each table. Mrs. J. R. Notz is chairman of the party committee.