MANY VISITORS TO VOCATIONAL HOUSE

kets are the work of a local boy of 12 years of age, Francis Scheseler. Stuccoed walls, framed in prettily grained white pine make these two rooms and connecting hall attractive.

Kitchen Usefully Arranged

The kitchen, with its gay curtains, is usefully arranged, and the stove was furnished by the North Shore Gas company.

The three bed rooms are distinctive and charming. The master room and the girl's room are early American in character. The pretty wall paper was furnished by the Highland Park Decorating company. The boy's room is very modern in its furnishings, with simple straight lines throughout. The furniture for the master bedroom and the girl's room are from Hartman's, and the boy's room furniture came from Mandel Bros. The bath room towels and accessories were furnished by Garnett's.

Flowers used throughout the house have been donated by Dreiske's, Bahr's and the Rustic nursery. The whatnot in the dining room was loaned by the Duffy company.

It is well worth a visit to this pretty home, to see how attractively and inexpensively a home can be furnished at this time.

The hostesses for the week will be as follows:

Wednesday, May 20: Mrs. Howard Kornblith, Mrs. George Gaidzik, Mrs. Carleton Vail.

Thursday, May 21: Mrs. Alfred W. Stern, Mrs. Claburn Jones.

Friday, May 22: Mrs. Jack Lebolt, Mrs. Clarence Balke.

Saturday, May 23: Mrs. Ralph F. Seymour, Mrs. Richard Carr, Mrs. George Wallace Carr.

Sunday, May 24: Mrs. Richard Thorsch, Mrs. Allan Wolff, Mrs. Eugene Klaber.

Miss Kerfoot and the girls in her art appreciation class, as well as the boys who built the house, will also act as hosts and hostesses.

Vic J. Killian, Inc., are furnishing the General Electric refrigerator in the home.
