H. S. Golf Squad Wins Suburban League Title in Meet Here Monday

The Deerfield-Shields golf team composed of Warren Geary, Robert Saielli, Oswaldo Saielli and Robert Cary continued their long list of victories in winning the Suburban League championship which was played Monday at Bob-O-Link course. The squad, under the supervision of Coach J. A. Peel, has won nine matches this spring and lost none.

Two matches are on the schedule and the boys feel confident of winning. This is a golf record that has not been surpassed in the history of golf teams at Deerfield-Shields.

This is the third consecutive year that Deerfield-Shields has won the Suburban League championship. The scores and finishing positions for the league championship follows: Deerfield-Shields, 340; New Trier, 366; Proviso, 377; Morton, 382; Evanston, 383; Oak Park, withdrew.

Coach J. A. Peel and the entire golf squad are to be congratulated for this fine record.

Garden Party Tonight

New Field's Store at Lake Forest to Open on Monday, June First

The new Lake Forest store of Marshall Field & Co., one of the smartest and most colorful suburban branches in the country, will open Monday, June 1, it was announced today by Ronald P. Boardman, of Lake Forest manager of suburban stores for Marshall Field's. Executives of Field's mingle with Lake Forest and north shore town residents on opening day to launch the new store.

Architects and decorators have transformed the interior of the store formerly occupied by the First National bank and the North Shore Gas Co., into a modern shop, original in detail and beautiful in appointments but with an inviting, informal atmosphere thoroughly in keeping with a store of this character. Covering an area of 6,500 square feet, the store occupies that first and lower floors of the building, which is situated at the west end of Market square.

High School Baseball Team Wins and Loses
