Scout Executive's Column

Boys have more leisure time during the summer than at any other time of the year. Scout troops more and more are providing a program of activities through the summer months for this leisure time. Troops attempting this have found it so successful, they do not go back to the old way of "dismissing the troop" for the summer.

These programs are naturally for the most part of an outdoor nature and have more to do with the scout program than the indoor winter meetings. What will your troop do this summer?

NATIONAL SCOUTING NEWS

William Lehle, Jr., President, N.S.P.C. Mortimer L. Schiff, for many years vice president of the Boy Scouts of America was unanimously elected president by the National Council members at the annual meeting of the Movement at Memphis, Tenn. He succeeds Walter W. Head of Chicago who was president for the past five years.

Lord Hampton, chief commissioner of the British Boy Scouts Ass'n returned to England after a long trip throughout the United States. He sailed to England from New York May 15.

The recently appointed regional camping chairman for Region 7 is Mr. Steele, of the North Shore Area council where he has been chairman of the Council Camping committee for several years.

Credit for saving a life is given to Scoutmaster William Korby of Lowellville, Ohio, for applying artificial respiration to Everett Fisher, 20, when the latter's legs were burned and was shocked while working on an electrical transformer.

SCOUTS ARE ASKED FOR INFORMATION

Scouts of the North Shore Area have a great opportunity to help the council and to themselves by furnishing the following information to the scout headquarters.

The scout headquarters desire to secure a number of canoes, rowboats, small sail boats, tents and various other equipment such as is needed and used at camp. In the attics and garages of hundreds of the north shore residents there are stored at the present time equipment such as this which has been laid aside and is no longer being used. If the scouts will only furnish the information to the council headquarters as to where such equipment may be located the headquarters will then set about to see if some of this equipment can be secured for the camp. In some cases the people have given outright to the camp and in other cases it has been purchased very economically.

Many scouts and troops have already been helping out in this way and we hope that others will do likewise. Either write the headquarters or phone them at Highland Park 629 or Winnetka 629.

JULY FOURTH AT CAMP

Since the fourth of July comes during the first period of camp extensive preparations are being made to make this one of the outstanding days of the year at Camp Makajawan. A large quantity of fire works have been ordered for the occasion. The regular program of the camp will be dispensed with for that day and special events of various kinds will be held such as are held at no other time during the summer at camp, in order that the day will be properly celebrated and that each scout will be made to feel that it is the best fourth of July celebration he has ever experienced. Menu for that day consists of chicken and ice cream for the one meal and all other trimmings that go with such a meal.

EAGLE SCOUTS GUESTS AT NORTHWESTERN

On April 25 and 26, 60 Eagle scouts, representing 60 different local Boy Scout councils, were the guests of the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity at Northwestern university. These Eagle scouts had an opportunity in these two days to see a great deal of student life as it is lived on the campus.

Before they returned to their homes they were asked to fill out a questionnaire with some rather interesting results. In response to the question, "do you intend to go to college?" all 60 of them said yes. 58 of them said that they intended to remain active in scouting in some capacity as leaders. In reply to the question, "do you attend church?" all 60 responded in the affirmative.

Alpha Phi Omega fraternity is a national honor fraternity of former scouts attending the various colleges and universities in the country.

TROOP MAINTAINS CAMP REGISTRATION

John Udell, scoutmaster of Troop 30 of the Highland Park Rotary club, has registered 24 boys and himself for Camp Makajawan. This troop had 23 boys at camp with Mr. Udell last year. That was the record attendance for any one troop. It looks like Troop 30 will continue as leaders in troop camping this year. It certainly is a challenge to all other troops.

TROOP 55 IS GIVEN "A" RATING

At the Camp-O-Ral, held May 16, 17, Glenview Troop 55 by hard work received an "A" rating or more than 850 points out of a possible 1000. Great credit goes to Glenn Hutchings, head cook, for his "swell" meals. Walter Engstrom and Mr. J. Morton who ate with us will confirm this statement. It is also whispered that Frank Appleyard, Glenn Hutchings and Richard Appleyard fooled the rest of the fellows on the hershey bars, but that doesn't matter as they claim they did the most work. However, all of the fellows agree that it was a lot of fun and are looking forward to the next Camp-O-Ral.

Organize Sea Scout
On Monday night, May 18, our Scoutmaster Mr. Engstrom, Sea Scout director, Jack Demorest and several of the older scouts met for the purpose of discussing the plans for a Sea Scout ship. Mr. Demorest, Sea Scout commissioner for the North Shore council gave us the "dope" on organizing a ship. Friday, May 29, we are going to visit the Council Sea Scout ship and probably fill out application blanks. . . . Let's go, Sea Scouts!
—Frank Appleyard, Glenview, golf district editor.

TROOP 61 HAS PARENTS-SONS BANQUET

Tuesday, May 26, Troop 61 had a parent and son banquet. About 100 parents attended. The banquet opened with the bugler blowing attention followed by a mess call. Then the supper was served. Again the bugle blew, this time the officers call.

Mrs. H. P. Smith gave a short talk on "Mother's View of Cubbing." This was answered by a Cub. Then a father gave a talk on "A Father's view of scouting," this was replied by Scout George Anderson.

Following this stunts were put on by the scouts. The banquet closed with a board of review.—Reporter Marlin Landwehr, Northbrook Presbyterian church.

Practices for Parade

Troop 73 held its weekly scout meeting May 15. A part of the meeting was spent in marching outdoors in practice for Memorial day. 13 scouts attended this meeting. After the scout oath and benediction the troop was dismissed.—Reporter William Cray Jr., Troop 73, St. Norberts church, Northbrook, Illinois.

MAKE PLANS TO ATTEND CAMP

On Thursday evening, May 21 Troop 38 met at Ridge school for their weekly meeting. The troop's cabinet for equipment was delivered before the meeting started. Mr. Jackson, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Scheskie of the Troop committee were present.

Mr. Jackson has volunteered to take over and see about board of review. He decided that the May board of review be held Tuesday, May 26. We talked over the success of the Camp-O-Ral and then decided about summer camp. It was decided that the boys take in first period because Mr. Teberx, scoutmaster and Mr. Scheskie, Troop committee chairman, will be there at that time. The meeting adjourned after the oath, law, and benediction.—Scribe H. Scheskie, Troop 38, West Ridge school, Highland Park.

Bird Study Contest

Tuesday, May 19, Troop 61 had its weekly meeting at the Northbrook Presbyterian church at 7:15 o'clock. We opened the meeting with the salute to the Flag and a song period. Following this we had a nature study period about birds, in which each scout read about a bird and the troop guessed what it was. We had a study period of 30 minutes. Before closing the meeting we had lemonade and all sang the vespers song.—Scout Richard Theroux, Troop 61, Northbrook, Presbyterian church.

EAGLE SCOUT MEMBER HONORARY FRATERNITY

Eagle Scout A. Prescott Lothrop of Sea Scout ship "Blue Nose," Glenview Union church was recently initiated into the original chapter of the National Honorary college fraternnity for scouts, the Alpha Phi Omega. The chapter is at Lafayette college in Easton, Pa., where Lothrop is a sophomore.

This fraternity is made of college students who have been or are scouts. Its principles are based on the ideals of the scout oath and law and their application to college life. The fraternity was originated at Lafayette college about seven years ago and has now spread all over the country. They do considerable work in connection with local scout troops and boys' clubs.

TROOP 67 TO GET COLORS

We held our last meeting Friday night at 7:15 o'clock in the clubroom of the Post chapel. Our assistant scoutmaster, W. R. Hazelrigg, was not able to come. Mr. Peschman, of our Troop committee, was the visitor. Some of the boys had to leave early to attend the Student Stunts at Deerfield-Shields. Within two weeks we shall have our own troop colors. The windows of the clubroom were washed by the scouts before the meeting. The remainder of the meeting was devoted to practicing signaling and drilling. The Cobra patrol will have a contest with the Flying Horse patrol on May 23, in the afternoon.—Scribe Troop 67, Fort Sheridan, Allen Hulse.

TROOP REPORTERS' EDUCATIONAL TOUR

Reporters from the different troops of the North Shore Area council went to Chicago on an educational tour Saturday, May 23. 26 reporters met at the Chicago Daily News plant, Chicago, at 9:30 a.m. This was a great experience for the fellows as it gave them a great deal of information, especially on the Journalism Merit badge. The reporters under the leadership of a Daily News leader went through the Daily News and were shown as well as explained, the different types of advertising ways of setting print and the whole process of printing the daily paper. After the tour the fellows had lunch at the Merchandise Mart where they later visited the NBC studios and an advertising display. Following this the fellows again retreated to the Daily News building where they visited WMAQ and the scouts left for home. In the groups led by Mr. Carl McManus, assistant scout executive were the following: Willmette—William Lehle, president of the Press club, Troop 4; James Donahue, Troop 2; Robert Kreusch, Troop 11; Gerald Spinner, Troop 1; Bill Bowen, Troop 5; and Elmer Stone, Troop 4. Kenilworth—Defrees Holmes, Troop 13; Winnetka—Sidney Craig, Troop 19; Robert Brown, Troop 20; Highland Park—Jim Ewell, Ship 39; David Jenkins, Troop 32; Kerwyn Smith, Troop 33; and Art Baldauf, Troop 35. Highwood—Ambrose Cantagallo and Ed. Brown. Lake Forest—Robert Tibbets, Libertyville—Jack Osborn, 64; Tom Lanzworthy, Troop 72; Doersbuck, Troop 64; William Wilson, Troop 72; Bob Brownlee, Troop 71; and Irwin Holmes, Troop 72. Deerfield—Robert Ginter, Troop 59; and Kenneth Vetter, Troop 52. Northbrook—Marlin Landwehr, Troop 61; and Glenview—Frank Appleyard, Troop 55.

To Have Picture Taken
Due to the fact that "Student Stunts" was last Friday Troop 35 did not hold a regular meeting. However, next Friday the troop is to have their picture taken for the banners, as well as hold a board of review. The troop now numbers 38 scouts all in uniform and at the rate the new fellows are coming in it looks like a new troop will have to be started next fall.—Troop 35, Ravinia school, Scribe Art Baldauf.

Troop 35 Get New Flag
Troop 35, Ravinia, is indeed grateful to Mr. Arthur J. Baldauf for the troop flag, flag staff and emblem he has given the troop. It was given as a personal gift to the troop.

Troop 33 News
On account of "Student Stunts," Troop 33 postponed its regular meeting to Saturday night. It was a very busy evening for we devoted it to test-passing. Some worked on signaling, and some on first aid. The evening grew pretty cool outside, so we finished our tests at the scoutmaster's house.—Kerwyn Smith, Troop 33, Reporter.

NEW SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS

New Cubs, scout, Sea scouts and scouters continue to register with the North Shore Area council. Following is the list for the new scouts during the past week:

Winnetka—Sea Scout Ship 43, Daniel Healy. Winnetka—Troop 18, Charles Eiden, Jack Kidd; Troop 20—Harry Brown (re-registered). Highland Park—Troop 34, Gordon Engles (re-registered. Was formerly in Troop 31, but dropped at time of re-registration.) Northbrook—Troop 28, Walter Simpson, transferring from Troop 866, Chicago. Glenview—Merit badge counselor, Mr. John F. Adamson.

Camp Poster on Display
Over 300 large 22x28 inch window posters about Camp Makajawan have been distributed by the North Shore Area council Press club to the stores all over the area. These printed posters include a fine selection of pictures of camp as well and bring out that important fact, "a dollar a day will pay your way" to Camp Makajawan. The distributing of these posters is just one of the many projects the Press club is doing in furthering the publicity of the council.

Beaver Award
At the North Shore Area council they are soon planning to take advantage of the "Beaver award" recently established by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, for local scout councils. This award will honor those men who have demonstrated distinguished service to boyhood. It is designed to serve a purpose locally, comparable to the National Silver Buffalo award.

Come to Camp, Scouts!
Scout have you registered for Camp Makajawan yet? Remember only "a dollar a day will pay your way."

Here's your opportunity for advancement in rank. Here's your chance to do some excellent handicraft. Here's where you meet up with the finest gang known, and the big recreational schedule will be great. You can bet that here's where the food will be plentiful and tasty. Here's where the swimming will be the best you've had. Here's where the camp fire programs will be full of pep and joy. Here's where a scout gets the biggest time for the least money. And when you get back home, you'll be so husky and browned that your own mother won't know you.

Neckerchief Slide
The Camping committee of the North Shore Area council is presenting to every scout that registers for Camp Makajawan a neatly designed Makajawan neckerchief slide to be worn at all times with the uniform. This slide is mailed to the scout on receipts of his registration at scout headquarters in Highland Park.

For his civilian clothes the scout is also sent a button on it saying "Go to the Scout Camp."

Scout! Register for Makajawan now and get your slide and button! Only a limited number of each are available, act now!
