GROWTH

For 56 years, the State Bank and Trust Company has served Evanston and the North Shore. It has grown steadily as the community has expanded, keeping in step with the needs of customers. Facilities have been developed adequate to handle all types of banking and trust business.

Its management has been consistently careful that its activities measure up to the highest standards—that its services contribute to the substantial progress of Evanston and the North Shore.

You will find it a strong, safe and complete bank, known for its happy combination of conservative banking practice and modern methods.
