She Whittles for Her Supper

THE seasoned Girl Scout knows how to light a fire quickly, when hungry hikers or campers are waiting for their supper. Then she gets out her trusty jack-knife, takes a bit of pine, cedar or ash and whittles it into a highly inflammable "fuzz-stick". On all sides of the stick curl shavings. Set afire and placed in the center of the piled kindling they radiate flames that soon set the pot boiling. No wise Girl Scout goes to camp without her jack-knife, for it is useful not merely to make a fuzz-stick or split kindling but it also comes in handy for cutting bread or possibly bacon.

School Census Being Taken This Week at Grammar School

The annual school census for Deerfield is being taken this week by Principal Carl E. Bates. Next spring the children of per-school age are to be examined by a physician and a dentist and another examination given in August to see if the defects have been corrected. The aim of the school nurse and teachers is to have every child enter kindergarten with all physical defects corrected.

Am. Legion Baseball Team Schedule; Still Undefeated

The Deerfield American Legion baseball team has been undefeated thus far. In the first game on May 25, Deerfield defeated Antioch; on May 27 the game between Lake Forest and Deerfield was a tie 4 to 4. On Monday, June 1, Deerfield defeated Lake Bluff and on June 1, Deerfield defeated Lake Bluff and on June 8 won a victory over Antioch again.

The game with North Chicago scheduled for last Wednesday was postponed because that was Commencement night at North Chicago. It was again postponed on Saturday because of rain.

The next scheduled game is on June 13 with Lake Forest at Deerfield.

E. G. Jacobsen is the Deerfield boys manager.

3 Churches Co-Operate in Vac. Bible School

Plans are being formulated to have three departments in the Daily Vacation Bible school for Deerfield, June 15 to July 10 at the hours of 9 to 11:30, five days each week. Children 4 and 5 years old will meet at the Evangelical Bungalow church; children 6, 7, and 8 years old will meet at St. Paul's Evangelical church and children 9, 10, and 11 at the Deerfield Presbyterian church. Two full time teachers will be in charge of each department. To meet the expense of the school, a daily offering will be received.

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok very ably expresses the needs and values of the Daily Vacation Bible school in St. Paul's Herald for June:

We are all agreed as to the need of more religious education for our children. The Sunday schools make such little demand upon the time of the children that it can hardly be recognized as an efficient school of religious education. If facts could really be tabulated we would be surprised at our shortcomings. The best record that any child can attain in attendance is 52 Sundays or 52 hours a year. Of these 52 hours about 25 are devoted to religious instruction, the rest of the time is devoted to worship, Sunday school records and announcements. The number of children who attain a perfect record are very few. One-fourth to one-third of the enrollment is always absent. Irregularity on the part of any Sunday school child not only interferes directly with the child's religious progress, but breaks the solidarity of the class and impedes the progress of the whole school.

The Daily Vacation Bible school comes to the rescue. It offers not only more but at the same time better religious education. Such a school has its distinct advantages over any other religious education project.

Actually there is less competition with the many other agencies and institutions set up to help interpret for the child his life religiously and socially. The Vacation school can have things its own way. The Vacation school, meeting for a period of two-and-a-half hours a day for four weeks gives the time needed for an all-around experience, which is so vital for character development. The school is an actual social unit in which he members work and play, study and worship together. In contrast to our modern Sunday school there is an overwhelming advantage in a Daily Vacation Bible school.

Daily Vacation Bible school is not all work, it is a time devoted to play. Summer is the play time for our children. We do not intend to rob the child of this privilege, but rather help the child in meeting this need and desire for self expression. Children must be taught to play and learn to use the ever increasing hours of leisure. Well directed and supervised play serves as an alley to learning right attitudes, in developing character and in forming good habits. The Daily Vacation Bible school uses this creative power of play, realizing that without it all efforts would fail.

We are asking you to send your child to such a school this summer.
