

D. A. R. Better Films
Committee Review

The writer of this column searches diligently each week for news of the pictures to be shown from one Thursday to another. The comments made are not in any sense her own personal opinion but the grading of the National committee in Hollywood. When the word is "delightful entertainment for the entire family" we are happy and stress the hope that all may see it. Such a picture will be shown this week—in truth there is rarely a week without several such pictures—but today we emphasize "The Connecticut Yankee" Will Rogers makes the most amusing picture he has made in some time. The latest modern inventions against a background of the fifth century creates inconceivably funny situations, which give Will the type of thing he does so well. Family.

"Cracked Nuts" is another family picture of differing brand of humor, and will entertain and amuse. Wheeler and Woolsey appear in this fantastic farce. It will seem stale to those who have seen the first mentioned film, but it cannot harm the children.

"City Lights" Charles Chaplin, cleverist of comedians in pantomime, gives us a typical Chaplin film, amusing, whimsical, pathetic, risqué, clever, droll. One must forgive him his sly improprieties because he has no equal in pantomime. If you like Chaplin you will like "City Lights." Others better stay away. Adults.

"Daybreak" Ramon Navarro and Helen Chandler in a rather distorted Austrian romance. The production has excellence of technique, costuming, photography, etc., but does not measure up in plot construction, or inspiration. Adults.

Pay Dues of Unemployed

Culver City, Cal.—Culver City post of the American Legion recently staged a series of weekly dances, the proceeds of which were used to pay the dues of unemployed members of the post.

High School Year Book
Distributed; New Form
Pleases; Many Features

The Deerfield, the year book of the Deerfield-Shields high school, was distributed among the students subscribers this week and aroused widespread interest because of the new form in which it appears this year and the great mass of interesting pictures of school activities contained in its 95 pages. The book this year is of pocket size, handsomely bound and profusely illustrated and is a credit to the editorial board and their adviser. The board is composed of Henry Belfield, Jeannette Canright, Phyllis Dexter, Robert Graham, Robert Hanmer, Ella McEwen, Rena Nelson, Frank Straight, Beatrice Thorsen, Morton Traub, Hugh Wolf, Agnes Wright. Instructor Frank B. Peers is the adviser.

Students from Here
Illinois Graduates;
Exercises on Tuesday

All records were shattered at the University of Illinois Tuesday afternoon when President Harry Woodburn Chase conferred degrees on University of Illinois graduates at the 60th annual commencement. Including the degrees conferred Saturday by the Chicago departments, the number is more than 2,300, some 200 more than ever have been granted by the University at one time.

The list includes 17 from Lake county. Those from this territory to receive degrees are as follows:

Fort Sheridan: Wilfred N. Neff, B.S.

Highland Park: Hans Bahr, B.S., 533 Laurel avenue; Ann deClercq, B.S., 615 Kimball road.

Lake Bluff: Marie McKee, S.B.; Frank V. Rosenthal, A.B.

Lake Forest: Margaret Armstrong, B.S.

Bank Urges Children to Save in Vacation

When the last book and pencil is put away for the year, school children of Highland Park will be through with lessons for another summer. But not through with their thrift education.

In spite of the fact that schools will be closed, school banking will go on just the same. Officials of the Highland Park State bank which co-operates with the school board in bringing the school savings program to local children announce that their savings department will be open as usual, all summer long, to small depositors.

Deposits should be made at the regular savings department and during regular banking hours. Any day of the week will do. Any amount will be acceptable and whatever it is will be added at once to the child's school savings account. Interest will be reckoned as usual. Parents are asked to co-operate in this movement to fix the thrift habit more firmly in the minds of their children, that the educational value of their school training in thrift may not be disturbed.

The close of the school year finds a total sum of $22,891.06 on deposit in local banks to the credit of school children.

Vicksburg, Miss.—A report recently submitted to Vicksburg Post of the American Legion by F. C. Willcoxon, post employment officer, showed that out of 62 persons who applied for work, jobs were found for 34.
