Northbrook Cubs and Scouts Parade

The Cubs and Boy Scouts of Northbrook took active part in the Memorial Day parade. Above shows the boys ready to start with the District Drum and Bugle Corps followed by Cub Pack 68. Behind them are the scouts of Troops 61 of the Presbyterian church, 28 of the St. Peter's church, and 73 of the St. Norbert church.

EXMOOR CLUB GIVES CAMP MOOSE HEAD

Through R. Arthur Wood, chairman of the Finance committee of the North Shore Area Council, Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan was presented with a large Moose head. The antlers have a 50 inch span. The head is being shipped to camp where it will be placed above the large mantle of the specious fireplace. The council wishes to thank Mr. Wood and the Exmoor club for this valuable contribution.

CAMP OPENS MONDAY, FIRST PERIOD FILLED

One hundred sixty-eight Boy Scouts from the many towns of the North Shore Area Council leave early Monday morning by car and on the Chicago Northwestern railroad bound for Antigo, Wisconsin where they will drive 23 miles back into the woods to their private lake and their Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan. This first period from June 29 to July 11 marks the opening of the third year for Makajawan. There will be four 12 day periods ending August 22. The first period is filled to capacity, other periods are filling up fast. Indications are that more boys are wanting to go to Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan than the camp can accommodate. Register now!

PORT SHERIDAN TROOP MEETS

Our last meeting opened at 7:15 o'clock. After the opening ceremonies the assistant scoutmaster read the minutes. Mr. Scott, the scoutmaster was absent. June 24, our troop will be on an overnight hike. This will be our second hike. Our next meeting will be our last for the summer. Each scout will be required to put on some kind of an act. Our meeting was adjourned at 8 o'clock.—Scribe Allen Hulise.

CAMP TO HAVE EXCELLENT CHEF

Camp Makajawan will have an unusually well qualified chef for this summer, Mr. W. A. Logan. He has followed the cooking profession nearly all his life. He was a commissioned mess officer in charge of feeding one of the largest army posts in the country. He has been chief cook at the Deerpath Inn for the last few years and in the fall will return to cook for a college, where he had previously served six years. He has been chief cook at the Chicago Girl Scout summer camp for several summers. The many scouts coming to Camp Makajawan are due for the appetizing, health-building meals.

H. P. SEA SCOUTS SAIL ALBATROSS

Wednesday night, June 17 the men of Ship Port Clinton of Highland Park met at the Great Lakes training station base and went aboard the training schooner, Albatross. After a short talk by Mr. Demorest in which he explained our different stations and what we were to do we went on deck and got the ship ready for sailing. We had 10 men: Mr. Demorest, Dave Greene, our mate, John Betak, mate of Glencoe, and three passengers, Mr.

Craig, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Randall on board. We cast off at one bell (8:30) and after trying to clear the harbor twice, made it on our third try. There was a nice breeze blowing and we had good sailing.

After dark we picked out different lights along the shore and with the aid of Mr. Demorest's book on lights of the Great Lakes we found out how far out they were visible and how often they flashed. About four bells (10:00) the wind died down a little and we went forward very slowly. At five bells (10:30) we picked up our buoy and by six bells (11:00) all the sails were in and covered and all lines belayed.—Jim Ewell, Yeoman.

LEADER VISITS PARENTS REGARDING CAMP

Following is an explanation of the methods Troop 51 of the Deerfield Presbyterian Rotary club used in getting their 20 boys registered for Camp Makajawan:

"Dear Mr. Rybolt:
Troop 51, Deerfield has registered 20 members out of a total of 26 for one of the two-week periods at Camp Makajawan. This has been accomplished largely through the personal efforts of Ray Dobbins, assistant scoutmaster, who has been very active for the past several months in telling our member scouts the great benefits they would receive along with the wonderful good time in attending this camp.

"Mr. Dobbins has taken the time to visit with the parents of many of the scouts and has had the support of Mr. Boyle, the scoutmaster, and the members of the Troop committee who in turn have had the approval and support of the Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok in visiting the homes and helping the good work ever onward.

"Very truly yours,
(Signed) Monroe H. McKillip
Member Troop Committee, Troop 51
Deerfield Rotary Club."

OLD SHIP IS AGAIN REGISTERED

After a period of reorganization the old Sea Scout ship "Port Clinton" of Highland Park is now reregistered and active in a full summers program of sailing and seamanship training. The skipper is Mr. Lyle Gourley with Davis Greene and Oscar Goepner as mates. On the committee are: Benjamin H. Ball, chairman, George G. Greene and Archibald O. Mason.

TROOP 22 TO HAVE 22 BOYS IN CAMP

Mr. H. G. Boltz, the field executive for the North Shore Area Council received the following letter from Scoutmaster Hedgecock on how he registered his boys for Camp Makajawan. Although Dr. Hedgecock cannot go with his scouts, he has arranged for Mr. Harry Stannard of Glencoe to be their leader. Troop 22 will have 22 boys.

June 16, 1931
"Dear Mr. Boltz:
"Why and How" I induced my Scouts to sign up for Camp Makajawan.
"The 'why' would take a long time to tell if I went into detail. One need not be closely associated with boys to observe the difference between boys who belong to an organization which is all their own and which directs their play activities and to some extent their work, and boys who do not have that advantage. My period at camp last summer convinced me that there is no better place for such directed play and work than Makajawan, where the boy is under the leadership of men with high ideals, with the welfare and happiness of the boy in mind.
"The 'how' is a short story. I can't give myself much credit. Early after the Christmas holidays we began 'talking' camp in troop meeting. I even asked the boys if they were going to camp when I talked to them on the street. Above all I encouraged the boys who were already campers to talk it up to the others. By the time registration blanks were available, the idea has pretty well permeated through the troop that Camp Makajawan was an ideal place to go for real fun and advancement in scouting. The boys made their own sales talks at home in most instances. I helped out in a few cases. Consequently, about all I had to do was to sign on the dotted line."
Sincerely,
(Signed) S. F. Hedgecock
Scoutmaster, Troop 22

STAFF ARRIVES AT CAMP MA-KA-JA-WAN

The senior officers of Camp Makajawan arrived in camp a week early to get everything in shape for the finest camping session yet, for those lucky scouts that arrive June 29. An advanced party of six leaders arrived at camp Saturday, June 20. The rest went in the camp truck and cars on Monday morning. George Bersch and Dave Hicks drove the truck and Lowell Mueller and Howard Knox drove their own cars.

The camp is being set up in speedy fashion, tent floors laid, tents erected, equipment placed, more construction, new village layouts and all necessary details cared for.

Scouts, Camp Makajawan awaits your arrival!

MAKE TRIP TO WAUKEGAN DUNES

On Saturday, June 13, Troop 32 went to Waukegan dunes. We left Elm Place school at 8 o'clock. Mr. E. E. West and Mrs. F. J. Spaulding drove us up to Beach station. We got a bucket of water and walked to the lake and found a suitable place to camp.

We ate at 11:45 and played baseball. In the afternoon we visited the "Dead River" swamp on one side and desert on the other. Then we went swimming and Mr. Brush stepped on a broken bottle and had first aid.

We ate at 6 o'clock and went to Beach station where we were met by Mr. E. E. West and driven home.

Those present were Bob Riddle, Don Hurd, Bob Snyder, Eugene Snyder, Paul Kreuzcamp, Mr. Brush and David Jenkins.—Troop 32, Reporter Dave Jenkins, Elm Place School.

TROOP 32 BEACH PARTY

The regular meeting of Troop 32 on Friday, June 19 was held at the Park avenue beach. We met at 7:30 at Elm Place school and went to the lake. Some of the boys went swimming. We then played "Duck on a Rock." We roasted "marshmallows" and marshmallows. Then we played other games and were dismissed at 10 o'clock. There was 12 scouts present.—David Jenkins, Troop 32, Elm Place School.

National Scout News

by Bill Lehle, President N.S.P.A.
Due to the defective hearing of Mrs. Charles Patterson, Rostraver, Pa., she was unable to hear "taps" blown for her son who gave his life in the U. S. Army two years ago. Even though they were blown, for her, over the radio, Donald Duvall, a scout of Monessen, Pa., volunteered to make the trip to her country home to sound "taps" for the aged woman at close range. This was successfully done on the eve of Memorial day.

The Maryland Boy Scout Press club is now applying for membership in the National Boy Scout Press Ass'n. The club was organized in February by J. Hugh Taylor.

According to publishers, librarians, editors, the typical American boy is intensely interested in aviation stories.—Alger and G. A. Henty are still read.
