

PLAYGROUND BUSY; FIRST WEEK EVENTS

dence, and the classes will be conducted there on Tuesday afternoons at 3:30, and Friday afternoons at 1:30. Copies of the program has been given to each child, and it is hoped that these will prove satisfactory as an indication of what the children will be doing at different hours.

Swimming Program

The swimming program has been a great success thus far. A number of children have already learned to swim, and others have improved greatly over the strokes they were using before. Tests are being given to the children of different ages on the strokes that they learn. It is planned to hold a water carnival sometime in the near future; races and water games will be featured.

Last Wednesday was Dress-Up day at the playgrounds. At Sunset park 51 children appeared for the day's activities in costumes ranging from cowboy suits to Indian chiefs and ballet-dancers. In a bean-bag target game Sonny Reagan walked off with the honors and an all-day sucker. Eugene Pfister was second, and Donald Farmer third. On Thursday morning the first folk-dancing classes were held. Seventy-five children turned out for tap dancing, clogging, specialties, and children's singing games. The group was arranged in four divisions; those under eight years, those from eight to twelve, twelve and over, and the advanced group. At Ravinia twenty children signified their interest in folk-dancing by signing up for Mr. Copp's class.

Treasure Hunt

A treasure hunt was held at Ravinia on Saturday morning. Dicky Hagensick won the hunt, and received a box of cracker-jack as a prize. The handicraft activities are in full swing at the various playgrounds. At Sunset the boys have been working on the trimmings for the bulletin boards; at Ravinia all the children are working on totem-poles. The Lincoln group will start on airplanes, and West Ridge and Port Clinton will be busy on model boats.

A baseball league is in the making, and lusty competition is expected between the Sunset, Lincoln, Port Clinton, and Ravinia nines. The big guns started booming in a game between Ravinia and Lincoln held at Lincoln on Monday. Ravinia went home with the long end of the score, 22-8. This does not necessarily mean that the Ravinia outfit will take honors for the season, for Sunset and Port Clinton are lying in wait and expect to show the Ravinia bunch some real baseball before long. Games are being scheduled now, and the season will be under way this week.

The special event for this week will be Buddie Day, to be held on Wednesday, July 1st. On this day the children will pick particular friends with whom they will play games and work in co-operation. Contests will be held, and prizes given. A baseball game between Ravinia and Sunset will be one of the features of Buddie day.

Repairs on Jail Are Reported Under Way

The crumbling turret at the southeast corner of the county jail has been repaired. Other sections of the jail building, including Sheriff Lester Tiffany's housing quarters, will be mended.

The jail building is one of the oldest structures in the county. Proposals have been suggested for a new building, but the present condition of county funds prohibits any plans for a new structure in the near future.
