

FLOWER GUILD WANTS DONATIONS FOR SICK

Mrs. Gatewood of Highland Park Chairman of Northern District Activities

The Plant, Flower and Fruit guild is organized to enable suburban gardeners to share their flowers, fruit and vegetables with the poor, the sick and the lonely of the city—the invalids, cripples, shut-ins, with sufferers in hospitals, and with the old and friendless, who are ministered to by social settlements.

"Of the many social agencies at work in Chicago," said Mr. T. V. Purcell, president, "None duplicates, the function of the Flower guild. Through the ministrations of nurses and settlement workers, it reaches with its gesture of friendliness, many of the darkest spots in Chicago; places that would otherwise never be touched through accredited charities."

Sixth Season

The Chicago guild is now entering upon its sixth season of work. It was organized in the summer of 1926, by Mrs. Will H. Lyford, Mrs. Robert R. McCormick and Mrs. Alfred T. Martin of Wheaton, assisted by Miss Harriet Vittum. They enlisted the support of the Garden clubs around Chicago, for collection and Miss Vittum selected the charities, and assigned clubs to care for them. Mrs. Charles G. Dawes has been since its founding honorary president of the Chicago branch.

Deibler Motor Car Corp. Displays New Plymouth

A new four cylinder Plymouth automobile is announced by Jos. B. Deibler, the local Chrysler dealer. Its principal feature is its two-point power plant mounting, called "Floating power," which eliminates all vibration. Free wheeling is introduced for the first time as standard equipment in the low-priced field.

It's the greatest sensation since the adoption of the self starter," says Mr. Deibler. The car comes in eight body styles.

Highwood Police Chief Reappointed; Good Record

Chief Emil Lauridsen of the Highwood police department reports that he has just been reappointed for another month. It appears that instead of a full year's appointment, the city authorities at Highwood delegate police authority to the chief for 30 days at a time. The plan is presumed to be the result of some political complication. Chief Lauridsen has made an excellent record since taking charge of the office, his friends in Highwood report, the amount of fines collected and the extent to which unsavory places have been cleaned up in that city reflecting much credit on his administration of the office, they declare.

Ice Cream Social

The Rebecca Lodge is giving an ice cream social on Friday, July 17, at 589 Homewood avenue. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Casper Santi Is Held to Grand Jury; Gives Bond in Sum of $15,000

Casper Santi, former private banker in Highwood and former city collector, faces probable grand jury action on charges of operating a bank without a license and embezzlement of city funds.

Santi waived examination before Justice Henry Wallenwein on the two charges and was bound over to the October grand jury. He is out on $15,000 bond.

Meanwhile efforts are being made to clear the assets of the closed bank operated by Santi. Depositors who left about $150,000 with Santi for safe keeping are still showing anxiety over their savings though there has been assurance that the assets more than cover the amount of the savings.

The closing of the Waukegan National bank, which was named receiver for Santi's firm in the bankruptcy proceedings in the Chicago Federal court, has caused a temporary delay in the activities of the receiver.

While city collector Santi is alleged to have obtained about $8,000 on water and other bills which have not been accounted for to Highwood.

D. A. R. Better Films Committee Review

The pictures which are reviewed and commented on each month are broadcast by a monthly letter sent to each chapter of the D. A. R. The committee does not see every picture made but a review is written of every picture that is seen, and there is a sincere and conscientious effort to be fair and tolerant. The pictures are graded No. 1, 2, 3, and 4. 1 means very good; 11, good; 111, mediocre, and IV, not recommended. The coming week finds two very fine pictures listed and two in the last class.

"The Millionaire" A nicely balanced story, the artistry of George Arliss, delicate humor, appeal, and general technical excellence make a highly recommended picture for the entire family.

"Mr. Lemon of Orange" A simple hearted Swedish toy-salesman is unwittingly involved in gang-warfare. A few laughs enliven a dull story which has obviously been built to meet the title. Not recommended.

"Young Sinners" This story is doubtless supposed to carry a moral, but the scenes of drinking and lawlessness fairly swamp the intention. Two youngsters are spoiled and neglected by their parents and Thomas Meighan with his human wholesome lovable, characterization curse them convincingly. Some parents may decide this is a wholesome lesson, we'll leave the matter to you.

"Trader Horn" One of the pictures you have all been waiting for. It contains exceptionally entertaining and educational sequences of wild beasts of the jungle—amazing close-ups of alligators, lions, zebras, and other animals. Into this background has been woven a thrilling, exciting story of two traders who rescue the white priestess of the cannibals. It is excellent entertainment for the entire family, but rather strong and exciting for very young children.

Hold Six Believed to Know About Shooting of Woman Near Here

Four persons, two men and two women, were held as material witnesses Monday in connection with the shooting of Mrs. Margaret Modaffri, 22, of Highwood at the farmhouse of Philip Guinta west of Highland Park.

Mrs. George Lathrop, living with her husband at the farm owned by Joseph Dawson, near the Guinta farmhouse, heard the quarrel, she told deputy sheriffs, according to a Waukegan paper.

A few minutes later Mrs. Modaffri was taken to the Highland Park hospital with a bullet wound in her left shoulder, the report says.

Deputies John DeSmith, D. A. Hutton and John Sweeney arrested Santo Modaffri, husband of the wounded woman, and Philip and Marian Guinta, as material witnesses. Mrs. Helen Balsino of Chicago, who came to visit the Guintas, was also taken in custody. All four were released on bond pending a hearing.

Mrs. Modaffri insisted that she inflicted the wound herself when a revolver she was holding was discharged accidentally, when she was questioned yesterday. She was removed from the Highland Park hospital to the Lake county hospital.

State's Attorney A. V. Smith will be asked to look into the activities of the Guinta farmhouse as a result of the shooting.

Highwood Wins Two Games Over Week-End

Highwood nine defeated the Highland Park Crescents July 4th by a score of 15 to 2. Dock Bleimehl, a former Highland Park player, pitched the whole game, allowing only three hits.

Sunday, Highwood traveled to Morton Grove to give them a trouncing by a score of 8 to 1, Yeary getting 10 strikeouts and allowing 4 hits.

Next Sunday Highwood will play the S. T. M. J. of Waukegan at Highwood.

Highwood will play two games Sunday, first game called at 12:30 p.m., S. T. M. J.; second game called at 3 p.m., Lake Forest.

Highland Park Man Is Victim of Heat Wave

Paul Wahlbrook, a resident of Highland Park for the last 15 years or so, was found suffering from heat last week and taken to the Lake County hospital, where death ensued last Thursday. He was aged 43 years, 5 months and 28 days and formerly was employed as a salesman here. There are two children living. The funeral service was held July 3, at the Kelley funeral chapel on Sheridan road, and burial was in Memorial park.

Sheriff and Col. Smith Make County a Sahara

Alarmed at the continual raids, both from the states attorney and the sheriff, beer joints in the county last Friday started closing and planned to stay closed for two weeks until the epidemic of raiding halts, it was reported.

MORRISON WINS IN NORTH SHORE OPEN

"Sonny" Rouse Second; Other Scores Made at Sunset Valley Monday

Fred Morrison, professional at the Fox Hills Country club, Culver City, Cal., on his way home from the national open on Monday won the fourth annual North Shore open at Sunset Valley with a score of 71-70-141 for the 36 holes. A cash prize of $500 went to the winner.

The Pacific coast star, who in 1929 won the Southern California open, beat a strong field including members of the British Ryder cup team and many of the leading pros and amateurs of the Chicago district. Two hundred competed and 80 qualified for the final 18 by scoring a 79 or under for their morning round.

"Sonny" Rouse Second

Sonny Rouse, of Highland Park, winner of the event two years ago, finished second two points behind the winner. He had a card of 71-72-143. Both were tied for the morning 18 with 71, but Morrison turned his afternoon round in 70, two under par, while Sonny was taking a 72.

Al Espinosa, last year's champion, and George Dernbach of Flossmoor shot 144 to tie for third. Abe Espinosa of Medinah and Harry Hampton of Beverly were tied in fourth position with 145. Abe had a 35-34-69 for his morning effort, but he wavered on the home nine in the afternoon taking a 40 for a total of 36-40-76, four over par.

Chick Evans, Edgewater, led the amateurs with 73-77-150.

Britons Leave Early

The British Ryder cup contingent withdrew in a body at the close of the morning round in order to catch a train for the east. Archie Compstock led his compatriots with a 74 and Abe Mitchell, veteran English star, had a 75.

New Riding School Popular with Highland Parkers

Mr. Thomas R. Chalmers' new Riding school on County Line road has met with instant approval from the equestrians of Highland Park. Opening for business just a few weeks ago with 20 horses Highland Parkers have come out to ride in such numbers that Mr. Chalmers has found it necessary to increase the number of horses to almost twice the original number. All of these horses are excellent riding stock and many are three gated. Several ponies, also have been obtained for the youngsters to ride.

Located on the 100 acre Jewett farm whose stables will accommodate over 80 horses Mr. Chalmers has ample facilities for boarding horses; already a number of prominent people who, in order to be nearer to the beautiful bridge paths which surround the school and to avoid the crossing of concrete roads have placed their riding horses under Mr. Chalmers care. Several others have purchased horses from him which he is boarding at the school.
