

Fringed by a gallery of several hundred, Eddie Loos drives from the first tee in the North Shore open golf tournament at Sunset Valley. Archie Compston of England, with pipe, and Al Espinosa await their turns to sock the ball.

Highland Park Locals

Mr. William H. Saathoff and daughter, Janet spent the Fourth of July holidays visiting Mr. Saathoff's parents of Chenoa, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Berkson of 176 Vine avenue arrived home last Sunday from a week-end in New York. The special occasion for their journey was to meet the Europa which docked on Saturday bringing their daughter Miss Ethel Berkson just home from two years study and travel in Europe. Miss Berkson has completed two years at the College Femina at Bouffemont, France where she made an enviable record for herself as an excellent scholar and an outstanding all around college girl. Shortly before her return to America, Miss Berkson was awarded the greatly coveted diploma of the College Femina given for excellent work at the institution. The signatures of not only the teachers at the college but also the signatures of several professors of the Sorbonne, Paris, testify to the work accomplished by Miss Berkson. The two years were pleasantly interrupted by interesting travels in England, France, Spain, Holland, Belgium and Germany. The return of Miss Berkson will be of infinite pleasure to the members of her family and to her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brush and son Jim accompanied by the Rev. and Mrs. Alva E. Gilbert of Evanston are motoring to the southern part of the state on Saturday to visit Mrs. English, the mother of Mrs. Brush and Mrs. Gilbert, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Hamilton of the Moraine hotel left Tuesday for a brief visit in St. Louis. When they return next week they will bring their three year old grandson Frank H. Hamilton V., with them.

Mrs. Hans Bakke and two daughters of McGovern street are enjoying a vacation at their summer cottage in Waupaca.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Beatty of Ravine drive entertained at Sunday evening supper in honor of Admiral and Mrs. Crosby of Great Lakes and their guest Mrs. G. S. Badaer of Boston, Mass.

Mrs. C. W. Drank of Chicago was the week-end guest of Miss Clara Holland.

Mrs. Dormand Brush attended a luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Oscar Weidemiller at the home of Mrs. Bert Coats of Chicago on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wells, Mrs. Grace Smith and Mrs. John Rhinehart left early Tuesday morning for Mayo Bros. hospital.

Mrs. A. Brush was the guest at the bridge-breakfast on Tuesday given at the home of Mrs. Charles Colepter of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jacobs were hosts to a large crowd of friends and relatives at a picnic on their farm in Wadsworth on the Fourth of July. Numerous games were enjoyed by both young and old. A number of Highland Park folks attended.

Mr. William Rose of Homewood avenue is spending a week in Chicago at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. V. Lehman.

Miss Dorothy Berg of Chicago and Miss Barbara Bell Eder of Glencoe were the week-end guests of the Misses Mary and Kathleen Smith of South Sheridan road.

Mrs. Frank Walz and Mrs. Forrest D. Rose are entertaining sixteen couples at a beach party Saturday evening.

Readers of the Highland Park Press are offered an exceptional value in personal stationery during the month of July—Smart Set Stationery consists of 60 sheets of fine writing paper and 50 wide, fashionable envelopes to match, complete with name and address Hylited in raised lettering for only $1.00 per box. See samples of this attractive stationery at the Highland Park Press Office.

FUR STORAGE

In Our Fire - Burglar and Moth Proof Vault
REMODELING AND RELINING
CLEANING AND GLAZING

MOLDANER & HUMER

FURRIERS

16 North Sheridan Road

Phone H. P. 54

GARNETT'S

Wear
Pajamas
Every Hour of a Summer's Day

$1.00 - $1.25 - $1.95 - $2.95

One and two-piece pajamas for every occasion—morning, afternoon, evening and beach. Make your selection here from a new lovely array. Everything in sprightly styles, sophisticated types—all at a wide range of low prices.

Luxite Lingerie of Fine
Bemberg Yarns—Special

Vests, Bloomers, Panties and Step-ins, all at a very special low price. A special purchase brings these Luxite garments at about one-half their real worth.

79c