

THIS WEEK'S SERVICES AT LOCAL CHURCHES

First Church of Christ, Scientist
 First Church of Christ, Scientist, Highland Park, Illinois, 381 Hazel avenue, is a branch of the Mother church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The Sunday morning service is held at 11 o'clock, and the Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing, is at 8 o'clock. Sunday school is open to pupils between the ages of four and 20, and is held Sunday morning at 9:30.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon, "Sacrament."

A free public reading room is maintained by this church at 43 N. Sheridan road, which is open daily from 9 o'clock in the morning to 6 in the evening, except on Wednesday, when it is open until 7:30. On Sunday the reading room is open from 2:30 to 5:30. Here the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased.

All are cordially invited to attend the services and make use of the reading room.

Frank Davidson Hopkins, minister
 Next Sunday at the morning service, the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed. The pastor will speak briefly about the value of regular observance of the sacrament on the part of every Christian and hopes that every member as far as possible will be present. The class of young people admitted to full membership two weeks ago will observe their first communion next Sunday.

The church has come into possession of a very fine miniature golf outfit and is arranging to establish it in the space between the church and the parsonage where our people may enjoy it certain afternoons and evenings of each week. Full announcement will be made next week.

The Ladies' Aid held an all-day meeting in the social rooms of the church on Wednesday of this week. In the hottest weather these rooms are always pleasant and delightfully cool.

From the pastor's sermon last Sunday: "He is a poor patriot who thinks of his country only in terms of bigness materially rather than terms of greatness of spiritual and moral achievements." "The greatest contribution America has made to the world has not been in discovery, invention or accumulation of wealth but in the ideas and conceptions of democracy and international relationships which she has given humanity." "A nation may be born in a day, but it takes centuries to bring it to maturity; we are yet very young in years, but the virility of youth has carried us far."
