Deerfield Legion to Present Play Sept. 3-4

A committee representing Deerfield Post, American Legion, headed by W. K. Hout as their commander, met on July 7 with M. Jones, representative of the Universal Producing company of Fairfield, Iowa, to complete arrangements for the producing of the famous rookie comedy "Corporal Eagen" to be staged on September 3 and 4 in Deerfield. The production is something entirely new and different in the manner of clean, patriotic community entertainment. "Corporal Eagen" has a coast-to-coast record of large and appreciative audiences, and unusually good press reports. The production will be offered by 150 local people using elaborate costuming and scenic effects.

Indications point to a very successful showing of the production in Deerfield as has been the case throughout the entire country.

If you want to laugh, see "Corporal Eagen" at the school auditorium on September 3 and 4 and watch for particulars in regard to the cast and rehearsals.

Deerfield Overrun by Numerous Solicitors

Deerfield is being overrun with solicitors and agents. The housewife is kept busy answering the door bell from morning until night, on the average of one agent every hour or two, trying to sell electrical appliances of all kinds, magazines, underwear, stockings, and a hundred other things. Last Tuesday between the hours of nine and four, there were five agents trying to sell their wares. Some days there are more, some days a few less. Occasionally there are men in uniforms begging for help for orphans or tramps asking for food. The most unusual tramp was one who stopped at the local editor's door a week or so ago and asked for a cake of soap.

Marion Club to Picnic

The Marion club of the Holy Cross church of Deerfield met Monday evening, July 6. A picnic has been planned for Thursday, July 16, at the summer home of Mrs. W. J. Amendt's mother near Cary, Ill. The next regular meeting of the Marion club will be held in two weeks.
