Miss Josephine Reeves of Evanston was the guest of Miss Rosemary Kaumanns last week prior to her leaving for camp Hickory Hill.

Robert W. Wood of 162 Laurel avenue who was sworn in as a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy in New York on Wednesday, July 1, has been assigned to the 5th Company. For the next six weeks he and his classmates will receive an intensive course of instruction in various military subjects including both drills and lectures. Toward the middle of August, the new plebes will take a five day practice march through the foothills of the Catskills. During the march they will live in shelter tents and eat from rolling kitchens. This fall Wood will leave West Point on three occasions, to attend different football games. His first leave of absence will be granted on December 23, 1932, when he will receive a ten-day Christmas leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Battista Menoni of Deerfield announce the birth of a son, born at the Highland Park hospital on Wednesday, July 8.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Berube of North Green Bay road and their son James, and two daughters Marie and Ruth, left Monday morning for Cacouna, Providence, Quebec, Canada, for a three weeks vacation. Miss Ruth, who is in training at the Mercy hospital has a three weeks leave. They plan to stop at London, Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal, and Quebec. Most of their time will be spent with Mr. Berube's 80-year-old father and his sisters and brothers of Quebec.

Miss Genevieve Watkins of Sheridan avenue, Highwood, was slightly injured when she was thrown from a horse while riding in Crystal Lake on Sunday. She is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Burroughs of Briarhill returned from Denver and Estes Park on Sunday.

Among the marriage licenses issued at the County court during the past week were licenses for Thomas F. Daley and Edith Costa of this city, George W. Curtis of Ashfield, Wis. and Eleanor Belding Hamon of Deerfield, and Arthur Amidei and Katherine Fraulini of Highwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tucker and daughter, Alison, of New Zealand, are spending the summer at the home of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Scott of South Linden avenue.

Mr. Ernest Moldaner of Lincoln place was pleasantly surprised Monday evening by members of the Highland Park and Waukegan Royal Arcanum lodges, who helped celebrate his fiftieth birthday anniversary. He was presented with a pipe and smoking stand.

Dianne Ewell is leaving tomorrow (Friday) for Omaha, Neb., to be the guests of her grandmother, later driving with her to Colorado.

The First United Evangelical church will hold its annual Sunday school picnic Saturday afternoon at Sunset park.

Ladd and Dianne Ewell are taking part in the Children's program at Ravinia park this afternoon (Thursday). They will represent Ravinia in the North Shore Varieties. Ladd will entertain with some magic with Dianne assisting.

Physicians

Homer's appreciation of physicians is detected by the words he said to Nestor:
"A surgeon skilled our wounds to heal,
Is more than armies to the public weal."
How fortunate modern civilization is to have able physicians at hand.
