

FT. SHERIDAN HORSE SHOW DATES GIVEN

Annual Exhibition to Be Held Sept. 11 and 12; Entries Close Aug. 29

Friday and Saturday, September 11 and 12, are the dates named for the Fort Sheridan horse show, the show to be conducted in an outdoor show ring. The entry classification will include military, hunter, jumper, polo and saddle.

The courses of jumps will be as follows: Course "A," inside course, consists of four jumps around the perimeter of the show ring; approximately four feet high; course "B," modified Olympic, jumps not to exceed four feet; course "C," outside course, natural hunting jumps, and course "D" for handy hunters, natural hunting jumps.

A trophy will be given to the winner of every class, also four ribbons will be awarded with each class, the first award to be a blue ribbon, second, red, third, yellow, and fourth, white.

Entries Close Aug. 29

The show will start daily at 9:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. (daylight saving time.) Entries close Saturday, August 29.

The Fort Sheridan horse show association is a member of the Association of American Horse Shows, Inc., and is incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois for the purpose of conducting an annual horse show to provide funds for religious, educational, recreation, and charitable post activities. Boxes, parking spaces and reserved seats will be assigned in accordance with the receipt of applications, which should be made to the secretary, Captain Harry L. Branson, 14th Cavalry, Fort Sheridan, Ill.

The show at the Fort always creates interest among the social set of Chicago and the north shore.

Janet T. Carr Learning to Fly at Sky Harbor

Miss Janet T. Carr of Highland Park, whose father is a member of the firm of Nimmons, Carr and Wright, Chicago architects, is learning to fly at Sky Harbor airport west of Glencoe. She took her first lesson Friday of last week. If successful in obtaining her private pilot's license, she plans to continue her studies in the field of aviation. Maj. R. W. Schroeder of Sky Harbor airport said this week that Miss Carr's father had visited the airport recently and that he expressed an intention of taking up flying soon also.

Adelman New Manager of John Zengeler, Inc.

I. A. Adelman of Evanston is the new manager at John Zengeler, Inc., dry cleaning establishment. Mr. Adelman has had 18 years experience in the dry cleaning business and his work has always been of the highest type, it is stated. He was for 12 years with Robert M. Birch of Evanston and comes highly recommended. He promises prompt and efficient service for patrons of John Zengeler, Inc.

John Repholz Funeral Held Monday; Death on Friday Was Due to Heat

One death resulted from the heat here last week when John Repholz, 55, 840 Taylor avenue, Highland Park, dropped dead while talking to friends in the local station. Death was due to heart trouble brought on by the intense heat, his physician, Dr. F. M. Ingalls, said. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time. Mrs. Repholz and three children survive.

Mr. Repholz walked into the station shortly after 9 o'clock, seeming to be in fair health, officers on duty at the station said. He sat down in the police office and was talking about the heat wave to Chief Edward Moroney when he suddenly fell forward. He was dead when the police chief picked him up.

The body was removed to H. F. Kelly's funeral home, and the funeral service was held Monday, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Everett.

John Repholz was born May 7, 1886 in Teremia, Austria, Hungary. He came to this country about 20 years ago and has made his home here ever since.

He leaves to survive him besides his widow, three children, Jacob 16, Anna 14, and Walter 12; also one brother, Jacob Repholz of Chicago.

Castle-Building Prize Winners Are Announced

A castle-building contest took place last Saturday morning on the sands of Roger Williams avenue beach for the children of Ravinia playground. Thirty-five children entered the tournament, seven prizes were given, and Ray Cox, the life guard, was judge. The winners in the various classifications were as follows:

First prize, older girls, Martha Renner. Martha received a beach ball.

First prize, smaller girls, Dorothy Jones, who received a sand-set.

Second prize for older girls went to Hilda Bein, who was presented with some golf-balls.

Second prize for younger girls, a sprinkling can, was given to Porgy Benson.

The first prize in the boys' division, a beach-ball, went to Henry Wilder; second prize, a sailboat, went to John MacIntosh, and third prize to Dicky Hagensick.

Fred Anderson Funeral Is Held Here Saturday

Fred Anderson, chauffeur for Dr. Martin of Chicago, and whose home was at 467 North Green Bay road, Highland Park, died July 17, in the Passavant hospital, Chicago. The funeral service was held Saturday afternoon in the chapel of the H. F. Kelley funeral home, here, and burial was in Memorial Park cemetery.

Golf Tourney Monday

The employers and employes of the Highland Park Press will engage in a golf tournament Monday evening at Sunset Valley Golf club. There is keen competition among the men and the affair promises much interest.

Community Twilight Baseball League Is Ending First Round

The Community Twilight Baseball league is concluding the first round of this summer's games. Since last week the following results have been recorded for games played:

On Tuesday, July 14, the ABC Oil Burners defeated Public Service by a 11-4 score. Krohn of the Public Service outfit did most of the hitting getting four hits in five times at bat. O'Brien, Glader, and Weil slugged the ball for the ABCs. Thursday of last week Ravinia defeated the Highland Park Press 13-11; Ravinia stepped into a seven-run lead in the first inning, and the Press tied it up in the fourth, having scored three in the first, three in the second, and one in the fourth. Ravinia scored three in the fifth, and again in the seventh and eighth. Witt did the hurling for the Press, while Olson took the mound for the Ravinia aggregation.

Bock's defeated the Public Service 14-1 last Monday. Kempfer of the Public Service team, got a walk and two other men got base-hits, but that was all the team could do against Art Bock's pitching.

The big upset of the week took place Tuesday when the Quality Meats team defeated the Press, 13-6. The Press, up to Tuesday, was in second place with three victories and one loss. Their chance to nose out Ravinia for first place went by the boards, for Ravinia, with one victory this week, remains firmly ensconced in the top position with five wins and one defeat.

Onwentsia to Meet Ft. Sheridan Polo Team Next Sunday

Two Fort Sheridan polo teams will take the field Sunday, in games at Fort Sheridan and Milwaukee. A team from Onwentsia is scheduled to meet one Army team on the local field, while a second Army team plays the Meadowbrook four at Milwaukee.

Last Sunday, July 19, the Ft. Sheridan squad downed the Broadlea club of Milwaukee to the tune of 9-5 after spotting the visitors three goals by handicap. Due to the intense heat and as a courtesy to the visiting team, General Parker ordered the game cut to six periods.

The game was a struggle, and not until the final period did the Sheridan team pile up a comfortable margin.

Dr. G. S. Seeger, S. M. Fowler, Bill Wagner and Captain Conar played for Milwaukee. Playing for Fort Sheridan were Major General Frank Parker, Captain Harry Branson, Lieutenant John Bethel, Lieutenant Prentice Yeomans, Lieutenant G. S. Smith, and Lieutenant H. D. Reed.

For the game next Sunday, General Parker, Major C. C. Smith, Major Reinhardt and Lieutenant Bethel will be the probable line-up, with Captain McKay as substitute while Captain Branson, Lieutenant Horton, Lieutenant Reed, and Lieutenant G. S. Smith will play at Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Howes and daughter are motoring to Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan over the week-end to bring home their son who has been in camp for the past month.

BLACKHALL COACH IS RIVAL OF AUTO

New Type of Street Car Devised by H. P. Man, N. S. Line Official; Description

A new type of street car embracing all the comfort and convenience features of the modern automobile has been designed and is now in test operation at Joliet, Illinois. Known as the Blackhall rail coach, this project was initiated and supervised by John R. Blackhall of Highland Park, general manager of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad, and carried out under the personal direction of Harvey S. Pardee also of Highland Park, consulting engineer of Chicago.

John R. Blackhall

(Continued on page 48)

American League Playground Games

The only American League games played on the playgrounds this week were last Monday, July 20th. The games were between Lincoln and West Ridge, and Lincoln and Ravinia, played at West Ridge. In the first game West Ridge beat Lincoln 12-6. Lincoln came back in the second game of the afternoon and defeated Ravinia by one run in a closely-fought contest, 13-12.

Ralph F. Davies Dies After Long Illness

Ralph F. Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland W. Davies of N. St. Johns avenue, died last Thursday at the Great Lakes hospital following a lingering illness which was terminated by a stroke.

Mr. Davies was 37 years old and was born in Highland Park. He was a graduate of the Elm Place school and attended the Deerfield-Shields high school for three years.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the home of his parents with interment in North Shore cemetery.

Besides his parents he leaves three sisters, Mrs. Robert Pease, Mrs. Jesse Ham and Mrs. Norman Appleton to mourn his death.

Mr. C. E. Tyson is driving to Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan over the week-end to bring home his son Billy from the boy scout camp.