Highland Park Locals

The Misses Catherine Berube and Elaine Berberick entertained out of town guests at a dinner party Wednesday evening in honor of their birthday anniversaries. Out of town guests were from Chicago and Jackson, Mich.

Dorothy Simpson of Roger Williams avenue, arrived home the early part of this week after spending ten days at a Business Girl's conference at Camp Grey, Saugatuck, Mich. Miss Simpson was a delegate of the Pi Delta club.

Mrs. Cecil W. Rogers of Torrington, Wyo., who recently underwent a major operation at Mayo Bros. hospital, Rochester, Minn., is getting along nicely. Mrs. Rogers will be remembered here as the former Miss June Rhinehart of this city. Mrs. L. I. Wells of Akron, Ohio, her sister, went to visit Mrs. Rogers at Rochester, but did not go there for an operation as was stated in a recent issue of the Press. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Rhinehart who accompanied Mrs. Wells to Rochester have gone through the clinic and are undergoing treatment.

Jean and Audrey Brunnell of Ft. Madison, Ia., who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Archie Abercromby, for the past two weeks, left Sunday for Chicago where they will visit relatives before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gallagher of 2751 Deane Park drive will present their daughter, Garrigue Gallagher, to society, at a tea given at their home Friday, Oct. 30.

Miss Elizabeth Guthrie of West Liberty, Ia., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Bridges of W. Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Moon and two sons, and Mr. Murry Moon of Kiva, Mich., left yesterday for Fenton, Mich., where they will visit Mr. Moon's parents for two weeks, and help prepare for a party commemorating the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moon, which will be held August 3rd. The Edward Moon's were former residents here, coming to Highland Park in 1893 and making their home here until about 18 years ago when they moved to Michigan.

Mrs. Abbie Bastin is visiting her daughter Mrs. Wilbur Brotherton in Bozeman, Mont., for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bernardi entertained a number of friends at a beach party on Monday evening.

Miss Edith E. Walker and her mother of 312 Roger Williams avenue, have returned from an automobile trip to Glenwood, Ark. On their return trip they stopped a few days at Starved Rock State park on the Illinois river, midway between Ottawa and LaSalle. They pitched their own tent without help from mere man until they arrived at Starved Rock, when "Uncle Billy" Bottomley, camp custodian who is known to more tourists than any other man in Illinois, insisted on helping them. They report that the state park is especially beautiful at this season, the perpendicular walls of the canyons being covered with moss and a large variety of ferns.

Mr. Carl Larson is enjoying a two weeks motor trip in the east and in Canada.

Mrs. E. B. Metzler is a late arrival at the Maryland hotel, in Pasadena, Calif.

It's bad enough for the reds to flood the country with their cheap matches but if they ever start flooding us with cheap pocket cigarette lighters we are in favor of declaring war at once.
