Vol. 20 August 6, 1931 No. 23

The Woman's Auxiliary of Highland Park Hospital made a large sum of money at its tenth annual card party given, through the courtesy of the management, at the Moraine hotel, on Monday, August 3. Among the chairmen were Mrs. Edmund Brigham in charge of arrangements; Miss Caroline Schofield, decorations; Mrs. Hoyne Anderson, ticket sales; Mrs. Karl Meyer is president of the auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Nunn and daughter Dorothy of Moraine road are spending the summer at their home on Green Lake, Wisconsin. John and Bob Gibson are at Dr. Sprague's camp at Minocqua for the summer.

Bridge luncheons on the porch are a fad at the Moraine this summer. Among the recent hostesses were Mrs. Alexander H. Marshall of Glencoe, who entertained twenty-six guests; Mrs. Sydney H. Gettelman entertained for friends from Toledo and Cleveland; and Mrs. J. M. Weinberg of the Mayfair, who is passing the summer at the Moraine, has given several informal parties for friends in the hotel.

Miss Dorothy Burcham of Burlington, Iowa, is the guest at the William H. Saathoff home today, (Thursday).

Mr. J. W. Simons of the UdeU apartments is under observation at the Highland Park hospital.

Major James T. Moody of 955 Ridgewood drive has been transferred to Huntington, West Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gibson of Orchard lane and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mann have returned from their new summer home at Turtle Lake, near Monocqua, Wis.

An opera singer, an actress, a poet and a scientist have been among the distinguished guests at the Moraine this summer. Mme. Julia Claussen always stays at the Moraine during the Ravinia opera season; Miss Babette Block, who visited her parents during July, will return to New York City this week; Sis Wilner has gone back to Chicago; and Prof. Frost, accompanied by his wife and daughter were here only for the opera.

Billy Nunn, accompanied by Richard Isaac, left for Estes Park, to be gone six weeks.

Ladd Ewell is leaving Monday for a week's cruise on the Lake with the sea scouts.

Virginia Gibson is at Camp Holliday in Minnesota for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walz of this city, Clara Mau of Deerfield, Raymond Steiner of Hubbard Woods, and Edward Roach of Highwood spent the week-end at Muskego Bay, Wis.

Mrs. Florence Thomas Dingle and children left last week by motor for Cape Cod. They will visit friends in Berkshires while east. They expect to be gone the remainder of the summer.

Major C. A. Chapman gave a dinner at the Moraine Hotel last Wednesday in honor of the University of Illinois R.O.T.C. cadets, winners of the rifle and pistol cup, and their friends.

Theodore Winters of Laurel avenue is vacationing at Estes Park, Colo., with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson of Kansas City.

Mrs. James Cady Ewell is leaving the latter part of this week on a motor trip west. She will visit her mother in Omaha and pick up her daughter, who has been visiting there for the past few weeks, from there she will leave for Estes Park. They will motor on to Taus, N.M., where Mrs. Ewell will paint for the next two weeks. Mrs. Ewell will be accompanied by Carolou Burnham.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vetter and two children have returned from a motor trip to Green Bay and Shawano Lake, Wis. They were gone ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith of this city announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Margaret Claire, to Mr. William W. Stem Jr. of Deerfield. The marriage will take place the latter part of August.

Mrs. Joseph Cabonargi returned on Sunday from a motor trip to Colorado Springs and the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Muir and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howe motored to Mendota, Ill., on Sunday to attend the Illinois State Fidelity Life association, formerly the Mystic Workers.

Mrs. W. A. Atteridge and son visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jacobs of Wadsworth, this week.

Mrs. James Hesler of South Green Bay road entertained twelve guests on Monday for her mother, Mrs. Fred Fisher of Chicago, who spent last week with her daughter.

Mrs. Laif Norman entertained the P. G. club at her home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Henry Niemeyer, Mrs. John Hemmer, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. W. J. Lithall and sons Bobby and Billy, all of Chicago, were guests on Tuesday at the W. C. Conrad home on 122 McGovern street.

Billy Lithall of Rogers Park is the guest this week of Frederick Golden Jr.

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, Trinity Episcopal church was the scene of a very beautiful wedding when amid palms, ferns, and peonies Miss Clara Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Holland, 356 E. Park avenue, was married to Milton E. St. Peter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon A. St. Peter of Onwentsia avenue. Dean Edwards officiated. The bride was most charming in a simple but elegant gown of egg-shell satin with a tulle veil gracefully draped and a real lace cap. She carried a bride's bouquet of gardenias, lilies of the valley and bride's roses. Miss Holland was attended as maid of honor by her sister, Miss Beryl, who wore a peach gown with hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of larkspur and tea roses while the bridesmaids, the Misses Irene Reitz of Des Plaines, Miss Madelyn Drenk of Chicago, and Mrs. William Casey of Waukegan (a sister of the groom) wore blue taffeta frocks with hats to match and carried bridesmaids bouquets of blue larkspur and pink roses. Mr. St. Peter was attended by his brother Alfred as best man while Reginald Holland, a brother of the bride, George Emmett of this city and Mr. F. M. Brelsford of Chicago were ushers. After a reception at the home of the bride's parents to two hundred guests Mr. and Mrs. St. Peter left for a week's honeymoon trip motoring thru Wisconsin. They will reside in Hubbard Woods.

Mrs. A. R. Loomis of Central avenue had as her week-end guest her daughter, Mrs. Frank Moss of Chicago.

Mrs. C. S. Melville and daughter Dorothy Jean have returned from a week spent at their cottage at Miltmore lake.

Arthur Bock of South Second street and Karl Bahr of Laurel avenue are spending several days this week at the Bahr's cottage on Green Lake, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Epperson announce the marriage of their daughter, Ella Gayle, to Oscar L. Lundgren on Saturday, August 1. The young couple left for the groom's summer home on Spider Lake, Traverse City, Mich. Upon their return they will reside in the Sher-Park Apts.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Meadow road, Glencoe, announce the birth of a son, born at the Highland Park hospital on Thursday, Aug. 30.
