Religious Service at Railroad Men's Home

At the Railway Men's Home on Sunday, August 2 a new feature was introduced by having several musical organ numbers played by Raymond H. Fidler. Mrs. Anna Zimmer sang "Face to face with Christ my Saviour." A recitation entitled "Rock of Ages" was given by Mrs. J. G. Fidler. This was illustrated by colored pictures facing each other. The first was the figure clinging to a rock representing the everlasting "Rock of Ages." The other was a picture of the Master in the Garden. A message full of hope and cheer was given by Rev. J. H. Taylor entitled "The Christ in the Midst." Appreciation was shown by the men who have sacrificed life and limb for public convenience and transportation. Mrs. Zimmer sang again at the close.

These prices effective Friday and Saturday only.
