

PROTESTS PLAN FOR ROAD AROUND BLUFF

O. W. Schuette Writes Governor Scoring Sheridan Highway Project Here

Plans of the State Highway commission to re-route North Sheridan road in Highland Park, between Edgecliffe drive and Fort Sheridan, by the construction of a concrete bridge around the bluffs, have aroused the protest of adjoining property owners. Voicing this protest, Oswald F. Schuette, 1001 North Sheridan road, has sent a letter to Governor Emmerson in which he charges that the project will cost more than $500,000 and is a waste of taxes. He has asked the Governor to stop further work on these plans.

"The report of this extravagant proposal," says Mr. Schuette's letter, "comes at a time when more than half the taxes are unpaid in many sections of the state; when mortgages on farms and homes are being foreclosed; when hungry families are being evicted because they cannot pay their rent, and when your Unemployment commission is facing the threat of the worst winter in the industrial history of Illinois."

Mr. Schuette's letter follows in full:

Mr. Schuette's Letter
Hon. Louis L. Emmerson,
Executive offices,
Springfield, Ill.
Dear Governor Emmerson:

The State Highway department proposes to re-route North Sheridan road in Highland Park by the construction of a 500-foot bridge which would carry the highway, on a curve, around the crumbling bluff at the north end of Highland Park and the south end of Fort Sheridan.

This plan will cost more than $500,000, for less than one-eighth of a mile of roadway. The report of this extravagant proposal comes at a time when more than half the taxes are unpaid in many sections of the state; when mortgages on farms and homes are being foreclosed; when hungry families are being evicted because they cannot pay their rent, and when your Unemployment commission is facing the threat of the worst winter in the industrial history of Illinois.

The plans which your Highway commission has made for this section of Route No. 42 call for a curved highway, against the slope of a treacherous bluff which Lake Michigan has been tearing away at the rate of one foot a year. The recent destruction of the sea wall at Lincoln Park demonstrates how futile it is to hope that such a structure can be made reasonably safe except at enormous expense. There is no such thing as complete perfection.

The enthusiastic engineers in your department seek to excuse this inexcusable outlay with the claim that the building of such a bridge would create a "scenic spot" that would attract tourists. But an automobilist who would take his eye off the car ahead of him on this speedway, to get the benefit of 500 feet of scenery—at 40 miles an hour—would court disaster. During the winter months, particularly, Lake Michigan storms would make this unprotected road a treacherous highway.

There is something preposterous

A Successful Summer for the Open Air Nursery School

On Friday the fourteenth of August the summer session of the Open Air Nursery school closes after a most gratifying summer. Although there have been several cases of measles and mumps in Highland Park, the Nursery school has been entirely free from anything of the sort and the attendance record has been unusual.

The children of the school testify to the ideal life they have led this summer by their sturdy brown bodies and their bright eyes and rosy cheeks. What a splendid preparation for the winter and its attendant ills.

School opens the fifteenth of September for the winter session at 186 Edgecliffe drive and parents of small children are urged to register their little ones now. The group is limited and it is necessary therefore to get the child enrolled early. —Adv.

Flower Guild Asks to Share Jellies

In this season of jelly-making, the Chicago Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild suggests that each housekeeper make an extra glass or two for the benefit of settlements and hospitals who are helped by the Flower Guild.

For jellies are a welcome gift to the poor and the sick, as well as oranges, vegetables, and cans of tomatoes.

Flowers are always acceptable and the north shore gardeners have been very generous this season in sharing their blooms.

Anyone with jellies, fruits, vegetables, flowers, or money to contribute to the Flower Guild, is asked by the organization to get in touch with a member of one of the garden clubs, who will call for it, or to take it herself to the booth in the North Western station in the city between 7:30 and 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, any week during the summer.

Onwentsia Polo Team to Play at Fort Sheridan Sunday, Aug. 16; Details

With the Fort Sheridan poloists leading 2 to 1 in the series with the strong Onwentsia team, the Lake Forest Quartet will return to Fort Sheridan on next Sunday afternoon, Aug. 16, with their strongest line-up in an attempt to square accounts with the Army four.

On a wet and dangerous field at Fort Sheridan on August 9, the visitors played brilliantly to gain their first victory of the series over the Sheridanites. The largest crowd of the season witnessed the game last Sunday and an even larger attendance is expected for the contest on August 16.

Maj. C. C. Smith, brilliant international player, will lead the Army team Sunday and will be supported by Lieutenants G. S. Smith, H. D. Cowboy Reed, and John Horton. Onwentsia will have their best combination of Charles Glore, Prentiss Porter, Richard Simmons, and Earle Reynolds. The Sheridan team carries a 12-goal handicap, and the Onwentsia team an 8-goal handicap. Major Smith leads with a 6-goal rating.

Many Highland Park, Lake Forest and north shore and other people are attending these thrilling games, that take place each Sunday on the Fort Sheridan field at 3 o'clock. Parking space may be had along the sidelines.

Tee Club Has Weekly Session; Guest Day Is Tomorrow; Expect Many

Last Friday was Blind Bogey day for the Tee club—the day for those whom luck favors. 18 holes were played in the morning. There were three prizes to be won; a lemonade set, three golf balls, and a pillow. Mrs. Meyer won first prize, Mrs. Lowrie won second, and Miss Steever and Mrs. Shelton tied for third. They drew, and Miss Steever won.

Luncheon was served at one, after which the prizes were awarded for the preceding Friday, on which an 18 hole handicap event was played. Mrs. Shelton won low net, and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Fabian tied on a blind hole. They drew and Mrs. Jones was declared the winner. The prizes for both Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Shelton were golf balls.

Tomorrow is guest day, and it is hoped all the members will come and bring several guests each. 18 holes will be played in the morning with prizes for low gross and low net. Luncheon will be served at one, and after luncheon there will be an approaching and putting contest—approach shots to be made at 20, 40, and 60 yards. Then there will be bridge in the club house.

On Monday, August 17, the qualifying round of the Sunset Valley Women's Tournament will be played. This tournament is open not only to Tee club members, but to all women members of Sunset Valley. Play will continue each day, and the finals will be played on Friday of that week. It is hoped that there will be a large number of contestants.
