They attended the annual reunion of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Burk of New Auburn on Tuesday, which was given in honor of their sixtieth wedding anniversary, and was attended by their very wide circle of friends in the summer colony, as well as the other residents of that community. This is considered one of the greatest social events each year at New Auburn.

Waukegan Plans Aerial Police Patrol Shortly

Definite assurance of the establishment of an aerial police system to augment the ground force of the Waukegan police department calling for the addition of two special officers to operate from the Waukegan airport was given last week by Chief Edwin Ahlstrom who conferred with Mayor Peter W. Petersen with regard to the plan.

Chief Ahlstrom said that plans for the aerial force will be pushed at once and indicated that two men will be employed to aid in the apprehension of escaping criminals and help to enforce flying rules in Waukegan.

Leath Butterfield, crack pilot of the Waukegan airport, and Murray Boess, representative of the Curtiss-Wright company, are the two men slated to take the special police jobs.
