ORDER OF ARROW HAS INITIATION

The Camp Ma-ka-ja-wan chapter of the Order of the Arrow, a national honor camper brotherhood, selected eight of their members to the second degree because of their outstanding example of true scouting and their spirit of unselfish service. This recognition goes to only a relatively small number and is considered a high honor.

Those receiving this honor are Ed. Dierks and Wm. Bowen Troop 5, Wilmette; Vic. Joyce Troop 12, Wilmette; Dick Wichman Troop 33, Highland Park. John Derby Troop 52, Deerfield; Cal Gartley Troop 48, Lake Forest; Harold G. Boltz Scout field executive, Highland Park; and Wm. Chichester Troop 15, Winnetka.

SARETT IS CHOSEN FOR HONOR ORDER

Lew Sarett, of Ravinia, a widely known woodsman, author, poet and lecturer, was one of the outstanding members of Camp Ma-ka-ja-wan to be chosen to the National Honor Camp Brotherhood, the Order of the Arrow.

Mr. Sarett has been in the North Shore Area council Boy Scout Camp Ma-ka-ja-wan in northern Wisconsin as one of the leaders of Troop 35 Ravinia in which his son Lew Jr. is a member. Along with 23 other scouts and scout leaders Mr. Sarett took the "ordeal" and on successfully completing it was initiated to the Arrow.

The order recognize those who, in the minds of their fellow scouts have best lived the ideals of the Boy Scout oath and law while at camp.

The list of candidates is as follows: Clifford Sarett, Troop 48, Lake Forest; Bob Bernard, Troop 59, Libertyville; Bill Merner, Troop 52, Deerfield; Robert Muhle, Troop 15, Winnetka; Henry Wilders, Troop 35, Ravinia;

Orlando Vivirito, Troop 35, Ravinia; R. Stupey, Troop 37, Highwood; M. Brownlee, Troop 37, Highwood; James Garrity, Troop 36, Highwood; Bud Lochridge, Troop 50, Deerfield; Davis Clodt, Troop 23, Glencoe; Frank Stannard; Troop 22, Glencoe; Ed. Walecka, Troop 37, Highwood; James O'Connor, Troop 35, Ravinia; James Russell, Troop 52, Deerfield; John Marshall, Troop 48, Lake Forest; Lew Sarett, Ravinia Troop 35.

IS THE KING CRAZY? WATCH FOR EVIDENCE

Is the king crazy or not? Watch the king and see for yourself. The camps on the north are the faithful senators who are trying to keep the unlawful and scrupulous soldiers from collecting evidence of the king's insanity. For two hours the king shall be seen about camp and the soldiers, in collecting written evidence must try to keep it from the senators. If any senator catches any soldier, all the evidence must be forfeited. The trail, where the evidence is to be submitted will be held at the evening campfire. Each section will have its own lawyers and witnesses.

BLACKFEET NEWS
Mr. Russell claims that the Blackfeet have the best flag pole and archway in camp. Any challenges?

MINOMINEE NEWS
Tuesday Lew Sarett took the Minominee and Delaware villages out on Whip-Poor-Will trail for a demonstration on how to use the compass in the woods. Last Monday the two villages had a baseball game on the other side of the lake.

BANQUET TOMORROW NIGHT
Marking the close of the period and a whale of a good time besides a lot of fun, the banquet was again featured for the third time this summer at camp. Last Friday night the mess hall was decorated by the scouts. Each camp decorated its respective tables with flowers and ferns which are to be found around the camp site. It was the last night scouts of the third period ate together, and they made it a peppy one. One they won't forget for a long time to come. The staff arranged an excellent program, and so it was a big night.

SCOUTS COOKING OWN BREAKFAST

The novel idea of Mr. Boltz to have scouts cook their own breakfast without cooking utensils worked better this period than it has ever before. Mr. Boltz said that he liked the way in which the scouts cooked the meal, and he hopes that the next period will be as successful as this one has been. One particular stunt that made a big hit was thought up by Mr. Sarett. A long trench was dug in which the tin cans of the campers were placed. On these cans the scouts fried their own bacon and eggs.

MORE LETTERS FROM SCOUTS

"Dear Mr. Rybolt:
"I just want to tell you what a wonderful time I had at camp. I think the camp has made a steady improvement in the last three years. The food is wonderful, and the camp staff is great. I would certainly suggest that you keep the Vesper services on Sunday night. I got more out of that than anything. I hope I will be able to come up again because I certainly enjoyed it. The reports from camp down here seem very favorable. Good luck for years to come. Signed Scout"

ANOTHER LETTER

"Dear Mr. Rybolt:
"I would like to tell you and the staff how much I enjoyed camp this year. Last year I had a lot of fun, but this year I had much more. I think the crafts have improved very much for they are much more interesting this year. I also think that the camp fires were much more fun this year. I hope that the third and fourth periods are just as good as the previous two have been. Yours for happy days at camp. Signed Scout"

TEARING DOWN BRIDGE

Dave Henderson is the big, brown, brawny man who is tearing down the bridge on the officer's trail. Mac says that the bridge was a hazard to the officers, or anybody else for that matter.

RATS WIN AGAIN, DEFEAT HOUSERS

Monday night the Rats, that well known outfit of Ma-ka-ja-wan ball stars, showed their superiority over the weaker and less efficient Housers. The Housers scored 4 runs off of the Rats in the second inning due to the inability of the first base to cope with the situation. It was not long before the rats had their inning. The batteries were: Rats—Gritzbaugh and Hopkings. Housers—Reichardt and Fowler. In the first-inning the Housers had two men left on base. Fowler walked, Reichardt struck out. Swabacher singled and Fowler stopped at third. Berdux and Davis filed to Gritzbaugh. The Rats scored their runs on hits by Musik, Goepner, Joyce, Melcher, Marshall and Ed Gritzbaugh. Six runs were scored in that inning to beat the Housers. Doc Orest again umpired the game and he did a fine job. Paul Musik was struck in the shoulders with a bat when it slipped out of Vic. Joyce's hands. A lignment in the left clavical was strained.

Find Bottle in Lake Which Apparently Was Set Adrift in Hudson

A bottle set afloat in the Hudson river by the United States department of Fisheries, that apparently had floated 15,000 miles in the last year and a half, recently was picked out of Lake Michigan at Great Lakes by two colored youths from North Chicago who had gone there to fish.

The bottle contained a postcard addressed to the bureau of fisheries advising the finders that $300 would be awarded to them by the government if they sent in the card containing the place of finding the bottle, the time and date.

The boys, Robert Campbell, 20, track star at the high school and Melvin Bobo, 19, mailed the card immediately but took the bottle home.

The bottle was of heavy glass, and the letters "U. S." were blown into the outer surface. It was wrapped in heavy galvanized wire so that its contact with waterfalls, ships, or floating objects would not shatter it. Bobo was informed that the government had been placing these bottles in waterways over a period of years to test the currents.

This bottle, it was understood, was placed in the Hudson river in 1930. Some of the bottles have been picked up on the coast of Europe. The course of this floating object could not be determined.
