Deerfield Locals

Ewald Winters is having a two weeks' vacation from his duties in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Renard of Green Bay, Wis., were guests at the J. P. Freeman home several days of last week.

Emil Giss, John Vetter and George Rockenbach attended the Lake County Farm Bureau picnic at the Model Farm near Mundelein last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scheer, with Mrs. Scheer's mother, Mrs. Minnie Trigg, and Miss Gladys Trigg, spent the week-end in Waukan Junction, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs and two little daughters spent the week-end at Lake Wandawega, Wis.

Parents of twenty-six children have signified their intentions of having their children attend the Bannock burn school which is now nearing completion.

Marshall and Orval Fredericks left Monday on an automobile trip to Canada. On their return they will visit with relatives in Michigan.

Francis and Robert Saemans of Cross Plains, Wis., are spending several weeks at the home of their grandfather, Mr. George Karch, of Deerfield avenue.

The fire department was called out Sunday afternoon because of a large field fire just west of the Roy and Ray Clavey homes on Spruce street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Dike of Crystal Lake visited Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matti of Highland Park have rented the Harry Green house on Sheridan place.

Following the Wednesday evening recreation hour of the Tuxis Society at their play field on Warrington road the young people were entertained at a party at the home of Miss Lois Sturtevant of Beverly Place.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Scully and their two little nieces, Jessie Mae and "Bubbles" Page, spent last week at Lake Wandawega.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sanders of Foley, Ala., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Becker of Warrington road. They arrived Sunday evening.

James and Phillip Getty left this week to visit relatives in Philadelphia, Pa. They will also visit in Washington, D.C.

Mrs. L. C. Burgener of Evanston was the luncheon guest of her aunt, Mrs. Carl Hecker, at the Warner home, last Monday.

Wallace Reichelt was the guest of A. Chollett Perkins of Oak Park on Wednesday.

The J. R. Notz family spent Saturday at Fox Lake.

Mrs. Charles L. Riley of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. George G. Greene and daughter, Dr. Lois Greene of Highland Park, visited at the Reichelt Jr. home last Friday.

The Edward Segerts and Walter Langes have returned from a week's vacation at Lake Wandawega, Wis. Miss Virginia Early of Highland Park accompanied them.

Dan Hunt of Deerfield is editor of the Lake County Legionnaire, the official publication of the eighth district, Department of Illinois. Mr. Charles C. Kapschull, also of Deerfield, is commander of the district, and his picture adorns the cover of the August issue. A resumé of the work completed during Mr. Kapschull's term as commander is given in that issue, and a very fine tribute is paid to him by Mr. Hunt.

Miss Josephine Woodman accompanied her brother, James, of Waukegan, to the latter's summer home at Fourth Lake Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Woodman Todd and their two children Edgeley and Jane left Sunday to visit the James Woodman home at the lake.

Mrs. John B. Peters and little daughter, Lois, of Oakland, Calif., have been visiting at the Fred Van Zandt home in Grayslake. Lois, who is two years old, contracted scarlet fever and was taken to a Waukegan hospital last week, just after they had been visiting at the William Tennerman home.
