Announcing VIC J. KILLIAN, INC. DISTRIBUTORS PETRO-NOKOL OIL BURNERS

70,000 Users Urge You to Enjoy Petro Oil Heat

Heating engineers and contractors recognize that a certain type of oil burner may function perfectly in one type of boiler, but quite differently in another. All of the many kinds of boilers have unique characteristics demanding distinctly different application when fired with oil.

And further, fuel oils available in different sections of the country vary widely in characteristics—as do ignition requirements.

To meet these widely varying operating conditions, and provide for present and future oil and ignition requirements in every locality, the Petroleum Heat and Power Company manufactures a complete line of oil burner equipment. Burners that are made for every size boiler for every size home. Literature describing any of these burners will be gladly sent on request.

5% Discount on the purchase of a Petro-Nokol Oil Burner upon receipt of this announcement coupon.
