Word has been received here of the death of Gerald Herbert, 23 years old, who was killed recently when the horse he was riding on his ranch at Bison, N. D., fell and rolled over on him. Many Deerfield people will remember the twin boys, Gerald and Harold Herbert, who lived at the Dorcas Home until eight years ago. At the age of fourteen the twins were sent to Rev. Hood of North Dakota, who placed them on farms near by. Not long ago they purchased a ranch of their own at Bison, N. D. The twin boys are orphans, so that Harold is now left alone.
