

Deerfield Locals

Fred W. Kersten of 1140 Hinman avenue, Evanston, announces the engagement of his daughter, Louise, to George Franklin Thomas, Jr. The wedding will take place on Saturday, Sept. 26, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Franklin Thomas, at 316 Roger Williams avenue, Highland Park. Miss Kersten's mother was the former Susie Pettis, a daughter of the late C. W. Pettis. Upon the death of Mrs. Kersten, Louise lived with her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Pettis, until she graduated from Deerfield-Shields high school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Selig have had as their guests this past week, Mrs. Sophia Schinleber and two daughters, Misses Bernice and Eva, of Geneseo, Ill. They are en route to Olivet, Mich., where they will reside during the school year, as Miss Eva will teach in Olivet.

On Sunday, Sept. 16, fifty-five members of the Schinleber family assembled at the Levi Schinleber home in Northbrook. The reunion of the relatives was in honor of Mrs. Sophia Schinleber and her two daughters of Geneseo.

Mrs. Irving Brand of Deerfield road had as her luncheon guests on Thursday, Mrs. Mary Devine, Mrs. Elizabeth Feisel, Miss Vivian Feisel, Mrs. J. J. Foley, Mrs. Katherine Moore, Mrs. J. P. English, Miss Katherine English and Mrs. Lawrence English, all of Evanston.

Mrs. Leslie Brand and two children are returning this week from White Lake, Mich. The Harry Troup family will move to Chicago the 15th of the month, after spending the summer at the Brand home on Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. Louise Schinleber of Whitefish Bay, Wis., is visiting at the E. H. Selig and Clarence Huhn homes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Freeman and sons John and Robert are leaving next week for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will live.

On Tuesday afternoon, Dorcas circle two gave a farewell party for Mrs. Freeman at the home of Mrs. C. E. Olson of Greenwood avenue.

Miss Helen Hartman of Hinsdale spent last week with Miss Ethel Button of Chestnut street.

C. W. Getty went east last Friday to get his son, Philip, who had been visiting relatives in Philadelphia. They spent a day at Atlantic City before returning to Deerfield. Another son, James, who had also been in the east, returned home the previous week.

Mrs. Sprague and son, Bryant, of Bement, Ill., are guest this week at the Carl Stadler home on Orchard lane. Bryant will attend Lake Forest college this coming year.

The Webster family has moved from Hazel avenue to Geneva, Ill.

Mary Adele Clark entertained in honor of her fifth birthday anniversary on Saturday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clark.

Mrs. Harold Fisher and baby daughter have returned from the Highland Park hospital. The little daughter was born August 20.

Andrew Larson of Marquette, Neb., is making an extended visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl Varner, of Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Platt have moved to Wilmette. Mr. Platt was elected village engineer of Wilmette several months ago.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke will be hostess to the Tuesday Evening Sewing club next week, at her home on East Central avenue.

Messrs. E. Martin and Virgil Hagie are now in charge of the Deerfield filling station at the intersection of Deerfield avenue and Waukegan road. Harold Fisher now operates a Wadhams station in Glenview.

Mrs. Seth M. Gooder entertained her club at luncheon last Wednesday, at the Deerfield avenue tea room, followed by bridge at her home on West Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. and granddaughter, Jean Pettis, were the guests of Mrs. William Wallace Ward of Park Ridge on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Fred Hunt Sr. of Chicago has been staying at the home of her son, Dan Hunt, this past week. She remained with her grandchildren while Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hunt were attending the Legion convention at Peoria.

Jean Taylor spent the week-end visiting at Michigan City, Ind.

Mrs. E. J. Long is still quite ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Carl Mehrtens, of Cicero is staying with her.

Miss Laura Wessling has returned from a several months' visit at the home of Mrs. Mary Gieske of Barrington. She also attended the camp meeting services.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Petersen, accompanied by Jean Pettis, spent the week-end with Mrs. J. G. Myers and two children in Madison, Wis.

Mrs. John Stryker entertained the members of her circle of the W. M. S. of the Bethlehem Evangelical church at luncheon on Friday at her home on West Deerfield avenue. Members were asked to bring guests. Covers were laid for fifteen.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Bethlehem Evangelical church will sponsor a food sale on Saturday, Sept. 12.

Dr. and Mrs. Vaughan W. Spriggs spent the holidays with Mrs. Spriggs' parents in Augusta, Ill.

The Edwin Stryker family spent the week-end with the Walter Langes at Lake Wandawega.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Alborg and little son, who have been occupying the Carl E. Bates residence on Warrington road during the summer, have returned to Chicago.

Miss Mildred Kuhle of Decatur arrived in Deerfield last week. Miss Kuhle will teach in the new Bannockburn school which opens on Sept. 21. Miss Kuhle's sister, Miss Helen, will teach near Wadsworth.

Mrs. J. R. Notz is teaching at the Norwood Park public school again this year. Mrs. Otto Gieske is staying with the little Notz boys, Bob and Bill.

Miss Charlotte Fredericks returned last Wednesday from a week's visit at the Joseph Shulder home at Lily Lake. She was accompanied by her little cousins, Betty and Lois Shulder, who spent several days in Deerfield with her.

Quite a number from Deerfield attended the Lake County Teachers' Institute at Waukegan on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Juhrend are leaving next week for a two weeks' motor trip through Iowa and Minnesota.

Mrs. J. C. Huehl returned last Wednesday from Benton Harbor, Mich., where she spent several days at a health resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Meyer spent the week-end at the C. E. Schwarm home at Gages Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hout and two sons, Mark and William Karl, have returned from Sullivan, Ill., where they visited Mrs. Hout's sister, Mrs. O. E. Lowe. The Otto Houts of Livingston, Ill., are their house guests.

BEEF RIB ROAST pound 27c CHOICE STANDING

SWIFT'S GOLDENWEST CHICKENS 29c FOR STEWING pound

SMOKED HOCKLESS PICNICS 16c pound 4 to 6 lb. Average

FRYER, OR LIGHT ROASTING Chickens lb. 35c SMOKED BONELESS Butts lb. 25c

512-14 Central Avenue Highland Park

A&P Food Stores

The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co MIDDLE WESTERN DIVISION

Back to School!

START your child back to the classroom stimulated by a glass of WIELAND'S MILK. It means a happier... more mentally alert youngster.

A Quart a Day of Wieland's Pure Milk is essential to every child's health!

Order from our Salesman or 2050 Railroad Avenue, Evanston Phone Highland Park 3332

