

BANNOCKBURN SCHOOL RECEPTION SATURDAY

Public Invited to Inspect New Building Which Is Modern In Every Way

A public reception will be held at the new Bannockburn Grammar school, Saturday, September 26, to which the public is invited.

This new building is located on the corner of Telegraph and Sterlings roads, and is in the center of Bannockburn. It is of the Cape Cod style, and is on a lot approximately 100 feet long by 55 feet wide. The main building is rectangular with one wing at each end, and has a portico with four white columns in the front of the building.

There are two classrooms, each 22x30 feet, with tile floors. Off each room is a study room, approximately one-half as large as the classroom. Part of the class may adjourn to one of these rooms, in order that some may read and others recite at the same time. There is a junior room between the study rooms which has folding doors, so that the rooms may be thrown open for village meetings. Each classroom has an outside entrance. These doors may be used at all times, and in case of fire the children may go outside very easily and quickly.

There is also a teachers' room equipped with desk, chairs, telephone and first aid equipment.

The library, 16x18 feet, may be used in emergency in case of an overcrowded classroom. At present the library has 250 volumes and a total of 1000 volumes is anticipated by the end of the school year.

The building is heated by hot water heater of large capacity. The lavatory facilities are of the finest obtainable.

A distinct feature of the building is a hall, nine feet wide, which runs from one end to the other. This will be used for the hanging of pictures and placing of statuary.

Two units of playground equipment will be placed in the rear of the school lot, which occupies one and one-half acres. A sixty-foot flagpole is on the grounds.

At the opening of school last Monday there were thirty students enrolled and two teachers. A capacity of 100 students can be accommodated at the new school.

Highwood Missing Man Located, Police Report

William Webster, Highwood carpenter, who has been missing from his home in Highwood since Sept. 3, was reported located by Chief Emil Lauridsen.

Chief Lauridsen said that Webster had communicated with his family at Highwood Monday but the police chief said that his family had refused to give his location. It is understood that he will return to Highwood this week.

Grave fear was felt for some time, police believing that Webster had met foul play. Webster had withdrawn $60 from a bank shortly before his disappearance and it was believed that he had been kidnapped.

Sunset Valley Tee Club Activities Are Continued; Details

The weekly meeting of the Tee club was held last Friday. The event for the day was an eighteen hole flag tournament. Each player had a small American flag, and carried it as far as her allotted number of strokes (par plus her handicap) would let her. Mrs. Hall won by carrying her flag to the eighteenth green; Miss Cobb won second place by planting hers on the eighteenth fairway, and Mrs. Elwell and Mrs. Price won third and fourth places by carrying theirs to the seventeenth hole.

Luncheon was served at one o'clock. Due to the absence of the president and vice-president, Mrs. Laing presided, and presented the prizes to the winners of the eighteen hole scratch tournament played the previous Friday. Mrs. Fabian won in Class A, Mrs. Lucas in Class B, and Mrs. Shelton in Class C.

For tomorrow, Sept. 25, a two-ball foursome has been planned. If you do not know who your partner is, or have not been provided with one, come out and one will be found for you at the first tee. There will be bridge in the afternoon.

Friday, October 2, will be the last meeting of the Tee club for this season. An eighteen hole handicap will be played in the morning, and all scores must be in by one o'clock so that the winners may have their prizes awarded them at luncheon. Even if you can't come for the golf, come for the luncheon and business meeting. Officers for next year are to be elected, some business to be transacted, and various seasonal prizes are to be awarded. It is hoped that everyone will come out.

Please remember to make your reservation for lunch.

The two ball mixed foursome tournament, sponsored by the Tee club, and open to all members of Sunset Valley, which was played last Sunday, was a great success. Over sixty people entered the tournament and nine prizes were awarded at the supper which was served in the club house afterwards. Mrs. Shelton and Mr. Hendricks won low gross; Miss Strenger and Mr. Chambers, Mrs. Hoerlein and Mr. Pritchard, Mrs. Schur and Mr. Meyer tied for low net; Mrs. Jordan and Mr. Brigham had low on Number 8; Mrs. Reeves and Mr. Price had high on Number 8; Mrs. Lucas and Mr. Elwell had low on Number 7; Mr. and Mrs. Davis had high on Number 7; and Mr. and Mrs. Nixon won blind bogey.

THE SCOUT MOVEMENT GUIDING OUR YOUTH

Timely and Interesting Article by Hermann Hegedorn Is Reprinted

The following article by Hermann Hagedorn on "The Scout Movement," is adapted for use here in support of the Girl Scout campaign efforts and will be read with interest by all the friends of this group:

It would be interesting to know, if it were possible to record such elusive things, how many thousands of times during these past ten years, elderly folks have watched boys and girls go by in their neat Scout uniforms, and have said to themselves with a pang of regret, "Oh, if there had been Scouts when I was their size!" Oh, if the unorganized, and undirected, lonely childhood they knew had only experienced the galvanizing contact of these sane, simple ideals of vigor and service and joyous fellowship in God's outdoors! How different the story might have been! What shining pages might stand in the place of sombre leaves that memory turns so hurriedly and furtively!

The Scout movement is a benediction to boys and girls alike, a gift to a distracted and harried world so opportune, so needed, that even one who was sceptical regarding the intervention of the deity in man's daily affairs might be tempted to suspend his doubts and speak of Providence.
