

ANNUAL CONVENTION, GRAYSLAKE, OCT. 1ST

Religious Education Group to Meet in Annual Session; Good Program

A general invitation is extended to all officers, teachers and workers of the church schools of Lake county to attend the annual convention of religious education at Grayslake Thursday, Oct. 1. A big program has been planned, outstanding speakers have been secured and the good people at Grayslake extend a hearty welcome to all who are interested in the educational work of the church. Dr. Arthur Holt and Prof. Guy Nelson, who will be the morning speakers, will deal with the specific problems that exist in the suburban, city, small town and rural districts of Lake county. The information that these men will bring will be of great value to every citizen of this county. Their message will be an eye-opener to many. The following schedule will be carried out:

REV. F. A. LINDHORST

Morning - Methodist Church
8:30 Registration; 9:30 worship service.
9:45 Dr. Arthur E. Holt, "Fitting Religious Education into Suburban and City Life."
10:30 Discussion.
10:45 Prof. Guy Nelson, "Fitting Religious Education into Rural and Small Town Life."
11:30 Discussion; 11:45 announcements.
12:00 Luncheon at the Congregation Church.

Religion of a Farmer

There is more at work in this universe than atoms and electrons; intelligence, purposefulness, good will are at the heart of the universe.—The Country Home.

Old-Fashioned New Yorkers

In a city as sophisticated as New York there are still 100,000 people who put on red flannels in winter to keep rheumatism away.—Woman's Home Companion.

A miniature model of the famous "Outlook Pagoda" in Chi-li Province, China, is on exhibition in the department of anthropology at Field Museum of Natural History. The original pagoda is 360 feet tall, being the highest that has survived in good condition in China. It has walls fifteen feet thick and was built in the Sung period, 960-1280 A.D. The museum's model was made in the Chinese orphanage at Sik-kawei.
