

DEBUTANTES PRESENTED AT TEAS, SATURDAY

Miss Gwendolyn Juergens (left front) and Miss Peggy Glidden, with their mothers, Mrs. Paul Juergens and Mrs. Henry L. Glidden (standing behind them) as they appeared at party.

Miss Welthyan Harmon as she appeared at her debut party Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bornhoff of Chicago visited their aunt, Mrs. J. C. Huehl on Thursday.

On Friday evening, Oct. 2, the annual fellowship dinner will be held at the Bethlehem Evangelical church. Sunday, Oct. 4 is to be observed as Rally day at the church with appropriate services.

The ladies of the St. Paul's church are invited to attend the Northern Illinois District Federation of Evangelical Women in Chicago on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Bethany Evangelical church of which Rev. Dinkmeyer is pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger and two sons Clifford and George were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Buss of Rochester, Wis. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Decker and family are moving from the Milton Frantz home on Deerfield avenue to the apartment one door west, over their plumbing shop.

A garage is being erected on the Milton Frantz property on Deerfield avenue.

Miss Donna Bell Jensen will have charge of the Girl Reserves at the Wilmot school. Last year Miss Berniece Rybolt was their leader.

Mrs. Arnold Keller entertained the Just Sew club last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. William J. Kreh will be the next hostess.

Deccas Circle One met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. George Pettis of North Waukegan road.

Frank Plagge of Barrington was a Sunday guest at the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Plagge of Elm street.

Miss Irene Evenson was a guest at the Ernest Schroeder home in Half Day last Sunday. Miss Evenson taught there before coming to Deerfield.

Mrs. Irving Brand will be hostess to the Tuesday Evening Sewing club next week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok, Miss Irene Rockenbach and Mr. Arthur Merner attended the Deerfield-Shields Township Religious Education convention at the Lake Forest Methodist church on Sunday. This is District one. In years past, each township has had its own meeting, but now the county is divided into five districts. Rev. Piepenbrok delivered the convention address.

Mrs. Sarah Fritsch suffered a slight stroke on Sunday morning. She came to Deerfield several weeks ago from Los Angeles, Calif., to visit her daughter, Mrs. William Koebelin of Forest avenue.

Mrs. Stephen Gerard and two daughters, Mary Turpin and Nancy, returned to their home in Terrace Park, Ohio, last Wednesday, after a several weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Gerard's brother, Mr. Seth M. Gooder of Deerfield avenue.

Don't forget the rummage sale sponsored by the Deerfield P. T. on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3.

Mrs. Ray D. Reeds will entertain her club at luncheon at the Deerfield Ave. Tea room on Tuesday, followed by bridge at her home on Orchard lane.

Mrs. George Ott entertained her circle of the St. Paul's church on Monday afternoon at her home on Forest avenue.

Delegates are to be selected soon to attend the denominational rally and convention on Thursday, Oct. 1 in Chicago, for the Bethlehem Evangelical church members.

Highland Park Locals

Mrs. Louise McClernan and two daughters have taken an apartment in the Udell building from October 1.

The Misses Mary and Winifred Cullen and Catherine Geary entertained at a beach party last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Livingston of 521 Walnut street, Winnetka, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. Leonard C. Levy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levy of 1216 Hyde Park boulevard. Miss Livingston attended the National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Livingston will be at home to their friends in honor of their daughter on Sunday, Sept. 27.

Miss Martha Rapp of North Second street is spending this week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd of Terre Haute, Ind.

Mrs. William Rapp returned to her home in the Udell building last Saturday from a three weeks visit with her parents in Fairbury, Ill.

Victor Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, Jr., left last Thursday for St. Mary's Seminary at Mundelein, to study for the priesthood. Victor was a member of the St. James church in Highwood and has been closely associated for several years with the good pastor there, Father Holly. An informal reception was held at the rectory the morning of his departure, when he received many good wishes for his success and happiness from Father Holly and a number of his friends.

Mrs. J. G. Fiddler and son, Raymond H. Fiddler, were visitors in Hinsdale, a week ago Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert M. Lautmann of 834 Linden avenue was hostess to the members of the Highland Park Music club, yesterday (Wednesday).

Miss Helen Leuer of Homewood avenue left Monday to enter her junior year at Webster college, Webster Groves, Mo.

Miss Leona Rapp has just recently returned from a week spent in Terre Haute, Indiana, with her sister, Mrs. Paul Rudd.

The man who first tried to sell cement for use in building concrete roads was laughed at and called a fool.—American Magazine.

Deerfield Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman and three children of Whitefish Bay, Wis., spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. J. C. Willman of Chestnut street.

Mrs. William Schinleber, who has spent the past two weeks visiting at the C. E. Huhn and E. H. Selig homes in Deerfield and at the Arnold home in LaGrange, returned to Whitefish Bay, with her daughter, Mrs. Ethan Willman, on Sunday.

The St. Paul's church school worker's conference met last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer. The next meeting, which is the first Tuesday evening in October, is to be held at the church. The parents are to be invited to discuss the possibilities of organizing a Parent-Teacher association for St. Paul's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart are living at the G. F. Beardsley house on Osterman avenue. Mr. Hart is director of physical education in the Elm Place school, in Highland Park.

Miss Barbara Huehl went on a hike to Thatchers Woods with a group of young people from Chicago on Sunday.

Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church in Lake Forest on Sunday evening at the request of Reverend Billman.

Marley School of Music

HIGHLAND PARK & WINNETKA, ILL.

Prices begin at $1.50 weekly and include one private and one class lesson

Phones Highland Park 1138 Winnetka 3012

LECTING IN STATE

f Game Birds al Is Made nor

f hen pheasants, ue either to the ent of conserva- ssembly, contin- is as sportsmen alton league at- shooting to a g hens expired n gunners have in large num- such thing as a in the opinion l Oscar Carl-

Dept.

Attorney George ervey Coulson, led to the resi- be good sports- e birds, blamed arge of the de- ation, says the e should have d out, a law to ng Sept. 15.

y game warden ea, came to the

He declared prepared a bill ts but that the of his proposals made appoint-

cock pheasants ns are killed off ed

governor hard J. Lyons s L. Emmerson ve the matter ecial session of will be too late have killed off them.

and writer for ag and fishing, o do anything op the slaugh-

re made Satur- es and in some of these was rs were in the nd and the bay regular hunting rstood, because the kill.

te to

October 1, 2

al Farmers In- wn great crowds last week were meeting at the undelein, where anson, of Liber- C. Petty, coun- ent, was present noid the first Farm October 1 ke Zurich Octofor the annual 1 and 2. Rural munities are to programs are the children by