Call Attention to Postal Rate Change

So many in Deerfield are still unaware of the change in postal rates to Canada and Great Britain, that Assistant Postmaster William Cruickshank calls attention to the fact that letters to Great Britain now require a five cent stamp and a post card needs a three cent stamp. Letters to Canada must have a three cent stamp and a post card a two cent stamp.

Chas. Kapschull Is Honored at Dinner

Members of the American Legion from all parts of Lake county attended a testimonial dinner on Friday evening in honor of Charles C. Kapschull of Deerfield, retiring Eighth District commander, held in Libertyville. Following the dinner was the monthly Lake County council meeting of the American Legion.

Many Hear Fine Talk on Russia Tuesday

Mr. Lewis Hildebrand, biology teacher at New Trier high school, spoke on "Russia" to a very appreciative audience, Tuesday evening, at the Deerfield Grammar school. He told of life in that vast country, as he saw it, traveling in many of its places on a twenty-one day trip, in company with nine other Americans, illustrating his narration with pictures he and his companions had taken.

This very fine speaker had been brought to Deerfield by the Deerfield Woman's club. It was an open meeting and the president, Mrs. Walter Metcalf, turned the evening over to the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. C. C. Kapschull, who introduced the speaker.

Following Mr. Hildebrand's talk was an open forum where a great many joined in asking questions pertaining to many phases of this country and its government.

Junior Baseball Team Attend League Game

Members of the Junior American Legion baseball team, who won the Eighth District championship attended the Cubs game in Chicago on Monday through the courtesy of the president of the Chicago Cubs, and were given fine grandstand seats. Twelve of the fifteen boys were excused from classes at school and attended the game, accompanied by their athletic director E. G. Jacobson and Messrs. Russell Potterton, Philip Scully Jr., and Walter Lange, Sr.
