Important Factor

Through the untiring efforts of a small group of interested mothers the Girl Scout movement has continued to become a more and more important part of our community life here in Highland Park.

The international organization of Girl Scouts is doing much towards the development of better womanhood and we feel that our own girls should be given every opportunity to avail themselves of this inexhaustible storehouse of bright, clean ideas and ideals.

Those of you with daughters will find in the Girl Scouts a safe, democratic group of girls eagerly waiting to welcome your children. To the parents of boys we can assure you that a sincere Girl Scout is certain to make a better wife.

... and so through the growth of the Girl Scouts we sincerely believe that our whole community can and will become just a little better place in which to live and on this basis we hope you will read carefully the rest of this little message.

Sincerely yours,

Highland Park Community Committee
Mrs. Robert E. Clark, chairman;
Mrs. Harold M. White, vice-chairman;
Mrs. Byron C. Howes, secretary; Mrs. E. E. Mellinger, treasurer; Mrs. Jacob S. Weinberg, Mrs. William D. McDonald, Mrs. Frank J. Coghill, Mrs. David R. Clarke, Mrs. Russell T. Gray, Mrs. Benedict K. Goodman.

Who are the Girl Scouts?
What do they stand for?
Why do they accomplish their purpose?

Girl Scouts are the coming womanhood of America. Future citizens, homemakers, wives and mothers, representing the backbone of our civilization.

A non-sectarian international organization with regularly established community committees all over the world.

Perhaps the best answer to what the Girl Scouts stand for is found in their promise:

"On my honor I will try to do my duty to God and my country. To help other people at all times and to obey the Girl Scout laws."

And now let's see what these laws are:

1. A Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted.
2. A Girl Scout is loyal.
3. A Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and helpful to others.
4. A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout.
5. A Girl Scout is courteous.
6. A Girl Scout is a friend to animals.
7. A Girl Scout obeys orders.
8. A Girl Scout is cheerful.
9. A Girl Scout is thrifty.
10. A Girl Scout is clean in thought and deed.

The admission will be nominal, and the performance will as usual be given twice, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 8 and 9, in the assembly room of the Y.W.C.A. at 8:15 p.m.

Details of Exhibit

Details for the exhibit will be entirely managed by committees composed of Highland Park residents, and the models will be selected from among the girls of Highland Park and Ravinia. A complete list of the models will appear in the papers of Oct. 8.
