

OLDFIELD

VOTE OCT. 10

ication Plans to
unds to Give
oyed Work

o permit the high
education to erect a
r athletic field will
y, Oct. 10, from 10
the following poll-
building of the high
Park; Oak Terrace
l Village House,
Lake Forest; and
field. The building
ut of surplus funds
hands, with no bond
increase. The elec-
y school law which
ry upon boards of
re a favorable ma-
er to build a school
d. It is said that
s have built field
ilar circumstances
but the Deerfield-
l comply with the
by its attorney.

Is Needed
e athletic field is
iding virility, char-
among the thirteen
At this season of
ernoon over a hun-
playing football,
laying soccer, the
are full, and foot-
being held there
on page 27)

ition at
chool Is
Series, Plan

obson, well known
at Deerfield, an-
ing that the first
teur boxing bouts
e Deerfield Gram-
ursday night. The
at 8 o'clock, cen-

be on the opening
the best available
glove exchanging.
lers are:
aukegan.

North Chicago.
orest.
nview.
neider, Waukegan
nd several others
he ropes to match
g scrappers from

sluggers, boxers
e Deerfield arena
winter indoor sea-

ton, who has an-
ney's fights will
r Jackson's show
nted.

le Meets
hered with their
of this week to Illinois history
uax. As there
nthusiasm, this
ill meet once a
nter. Next date
place, the home
Rogers in Lake
H. A. Babcock
welcome.

UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY

TO OWN a fine new home at less than present day cost—heavily wooded lot—212' frontage—centrally located in Highland Park approximately two blocks from lake.

DEPRESSION-PROOF INVESTMENT—Normal land equity practically equivalent to asking price including proposed house illustrated above. Improvements as shown indicate possibilities.

Fifteen thousand cash necessary to handle above—balance convenient modest monthly payments over ten-year period to responsible party, or will accept improved property not exceeding $20,000 on basis of today's valuation towards purchase price.

If desirous of enjoying the benefits of living in a fine home on a beautiful lot, in one of the choicest locations on the North Shore, communicate with undersigned for further particulars.

H. AND R. Anspach

386 CENTRAL AVENUE

REALTORS

HIGHLAND PARK 1212