

MEETING CITY COUNCIL

Night Devoted Routine Business

g of the city council was mostly business. All members...

Plan Activities at House Oct. 5

f autumn weather interest is being shown in the Ravinia men's sports through the clubs...

Party at Loraine Hotel

the card party Wednesday afternoon at the Loraine hotel by the Auxiliary of the church...

PRESS CLUB FALL PROGRAM

Above is pictured the Boy Scout editors for the various districts of the North Shore Area Council Press Club. These scouts met Tuesday, Aug. 22 to lay plans for their fall and winter program of news writing, journalistic studies and press club activities...

Front row—Dave Roberts, Glencoe; Ambrose Cantagallo, Highwood; Jack Osborn, Libertyville; Charles Dunlap, Winnetka; Bill Lehle, president, Wilmette. Back row—David Stryker, Deerfield; James Ewell, Highland Park; Kenneth Vetter, Deerfield; Frank Appleyard, Glenview; Woodrow Wilson, Northbrook; Allen Hokenson, Lake Forest.

Deerfield Locals

Mrs. Ward Gauntlett entertained her club at luncheon on Wednesday at the Deerfield Ave. Tea room, followed by bridge at her home.

A group of sixteen people surprised Mr. Robert Johnson on Friday evening at his home in Brier Hill in honor of his birthday anniversary. It was a costume party.

Members of the Deerfield Gun club were invited to a post season three league clay bird classic shoot on Sunday, Sept. 27 at the Elgin Trap and Gun club. The leagues included in the shoot were the Tri-Country, Alex Vance and Northern Illinois leagues.

Girls of the Marion club met Monday evening at the Holy Cross parish hall.

The Junior troop of the Deerfield Girl Scouts will leave at 2:30 on Saturday afternoon for a hike to Camp Oak, with their leader, Mrs. V. W. Spriggs. They will have a "weenie" roast.

Last Saturday the Senior troop of the Girl Scouts had a steak fry, following their hike to Camp Oak, accompanied by their leader, Mrs. C. J. Davis.

Mrs. C. E. Piper, president of the Deerfield Parent-Teacher association and Mrs. H. C. Howes, chairman of the program committee, met at the Deerfield-Shields high school on Thursday afternoon with other presidents and program chairmen of the various Parent-Teacher associations, whose schools send children to the local high school. The purpose of the delegation was to plan for a joint meeting of all the P. T. A.'s, to be held Thursday evening, Oct. 29 at the Elm Place school in Highland Park. Dr. Harold O. Rugg, professor of education at the Teacher's college of Columbia university, will deliver the address, and the people of Deerfield are invited to attend. Dr. Rugg's subject is to be, "Aims and Functions of the Secondary School."

Mrs. Henry Schneider passed away early Sunday morning at her home on North Chestnut street, following a week's illness, due to a stroke. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the house with Rev. E. J. Bruso officiating. Burial was in North Northfield cemetery. She is survived by a son Harry, of Northfield, and a daughter Mrs. Malcolm Hans, who lived at home. Mr. Schneider passed away several years ago.

William Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hansen of Bannockburn, who has attended Shattuck Military academy at Fairbault, Minn. for four years, has entered Lake Forest college.

William Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harrison of Bannockburn, is attending Lake Forest academy this year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cruickshank and children visited at the Henry Watt home in Aurora on Sunday.

James G. Russell of Rosemary terrace was among the forty-three Boy Scout leaders, who received certificates of award toward a Scoutmaster's Key for work at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan, this past summer.

Misses Hazel Miller, Jean Nygard, Margaret Hunt and Genevieve Card, teachers at the Deerfield Grammar school, and Miss Donna Belle Jensen of the Wilmot school are to be advisors of the Girl Reserves clubs for this coming year. A dinner is planned for Monday evening, Oct. 5, to draft plans for the annual schedule of activities.

Mrs. J. R. Notz was hostess to the Areme club on Friday evening at her home on Knollwood drive.

Mrs. D. E. Wageck and two children have returned from Ames, Iowa, where they spent the summer. Mrs. Wageck will resume her position as organist at St. Paul's church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson entertained at two tables of bridge Saturday evening at their home on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey, Ill., were week-end guests at the Fred Meyer home.

Miss Alice Eads has entered her fourth year at Loretto academy, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and two daughters, Shirley and Roberta, were the guests of Mr. Blaine's mother in Franklin Grove, Ill., over Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Kruse is seriously ill at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. H. Selig. A trained nurse is in attendance. Miss Anna Kruse of Chicago, a sister, is also staying at the Selig home.

The Comstock family has moved from Mrs. E. J. Long's apartment to Hazel avenue. Mrs. Comstock is Mrs. Mary Hastings' daughter.

Miss Elizabeth Weimer of Chicago spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Dan Hunt.

The Weinstock family of Wilmette has moved into the house on Warrington road formerly occupied by the Leo Wolterdijngs. Mr. and Mrs. Wolterding and children have moved to the W. W. Geary house in Brier Hill. The Knights, who lived in the Geary house, moved away over a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woods of Springfield avenue had as their week-end guests, Dr. and Mrs. Lyon of Chicago.

Mrs. Elmer Hoffman spent last Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradley of Arcady road, Rondout.

Miss Velma Pottegger returned to her home in Momenece, Ill. on Sunday, after a visit at the home of her father, Marshall Pottenger, of Elm street.

Drugs advertisement for Robert W. Pease, Pharmacist. Includes an illustration of a Chinese physician and text: 'When a Chinese Physician could not procure medicines necessary for a Prescription, he would write the names of the drugs he needed on a piece of paper and then force the patient to swallow it. Today, we can furnish physicians with all known chemicals and drugs for their scientific prescriptions. Where Science and Ethics Reign. ROBERT W. PEASE, Pharmacist. Free Delivery including Sunday. Opposite Chicago North Western Station. Phone 144.'

Pillow Special advertisement for Reliable Laundry and Dry Cleaning Co. Text: 'Pillow Special 3 for $1.00 From October 5 to October 17 YOUR Thoroughly Washed and Dried Pillows NEED LAUNDERING Returned Sweet Plump and Fluffy by Our special aerating process restores former plumpness. RELIABLE LAUNDRY and DRY CLEANING CO. Oldest Business Concern in Highland Park Phone H. P. 178 618 North Green Bay Road'