The country over the churches are sounding the note of Evangelism. Present day moral and religious indifference challenges the churches to a united effort to bring the American people to the acceptance of Christ whose rule of life and moral and spiritual principles are the cure for all ills of life.

St. Paul's Evangelical church will join with the other churches of Deerfield in an Evangelistic effort to create a deeper spirituality and religious loyalty to Christ and the church. St. Paul's Evangelical church welcomes you to its service of worship.

Fall Communion and reception of members, Sunday, Oct. 11.

October, in this congregation, is the season of preparation for the United Spiritual Program in the Presbytery of Chicago and co-operating churches. This program, first of all, calls upon the membership of the churches to crowd their places of worship. This is a sacred responsibility and obligation that rests upon those who claim membership in the church. Let us venture great things for God and expect great things from God. Be present next Sunday morning and hear the first message of the United Spiritual Program.
