

GIRL SCOUTS DRIVE

Through the tireless efforts of trained leaders these "laws" are taught the girls through play and work and thus they gain a further knowledge of honesty, purity, vigor, and the love of all that is good and true. And of even greater importance the girls are taught how to put all of this into everyday practical living.

National Officers

Honorary president, Mrs. Herbert Hoover; president, Mrs. Frederick Edey; treasurer, Mrs. Edgar Rickard; chairman board of directors, Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady; national director, Miss Josephine Schain.

Every well run business or organization must have a definite plan of operation and an efficient head. No organization however worthy can hope to accomplish its full measure of usefulness without these fundamentals.

The Girl Scout movement in Highland Park for the past few years although guided by volunteers has made much progress but it is now necessary to hire a paid director to carry on the important work.

The local committee have given careful thought in establishing a budget for the coming year and in order that you may know how the money is to be spent we present the figures here:

Mrs. Robert E. Clark
Local director	$1,400
Instruction for captains	200
Special instructors for troops	100
Troop equipment	200
Secretarial expense	200

The parents and friends of all the Girl Scouts are urged to attend these rallies and see in a very small way what their girls are striving toward. Moving pictures of Camp Hickory Hill will be given at each rally. Come and see your daughter as she is in camp.

Girl Scouts Are Home Makers

Girl Scouts are trained to be home makers—to create a refuge from the world's frets which will be something more than a house filled with furniture. Every woman knows of the myriad roles that the wife and mother may be called upon to fill in a single day.

The little ministries of the home require that she be cook, laundress, nurse, doctor, teacher, seamstress, milliner, plumber, carpenter, furnace man, gardner, barber and chauffeur. Girl Scouts are equipped to discharge such tasks with enthusiasm. When a Girl Scout helps a district nurse to bath babies she not only learns the technique of infant hygiene, but acquires a sense of community responsibility.

Girl Scouts study handicrafts weaving, painting and nature lore. The immediate reward is the proficiency badge, but unconsciously these girls are getting a many-sided experience, gaining courage and mother-wit to meet every day emergencies—a sudden nose-bleed or an unexpected guest. They are laying the foundations for smooth-running, cheerful homes.

DESCRIBE WELFARE CLINIC AT HOSPITAL

Dr. McNeal gives his time to direct the feeding of the babies. Miss Fyffe, who started with the clinic in 1925, is still helping; Mrs. O'Hare, also a pioneer in the work here, continues to aid. Miss Schofield who started in 1925, is assisting and has done so at intervals from the beginning. Miss Harmon and Miss Melody are also assistants. Mrs. John Huhnke, the city nurse, aids in instructing mothers in regard to carrying out directions in feeding of young babies and makes home calls on new mothers to aid them in this important matter.

Dr. McNeal was introduced by Dr. Grover Q. Grady, and his talk was heard with deep interest by the members present.

school. Dr. A. J. Harms, a member of the faculty of the Northern Baptist Seminary, will teach the course of the New Testament. Dr. Harms is chairman of the adult education for the Chicago Council of Religious Education.

The course in story telling for teachers of primary, junior, and intermediate children will be taught by Miss Lucile Desjardine who is on the faculty of the Presbyterian Training school in Chicago. She has also been one of the teachers in a special experiment in religious teaching which has been conducted in the Lake View district of the Chicago public schools. Miss Nelle Wieley recently helped Dr. Fred Eastman put on the all-Chicago drama tournament for church young people's groups. The finals were held in the Goodman Memorial theater. Miss Wieley will teach the course in sacred drama and pageantry.

Missionary Education

The course in missionary education in the church school will be taught by Mrs. H. S. Bechtolt. Mrs. Bechtolt is the chairman of mission study for the United Lutheran Board of Women. She has taught for the past eight years during the summer at Lake Geneva. There is no doubt that Dean Siemsen has secured the best teachers in Chicago for these courses. Look for further word about the training school next week.

CHINDBLOM EXPLAINS P. O. BUILDING STATUS

23d instant with reference to the proposed new post office building at Highland Park. I believe you understand the present situation in this matter. Highland Park is listed for a post office or Federal building under the public building program outside the District of Columbia proposed under the $415,000,000 authorization contained in the acts approved May 25, 1926, Feb. 24, 1928, March 31, 1930, and Feb. 16, 1931. Out of this authorization the amount of $150,000 has been allocated to be appropriated for a building in Highland Park.

"The appropriation has not yet been made but will have to be made by Congress in an appropriation bill. The Interdepartmental committee makes recommendations for appropriations to Congress and these form bases for enumeration of items in each Treasury Department appropriation. Necessarily, the appropriation items are distributed throughout the country and somewhat in order of urgent necessity. The recommendations of the Interdepartmental committee are submitted to the Bureau of the Budget and subsequently by the President to the Congress at the opening of each session.

"It has frequently happened that the original survey did not make a sufficient estimate of the cost of a project included in the Federal building program. This has been the case particularly in cities and towns located, as is Highland Park, in an area where real estate values are much higher than might be expected of a community of its population. In such cases the Interdepartmental committee should make a new survey and I am requesting that this be done, in view of your conclusion that the appropriation should be increased from $150,000 to $200,000. I am of course recommending that this increase be made. I am very anxious to do everything within my power to promote the erection of an adequate building in Highland Park."

Yours very truly,
"Carl R. Chindblom"

TAG DAY MONDAY

Monday, Oct. 5 is Tag Day. On that day thousands of enthusiastic women will be busily tagging from early in the morning until six that evening, throughout Chicago and all her suburbs. For 22 years the Children's Benefit league, which is sponsored by 50 children's charities, has been running tag days—and successful tag days. Last year over $96,000 was collected on Tag Day—a fine day's work. This year our goal is $100,000 which means that we are counting on every person to help the people of the north shore loyalty support Tag Day, and by its generosity has made it possible for the charities to carry on their vital work. This year the demands are far greater. The needy children must be cared for, the charities are determined they shall not fail them. Please remember this on Monday, Oct. 5 when you are asked to "buy a tag for the children" and give them your utmost support.

The Social Service club of the Ravinia Women's club is supplying taggers in Highland Park for the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society.
