

BRAND BROS. FIRM 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Business Established Here in 1871 by Geo. L. and S. P.
Brand; History

Brand Brothers, painters and decorators, are this month celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of their business in Highland Park and are marking the important event by offering a ten per cent discount on all cash purchases made from them during the month of October, details of which appear in their advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

This firm has been in business, fathers and sons, for 60 years in this city, making it the oldest business house in continuous operation under the same family management in Highland Park. Two of its employes have been with the firm for 40 years, each, and the others from six to 15 years, each.

In all these years the name of Brand Brothers has stood for quality in merchandise and service and square dealing with the public, and the splendid reputation which it has built up and the widespread patronage which it has enjoyed through the years indicate its popularity
(Continued on page 8)

Winners in Football Ticket Contest Are Announced; Another

Winners in the Highland Park Press free football tickets contest who set in the nearest correct total scores of the college games played Saturday, Oct. 3 have been selected by the judges from the many entered in the contest. The two giving nearest correct figures will receive each a pair of tickets to the Northwestern-Notre Dame game, and the next three nearest correct will each receive two tickets to the Alcyon theatre. The winners reported by the judges are:

Football tickets—J. M. Murphy, 1302 Jackson avenue, and Miss Helen Morrison, Briar Lane, Highland Park.

Alcyon tickets—E. C. Schweitzer, Jr., Highland Park; Virginia Drake, Ravinia court; Mary Cullen, 541 W. Vine avenue.

In this issue of the Press another two-page advertisement by local merchants and the Northwestern university contains names of football teams which play Oct. 17. The two nearest correct total scores for these games will win a pair of tickets, each, to the Northwestern university of California game, Nov. 17, and the three next nearest will get two tickets, each, to the Alcyon theatre.

Reliable Laundry Delivery Interrupted

The Reliable Laundry's delivery service is in difficulty for a few days and until the situation is straightened out the public is asked to bear with them. This condition has arisen through union officials trying to organize a drivers' union. New drivers are being secured. Old drivers will be permitted to return if they will accept the same working basis.

GIRL SCOUT COMMUNITY COMMITTEE OF HIGHLAND PARK

Photo by Hecketsweiler

Center—Mrs. Robert E. Clark. Top row—Mrs. Jacob S. Weinberg, Mrs. Byron C. Howes, Mrs. E. E. Mellinger, Mrs. Harold M. White, Mrs. David R. Clarke. Below—Mrs. Russell T. Gray, Mrs. William D. McDonald, Mrs. William H. Stockwell, Mrs. Benedict K. Goodman, Mrs. Frank J. Coghill.

Results of Sunset Valley Golf Club Charity Tourney

In the charity tournament at Sunset Valley Golf club October 4 winners were: low gross (men) Kenneth Hill; (women) Mrs. C. G. Elwell; low net (men) R. O. Gossett; (women) Miss Caesera Ronzani; blind bogey (76) Mrs. Donald James.

The tournament netted $187 collected and $8 still to be turned in. This amount is deposited in a bank to the credit of the Sunset Valley charity fund and will be paid out to deserving families upon approval of a committee appointed for the purpose.

Winners of other prizes in connection with the tournament are listed by number at the club house and holders of tickets should apply there to determine title to the awards.

First Meeting Green Bay P.T.A. Oct. 21st

The first meeting of this year of the Green Bay Road school P. T. A. is to be held on Wednesday, October 21, at 8 p.m. in the kindergarten. It is to be a general welcome and get-acquainted meeting, planned particularly for all mothers new to the school this year, who are to be guests of honor. Mr. Jesse Smith will give one of his interesting talks, and Mrs. Danley, the president of the Elm Place P.T.A. will give an address of welcome, as will Mrs. Worth, chairman of Green Bay P. T. A. There will also be music and a "Kaffee Klotch," and it is earnestly hoped that all members will make a special effort to be present.

Social Committee of Ravinia Woman's Club Entertained Wednesday

Mrs. Charles R. Perrigo entertained the social committee of the Ravinia Women's club at tea, at her home on Wednesday afternoon when they met to discuss plans for the year's activities. A dinner dance will be given at the Village House on November 7, a detailed announcement of which will be in next week's paper. There is to be a fine orchestra, a good dinner and entertainment, and tables will be arranged to accommodate those having parties. The dance will be formal.

High School Faculty and Students to Give Carnival for Relief

For the benefit of the relief fund of the families of the unemployed in this district, the faculty and students of the Deerfield-Shields high school will give a carnival in the gymnasium of the school on October 31. Donations will be solicited for the booths, and contributions will be gladly accepted. Save your pennies to buy at bargain prices.

West Ridge Club to Hold Card Party

The West Ridge Community club is giving a progressive card party at the school, Saturday evening, Oct. 10 at 8:15. Bridge and 500 will be played, prizes awarded, and delicious refreshments served. The public is cordially invited to attend. The new officers of the club for the year are: President, A. E. Peterson; vice president, John L. Mitchell; secretary, C. E. Thorney; treasurer, Mrs. William Rectenwald.

GIRL SCOUT DRIVE BEGINS THIS WEEK

Seek to Raise $2,500 in Initial Campaign Here; Leaders of Group

With the appointment of Mrs. William H. Stockwell as full time director of Highland Park Girl Scouts, leaders of the movement inaugurated their first public drive for funds this week in an effort to raise $2,500.

Mrs. Robert E. Clark, chairman, and the following members of the community committee, captain of teams for an house-to-house canvass of the entire city:

Officers Named

Mrs. Harold H. White, vice chairman; Mrs. Byron C. Howes, secretary; Mrs. E. E. Mellinger, treasurer; Mrs. Jacob S. Weinberg, Mrs. William D. McDonald, Mrs. Frank J. Coghill, Mrs. David R. Clarke, Mrs. Russell T. Gray and Mrs. Benedict K. Goodman.

Formerly Girl Scout troops in the community were sponsored and supported by mothers interested in the organization.

The work of supervision has now outgrown volunteer leadership and the appointment of a full time director has necessitated a public
(Continued on page 36)

Mannings Home Is Damaged by Fire; Lightning Cause

The residence of John M. Mannings, 1016 Oak street, was struck by lightning during the electrical storm of Tuesday afternoon, the resulting fire causing several hundreds of dollars damage in the attic of the house. Mrs. Manning, who is director of orchestral music at Deerfield-Shields high school, was at the school, and Mr. Manning, who is connected with the Public Service Co. was also absent from home when the fire broke out. Neighbors discovered the blaze and called the fire department. The firemen were able to extinguish the flames by the use of chemical, without having to resort to water. Before the arrival of the firemen John L. Udell, who lives next door north, broke in the door and carried out a quantity of clothing from the upper part of the house threatened by the flames.

Local Residents to Spend Winter at Moraine Hotel

Several of our prominent citizens, anticipating a hard, cold winter have decided to close their houses and move to the Moraine hotel, among them Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Willets, Mrs. E. B. MacKenzie and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Miller and daughter, while several other families are considering such a change. The indications are that there will be a considerably larger number of guests at the Moraine during the coming winter than usual.

MRS. MERRILL LECTURE

First of a Series
H. P. Womans
Current

Mrs. Anthony give the first in a series of lectures on Current Affairs on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Moraine Hotel. This is the first lecture in the series.

To those who have attended the lecture of Mrs. Merrill, it has been both interesting and profitable by her teaching. The lecture was planned by the department of the Moraine Hotel as chairman of the department with Mrs. Easton as chairman and the lecture and the lecture and the lecture attending these season there were store for them.

The Home and the Home are open to the public and the course of Mrs. Easton on committee. It obtained at the lecture house.

French

On Tuesday, the lecture of the lecture given under the lecture and the lecture advanced course and the lecture Revolution and the lecture interest in France.

The intermediate lecture of the lecture and the lecture o'clock and read the lecture and the lecture Fairy Tales."

These classes are given to the public as well as to the members and the members are under the Home and Education which Mrs. Florence is chairman. An interest is being given to the classes and the their friends are of the opportunity of M. Jean.

Perry Dunlop to Address of

The meeting of the ent-Teacher association addressed Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the lecture hall by Perry Dunlop of the Northwestern school of Wisconsin will be "The Development of the Family and the Family."

As an educator, he has achieved an international reputation, particularly in the progressive movement. He has a dynamic personality which keeps one's interest throughout the lecture. The Braeside association feel it is in securing Mrs. Dunlop that the meeting will be a large attendance. Accordingly, interested to a