Opportunity Offered
For Child Study at Night School Class

A remarkable opportunity for child study is offered to parents in Highland Park, according to an announcement made yesterday by the child study committee of the Deerfield-Shields P. T. A.

Two study groups, one beginning and one advanced, will be conducted this year under the direction of the P. T. A. It is the plan to offer these courses in connection with the night school, held Monday and Wednesday evenings of each week from 7:30 to 9:30 at the high school.

Mr. Burton Ballard, of the English department, will lead the beginning group on Monday evening and Mr. H. D. Richardson, the new psychologist at the high school, will give the advanced course on Wednesday evening.

Registration for the beginning group will be Monday evening, Oct. 12, at 7:30 o'clock at the high school and that for the advanced group on Wednesday evening, Oct. 14, at 7:30.

It is promised that the discussions will be intensely practical and of real value to the parents who participate in them. The courses are open to all parents whether of children of high school age or otherwise.

Scientific tests are to be made to determine whether the American continent is moving toward or away from Europe. Statesmen have been trying to discover something of the kind for quite a spell.—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

Has Standard Troop Leader

The success of Troop 33 of the Highland Park Lincoln school in the past few years is based largely on the active adult leadership behind its organization. The troop recently received national recognition through the "Scouting Magazines" for having organized a unique scouting ceremony. The troop is seven years old and now has 27 scouts, 15 of whom are first class. Including the scoutmaster and one assistant there are six eagle scouts in 33. The troop leadership is shown above. Every one of the men are very active in promoting their troop. Their sponsoring troop committee is organized according to the standard five-men plan, each man with a definite duty. All the committeemen as well as the scoutmaster and commissioner, are fathers of boys in the troop.

Back row: Frank S. Wichman Sr., assistant district commissioner; R. B. Anderson, troop committee chairman A. Judson Wells, thrift member of troop committee; W. F. Nelson, advisory member of troop committee; Don McLellan, outdoor member of troop committee; D. H. Davis, education member of troop committee.

Highwood Team Wins
Sunday; Play Evanston
News-Index Oct. 11th

Highwood started its football season off with a bang last Sunday by defeating the Amos A. A. 12 to 0. Their first touchdown was made by ine plunging Johnson, Cronhite and Berhens carrying the ball down to the 10 yard line where Johnson sliced off tackle for the first score of the game. A great defensive game was played, Highwood holding the Amos A. A. for six first downs. The Amos A. A.'s launched a forward passing attack which drove Highwood back into their own territory time after time only to have the Highwood line hold them for four downs.

Next Sunday Highwood plays the Evanston News-Index at the Highwood field. Evanston last year were champions of the Mid-Western league and have strengthened their team this year by adding many of the former Washington Park stars. Highwood is playing heavyweight football this year, men on both teams being over 175 pounds. Game to be called at 2:30.

Hold Delightful Party

Last week Tuesday evening, the teacher of the Oak Terrace school gave a very delightful party for the members of the school board and their wives and the officers of the Parent - Teacher association and their wives and husbands. A variety of games were played at tables, and various stunts were put on by the teachers during intermissions between games. Delicious refreshments were served.

Thousands Entering This Novel Contest

Five hundred dollars in gold—free ice cream for a year—184 separate prizes—these are the highlights of the sensational $1,000 Hydrox Ice Cream Question Game contest—a new fun making guessing game.

Can you think of a novel way to serve ice cream? If so, and you can answer five other simple, easy questions successfully, you will win one of the many valuable prizes in this novel test of skill in answering questions. Thousands are entering according to the local Hydrox dealer—many just for the fun of it although there are enough prizes to give everybody a chance.

Every Hydrox dealer has full information and entry blanks for this popular "ask me another" game.

N. S. Art League
Opens October 21

The first meeting of the North Shore Art league will be in the form of a reception and an exhibition of painting and sculpture by the members of the league on Wednesday evening, Oct. 21 at Matz Hall Community House, Winnetka. The paintings will be received not later than Saturday, Oct. 17.

A course of four lectures by Dudley Crafts Watson will be given under the auspices of the league in November and December at Community House on Monday nights Nov. 23-30, Dec. 7 and 14.

Lew Sarett to Give Lecture Recital
in Evanston Oct. 27

Lew Sarett, whose latest book "Wings against the moon" became a "best-seller" immediately upon its publication last month and one of the literary sensations of the year, has graciously consented after several years of silence on the north shore to give one of his inimitable recitals in Evanston.

Mr. Sarett is being sponsored by the Chicago Alumnae chapter of Zeta Phi Eta, National Professional Speech Arts fraternity. The Beta active chapter of the Northwestern University School of Speech will assist the Alumnae chapter. Hope Summers, 2238 Sherman avenue, Evanston, president of the Chicago Alumnae chapter and general chairman of arrangements for Lew Sarett's lecture-recital has appointed the following committees:

General ticket sales—Mrs. M. H. Slosson, 720 Simpson.

North Shore ticket sales—Highland Park, Betty Phelps, 275 Prospect avenue.

Glencoe — Mrs. Boyd Anderson, Ridge road.

Winnetka—Helen Limerick Benkert, 887 Ash.

Wilmette — Mrs. Margaret S. Plympton, 1024 Central.

Ravinia—June Fellows, 848 Ridge avenue.

Local publicity—Mrs. Ernest R. Jacobs, 1251 Asbury; Mrs. Kenneth DuVall, 1428 Noyes; Chalotte Dakin, N. U. School of Speech.

Newspaper publicity—Thelma B. Yaggy, Evanston Public Library.

Mr. Sarett has been declining offers to speak before all north shore organizations for the past five years and the announcement of his only appearance in this vicinity has brought forth most enthusiastic responses which testify to his popularity as a poet-lecturer. Mr. Sarett will present his program on Tuesday, Oct. 27 in the Haven school auditorium at 8:30. Tickets will be on sale Oct. 19 at Chandler's, Tommy Airth's, Northwestern Co-op, and the School of Speech in Evanston and by members of the North Shore ticket sales committee in the various north shore towns.

Is Prize Winner

In the Skokie Valley Kennel club show at North Brook held Sunday Miss E. T. Coolidge, showing Irish Setters, won first male puppy, first American bred bitch and the winner's ribbon for Irish Setter bitches, carrying three championship points. Her winners were King's Patsy Raneagown and Patsy's son, Shaw of Innisfree.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend sincere and heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement.
