Fehr-Peterson Nuptials

A very pretty and impressive candlelight wedding was solemnized at the Bethlehem Evangelical church, Deerfield, on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Dorothy Mae, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Fehr, became the bride of Harold LeRoy Peterson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Luther Peterson of Beardstown, Ill.

Before the ceremony Miss Elise Oberrauch of Northbrook sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." Two violin solos were rendered by Mr. Carter Christensen of Deerfield.

At the appointed hour, to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Mr. Edgely Todd of Deerfield, the bridal party took their places before an improvised altar of palms, ferns and Indian summer flowers, where the Rev. Earl Brusio read the single ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a princess model of Marilyn satin and wore a veil of tulle with wreath of orange blossoms and Venetian lace. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses, baby's breath and lily of the valley. Her attendants were Miss Margaret Miller of Jacksonville, Ill., as maid of honor, the Misses Arlene and Lois Fehr, sisters of the bride, served as bridesmaids, all being gowned in autumn shades ranging from buttercup yellow to deep russet. Little Constance Koebelin acted as flower girl, wearing a white Moussiline-de-Soi over white satin. Master Willis Johnson preceded the bride, carrying the ring on a white satin pillow. Mr. Reed Shipley of Beardstown, Ill., attended Mr. Peterson as best man. Ushers were Messrs. Herbert and Bruce Frost.

After the ceremony a reception was given in the church parlors. Covers were laid for fifty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are well known in Deerfield and surrounding community. Mr. Peterson having attended Gem City Business college at Quincy, Ill., and is now employed by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois.
