pean port apidly, and his fellow ois Moran rman lens Jean Herig banker, whose necost Herions Hallihis wife, hip is also role por-is reviewt performlois Moran ng as she pictures. her talent e produchows that n a syman exotic

n Halliday of credit mances as , who did ion.

on Dix complained o conquer. KO Radio Defender," same way vie reign, onceivable stick—Infootball pen-space ke. Yancey hters, au-pictures in he Chrisn," "Quar-". "Moran dskin."

o Pictures starred in " "Lovin' Straight," and "The

Aleyon Deerpath Deerpath

RAM

Alcyon Alcyon Deerpath

Deerpath Aleyon

Alcyon Deerpath

Alcyon

Deerpath Deerpath

Aleyon Alcyon Deerpath

Cinema Talk

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1931

Dorothy Mackaill, favorite modernist of the screen, has one of her finest roles in "The Reckless Hour."

Clever Dialogue in

Human interest, drama, silhouetted against settings that are the acme of modernistic splendor, was flashed on the screen when "Lover | The important part of this film Come Back," a Columbia film opened. is the underwater study. It kept the It's clever-it's human-and it's up audience in a perpetual state of to the minute in treatment and excitement and wonder. It is a theme-all about a girl who was startling and fascinating revelation jilted but won in the end. Interest- of the perilous but adventurous exing revelations of how two girls go istence of deep sea divers. after "the man"-one hides under a mask of hypocrisy, pretending to be what she is not—the other, who has the courage of her convictions, dares all for the sake of love fighting against tremendous obstacles. Betty Bronson, who has not been seen on the screen recently, is seen in an excellent character portrayal—that of a hypocritical, mercenary little flirt, who pretends she is the embodiment of all that is sweet and pure in womanhood. Constance Cummings, newcomer to the screen, who gave such fine performances in "The Last Parade" and "The Criminal Code," is cast as a typical modern girl, Fine Portrayals frank and above board in all her. in "A Holy Terror" beliefs and actions.

action moves rapidly. Capable performances are given by the entire cast. Constance Cummings reveals handles the dramatic and carefree sents the adventures of a young soscenes with equal deftness. Jack ciety man in the West where he Mulhall is delightful as Tom Evans. shot his father in New York and

"Fifty Fathoms Deep" Is Stirring Drama

"Fifty Fathoms Deep," a stirring drama of deep sea adventure, is a picture that has human and exciting moments. Under the direction of R. William Neill, the production leaves nothing to be desired in the way of realism and the deep sea shots are not only thrilling but decidedly interesting. The sound effects under water are marvelous. The plot is well developed dramatic-

Briefly, this is what happens. Two deep sea divers, Tim Burke and Pinky Caldwell, are staunch friends in spite of their great difference in age and character. The younger one, Pinky Caldwell, marries a deceitful, gold-digging blonde, believing her to be the model for pure womanhood. She causes a rift between the two pals, making them bitter enemies. They are forced to work together again on a wreck—a yacht which is buried in fifty fathoms of water. Tim descends to the wreck in the midst of a raging storm and discovers the bodies of Pinky's wife and a wellknown man-about-town. In his attempt to hide the evidence and spare his pal he is caught in the wreckage and is unable to free himself. Pinky goes down, not so much to help Tim, as to finish their fight. "Lover Come Back" The sight that greets him when he his wife had framed him, and that Tim was a greater friend than he deserved.

Again Jack Holt comes through with one of his vibrant performances. What a man he makes this Tim Burke-roistering, boistering, but with a heart of gold; brawny but brainy too! Loretta Sayers is thoroughly hateful as Pinky Cladwell's deceitful wife. Although new to the screen, she has mastered a difficult assignment; she plays an unsympathetic character with conviction. Richard Cromwell is splendid as Pinky Caldwell. Don't miss this picture. It packs a real wal-

George O'Brien, originator of nu-The dialogue is clever—and the merous powerful roles in outdoor romances, achieves a notably fine nerformance in Fox Films' "A Holy Terro:."

This screen adaptation of Max herself as a versatile actress - she Brand's best seller, "Trailin'," presearches for the man he believes Credit for excellent direction goes where he falls in love with a beauto Erle C. Kenton. tiful girl.

Perpath Theatre

Telephone 321

POLKA BROS.

Lake Forest

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY RICHARD DIX in "PUBLIC DEFENDER"

OCTOBER 8-9

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10

Continuous 2 to 11

ER COME BACK

Betty Bronson Jack Mulhall

Constance Cummings

Romance of a Girl Who Waited for Love to Play a Return Engagement! Come Back"

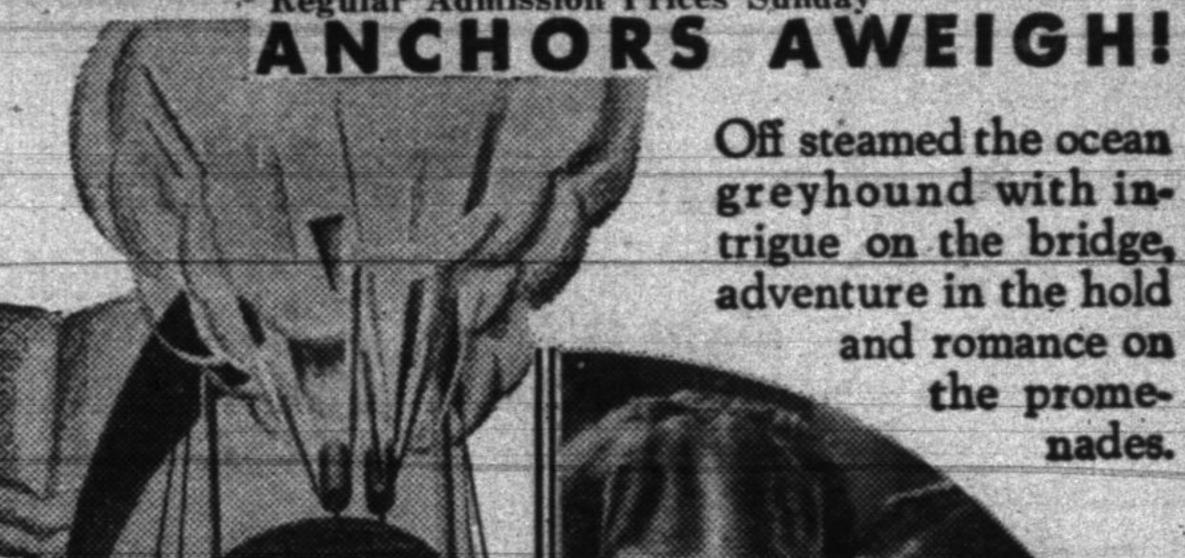

Fast! Smart!

Matinee 2 to 4 Special Childrens Program 4:00 to 11:00 "Lover

10c and 25c

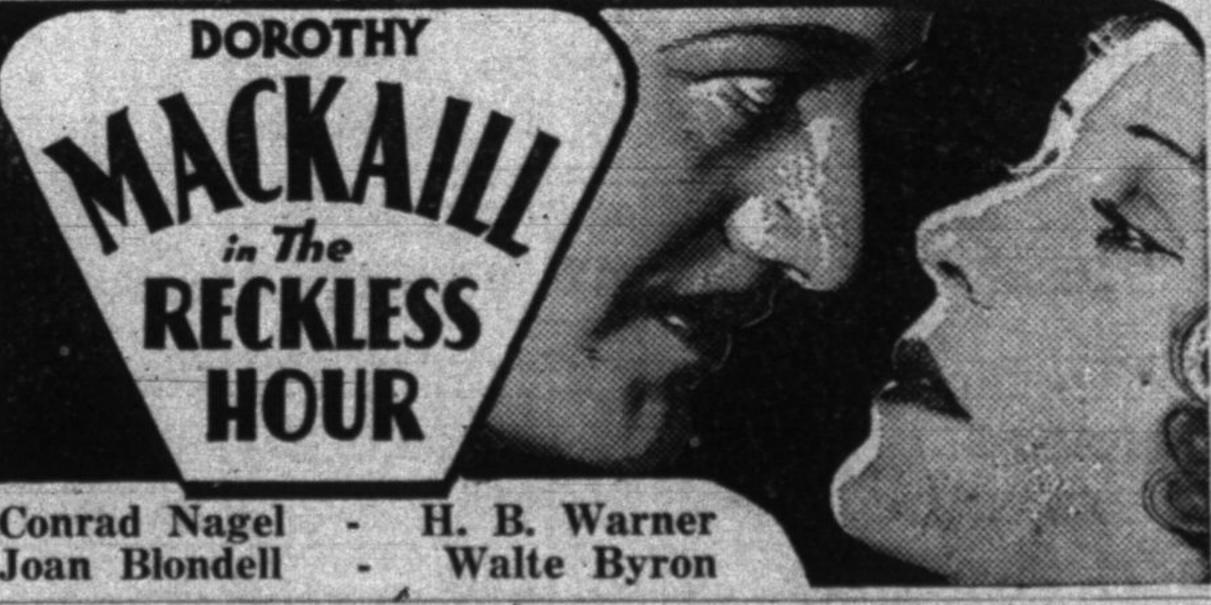

to 6:30

Continuous 2 to 11 SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 11-12 - Regular Admission Prices Sunday

Lois Moran John Halliday Jean Hersholt Greta Nissen Myrna Loy

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 13-14 Continuous 2:00 to 11:00 - 10c and 25c to 6:30 Could this girl really fall in love again! DRAMATIC HIT

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY Continuous 2:00 to 11:00 - 10c and 25c to 6:30

OCTOBER 15-16

MATINEE ONLY-John McBrown in "BILLY THE KID," also Woolsey and Wheeler in "Stout Hearts and Willing Hands"