

Sponsors
Ball Game;
Relief Funds

ant
pied the prin-egion Council
wood, October
Hook of Grays
is second dis-
ame was dis-
gles to be cons that of tak-ffer made by ander of the ouncil, to par-
e at Soldiers'
percentage of or tickets sold
e other plan, popular, was
the local high
t college team
epts for the
It is believed
the one used.
arge has not
ails.
t the Legion
f the receipts
or relief work
ut that each nds so raised to the com-
own in which s located. In on is putting el to help the n and is not benefit to it-

ayer was apnk Elwell as er to fill the
ank Elwell's ell has been ition of Boyer appoint-
Commander
Phil E. Cole, adad, George
lein, as addi-Legionnaire

l and Harry the national sting reports
affair.

e service of-the evening,
g changes in
egion work.
om the floor
posed of by

ppular music talent in the ch with the
so of Highouncil.

ade of a get Legionnaires
which in-the new Leon Sunday
teria dinner
g at 11:30.
ty are urged

ting will be Friday, No-

PRESS
DS

Deerfield Locals

Mrs. Ray D. Reeds entertained her sewing club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Orchard lane.

Mrs. J. Katleman of Omaha was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Shapiro last week. A number of festivities were held in her home. On Thursday, Mrs. M. Grossman of Chicago gave a luncheon-bridge in compliment to Mrs. Katleman. Mr. and Mrs. Shapiro had as their guests on Saturday in her honor, Mr. and Mrs. I. Taitel of Knox, Ind., Martin Taitel and Rebecca Taitel who attend the University of Chicago, and Miss Evelyn Chaufness of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer celebrated their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary on Sunday. They were guests of honor at a family dinner at the Delbert Meyer home on Sunset court. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey, who were week-end guests at the Delbert Meyer home, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Protine of Elmhurst were the out of town guests.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon for Mrs. Minnie Kingsley Moore, of Mayfair who was a retired veteran teacher of the Logan school in Chicago. Mrs. Moore was active in welfare work. She was a member of the board of the Chicago Women's Shelter and a member of the board of the Methodist Episcopal Old People's Home. She served twenty-three years as a teacher in the Logan school. She is survived by her husband Harry E. Moore. Mr. Moore is a former Deerfield resident, having been the first owner of the house now occupied by Mayor and Mrs. James J. Hood. Quite a number from Deerfield attended the funeral.

Mrs. Billington of Twin Brook, S. D., is visiting at the home of her grandson, Russell Potterton of Central avenue.

Mrs. E. J. Bingham and little Miss Sally and Mrs. Amelia Pyle of Chicago were Sunday guests at Claramount place, the home of Mrs. Catherine Ender.

Mrs. W. B. Carr entertained her sewing club on Thursday afternoon at her home on Hazel avenue. Her neighbor, Mrs. Harry Fowler will be the next hostess.

Mrs. John Dow entertained Dorcas Circle Four at luncheon on Thursday. It was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Christ Mentzger, Mrs. Alfred Dow and Mrs. John Dow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher and family have moved from the Fred Stryker house to Glenview, where Mr. Fisher has a gasoline filling station.

Seventeen from Deerfield attended the Lake County Royal Neighbors convention at Gurnee, last Friday afternoon, five of whom also remained for the evening session. Members of fifteen camps were present and participated in the program. Deerfield's part was ritualistic work. Mrs. George Pettis, oracle, gave a toast, also.

An executive meeting of the Girl Scout committee composed of parents and the scout leaders, met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Vinyard.

Mrs. Henry Petersen and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins attended their bridge club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Hanisee of Winnetka.

Mrs. Leslie Brand spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. A. L. Renning of Rogers Park.

Mrs. George Engstrom spent last week-end visiting at the home of Mr. John Engstrom and Miss Ruth Engstrom of Marion, Iowa, and in Cedar Rapids with Mrs. H. L. Emerson.

Mr. D. E. Wageck has been transferred to Oak Park, so with his family will move in the near future. The Wagecks will be missed. Mrs. Wageck was secretary and very active in the newly organized Woman's club, and was organist at St. Paul's Evangelical church.

Miss Laura Muhlke of River Forest is spending this week visiting in Deerfield. On Tuesday, Mrs. George Brand of Deerfield avenue entertained at luncheon in compliment to Miss Muhlke.

Misses Shirley Clark and Retta Ree Hipsley of Northbrook were the dinner guests of Jean Pettis on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates entertained their bridge club on Wednesday evening at their home on Warrington road.

Mrs. A. R. Warner is acting as school nurse for Deerfield for two weeks, while Mrs. Donald Easton is away.

Mrs. Olivia Anderson spent several days of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neild (Gertrude Lundgren) of Pullman, Ill. The Neilds are moving to Highland Park, where Mr. Neild has purchased Charles Hunter's Sport Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf were guests at tea on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvic Petersen of Libertyville.

The Children of the American Revolution will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Orren Peabody, in Highland Park, on Saturday, Oct. 24, at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner and David were Sunday guests at the Stanley Owens home in West Lake Forest.

Mrs. Bertha Huhn of Chicago is spending this week at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Agnes Clavey of Forest avenue.

The Dads and Scouts dinner has been postponed from October 23 to Friday, Nov. 6.

The Sewing Guild of the Holy Cross church is meeting Thursday afternoon (today) at the parish hall.

Mrs. Agnes Clavey was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Deckler of Chicago on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaBahn, Mrs. Fred Biederstadt, Miss Frances Biederstadt with Mrs. Mildred Gibbs of Highland Park visited Jack Gibbs at the Chicago Junior school, near Elgin, on Sunday.

Mrs. Stadler of Bement, Ill., arrived on Sunday evening to spend the winter at the home of her son, Carl Stadler of Orchard lane.

Rev. R. H. Elliott, Ph.D., director of Religious Education of the Chicago Presbytery, is to speak at the Young People's meeting on Sunday evening, at the Presbyterian church.

Boxing Card Oct. 28
at Fort Sheridan to Be Interesting Show

What promises to be the best boxing card in two years is promised for October 28, (Wednesday night) at Fort Sheridan, Ill. Eight all-star bouts will be staged with the favorites such as Charles Rudney for the main go, Spic Cayford, the slugger, for the semi-final, and the grudge fight which has been arranged twice before but failed to materialize between George Nelson and Sid McCutcheon. This promises to be the best fight on the program as a great deal of feeling exists between these two.

Next but not least is Bud Abrahams, the slugger from China, weighing in at one hundred sixty pounds. Other attractions are Brache at one hundred seventy-four pounds, Gilpin at one hundred sixty-five pounds and Rawlings at one hundred thirty-three pounds. To open this show Russell Downs, Third Field Artillery, will meet Leonard Hanson to decide the middleweight championship of the Third Field Artillery.

Don't miss this show as it promises to be the best card ever arranged at Fort Sheridan. Place—Fort Sheridan. Time—8:15 p.m.

For reserved seats call Captain Lippincott 289 or 70, Fort Sheridan.

$ $ SAVE $ $ ALCYON THEATRE
BARGAIN HOUR!
EVERY MONDAY TO FRIDAY NIGHT
Between 6:30 and 7:00 p.m.
ADULTS 40 Cents

PAUL WHITEMAN

DANCING EVERY NIGHT EXCEPT SUNDAY

Fridays Until 1:30 A. M.
Formal—Saturdays Until 2:30 A. M.

In Addition to our Regular Menu
Special Steak or Chicken Dinner $1.75
No Cover Charge or Admission to Dinner Guests

Edgewater Beach Hotel — 5300 Block Sheridan Road

MR. BABSON says:

More and better advertising is the best stimulant to business profits. Now, more than ever, your business needs every possible support. Liberal, truthful and well placed advertising is the reliable tool any selling force can have.

— USE —

THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS
FOR RESULTS—Phone 557

20% DISCOUNT
on Laundry Work Brought and Called for

RELIABLE LAUNDRY
& DRY CLEANING COMPANY
618 N. Greenbay Rd., Highland Pk.